FURS AND WRAPS.

The cold weather is still here and we are offering the most tempting bargains in winter goods. We have a lot of Fur Mitts, Bows and Collars. These are still very stylish and much worn and are certainly the thing for cold weather. We cut the prices just half in two. 40 buys $4, 40 buys $5 and so on. We are also determined to close out all of our handsome Wraps. Half down long Coats, five

Black and one grey one. Also a lovely tan fur trimmed hood and quite a lot of real handsome silk and plush Reeler Jackets that must go. Our prices on Wraps are far below their actual cost. We do not consider cost when we cut the prices to close out goods.

Cold Wave is here in Blankets as well as in weather. You know 'Cold Wave' is the name of our celebrated five dollar Blanket. This is by far the best Blanket on the market for $5. Made right here in North Carolina to our special order, of North Carolina wool. They are the best. Have none unless 'Cold Wave' and our name is on the ticket. Beware of imitations, for all good things are imitated by unscrupulous persons. Now is the bargain time in Wraps and Furs, also Woollen Underwear.

Mrs. Stonewall Jackson.
A letter received from Richmond says that Mrs. Stonewall Jackson is experiencing some relief under the treatment of Dr. McGuire. She is suffering with an affection of a nerve in her forehead, and is being subjected to treatment by electricity. If this fails, Dr. McGuire may resort to the treatment which he has previously given patients for the same affection, and cut the nerve. The operation is not at all dangerous and not very painful. Mrs. Jackson's friends throughout the entire South hope that she will be relieved from her troublesome affliction.

A Fight Over a Tea-Cost Fee.
Col. B. B. Smith is not only mayor of the city of Matthews station, but he is also cotton weigher, justice of the peace, and a member in good standing of several secret lodges. One day this week a Mecklenburg man drove up to Matthews with a load of cotton and to save the weigher's fee of ten cents per bale, he tried to weigh the cotton himself. Col. Smith objected to this, and therefore they lit. They were parted before much damage was done, and it subsequently cost them $250 each, before a magistrate, but Col. Smith not only maintained the dignity of his office, but eventually got the 10 cent fee for weighing the cotton.

Solicitor Brown and the Whiskey Cases.
The February term of the Criminal court for Mecklenburg county, will be convened in Charlotte, on Monday 8th. A News reporter this morning enquired of solicitor John E. Brown the outlook for prosecutions of whiskey cases. "There will be some," said the solicitor, and his tone was very decided, "but just how many I am not at present able to say." The solicitor is a very ardent prohibitionist and would swim a creek to get a good case against a violator of the law. In regard to rice beer, Col. Brown is not yet ready to express himself. The trouble is that he doesn't know what rice beer is, and has not yet been able to find any one who does know.

Local Rippling.
Miss Lelia Galtman is now slowly convalescing from a long spell of sickness.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Caldwell arrived in the city to-day and registered at the Central. Mr. Caldwell takes charge of the Chronicle Monday morning.

—The "Little Nugget" will be at the opera house to-night. The papers all over the country speak very highly of this play. There's fun in it as well as music and dancing.

—King Young, a negro who escaped from the Mecklenburg county chain gang, when the county stockade was burned a couple of years ago, has been captured in Atlanta. He will be returned to Charlotte, and put to work again on the roads.

—Since the fair weather set in, the receipts of cotton by wagon at the Charlotte market continue very good. To-day the wagons brought in 70 bales, and this with the railroad receipts, kept the men about the platform busy.

—A note to the editor of THE NEWS from Greensboro this morning, says: To-day the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of North Carolina, telegraphed President Harrison protesting against a Chilean war and urging arbitration.

THESE WILL BE NO WAR.
Chill Makes a Second and a Complete Apology.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—There will be no war. Honor Month has received another dispatch from Chill. It is unequivocal in its expression of regret, and cannot but be satisfactory to this government. It is a complete apology. Those who have seen it say that the apology is humble and that no civilized nation could refuse to accept it. Moreover the dispatch received on Tuesday was much more ample in its terms of apology than has been stated in the dispatches from Chill.

Speaking of the reply that Chill has made to the ultimatum, Mr. Blount, chairman of foreign affairs committee, said that the whole matter is settled. Nothing but preliminaries remain to be arranged. The apology made by Chill is as complete as it could possibly be. They speak with most profound regret of the attack on the Baltimore sailors; declare a sincere feeling of friendship for the United States and a profound respect for our flag and our uniform. They speak feelingly of the presence of American men-of-war in their ports during the revolution and of the friendly attitude of our officers and men at that time. They say that entertaining the feeling of friendship which they do toward the United States it would be impossible for them not to sympathize with or to fail to feel the most profound regret for the assault upon the United States sailors. As an evidence of their perfect good faith, they say, they propose, in connection with the complete and humble apology, that the matter of reparation be referred to the United States supreme court to determine. There is no reserve. It is a complete apology and settles the whole matter.

Mr. Blount said that the whole inside of any feeling of hostility or resentment dropped out before such an apology. While the foreign affairs committee was in session yesterday word was received from the President that he had a dispatch from Chill just received, but that it had not yet been translated and they did not know its contents. The suggestion was conveyed that the committee ought to take no action in the Chill matter until they could be informed as to the contents of this dispatch. It was on account of this message that the committee adjourned until tomorrow. As the matter now stands there is nothing for the foreign affairs committee to do. The President will make a reply to Chill and then communicate the Chilean message and his reply to Congress. The Senate committee on foreign relations has been informed of the turn affairs have taken.

WASHINGTON, January 28, 3 p. m.—In a message sent to Congress today, President Harrison says: "I am of the opinion that there is a good prospect of all the differences being settled satisfactorily by the usual methods, without the special powers of Congress."

—Rev. Dr. Bowman, of St. Mark's Lutheran church, will preach in the First Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock next Sunday morning and in his own church at night. The two congregations will unite in these services.

Mecklenburg Presbytery.
In the absence of a moderator and by request of Rev. Wm. McIlwaine, Rev. R. C. Reed, and elders John E. Oates and A. G. Brentner, Rev. R. E. Johnston, stated clerk, has called a meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery to be held in the First Presbyterian church of Charlotte, on Tuesday, February 2. This meeting of Presbytery is called to receive ministers and arrange for their installations, to transfer Licentiate L. A. Oates to the Presbytery of New Castle, to transfer Rev. Wm. E. McIlwaine to the Presbytery of North Alabama, to appoint a Chairman of Executive Committee of Home Missions, and consider the interests of Home Missions in the bounds of the Presbytery.

North Carolina and the World's Fair.
The committee on collections, appointed by the Board of Agriculture, met in Raleigh yesterday. The News and Observer says: "The preliminary arrangements for the educational exhibit were made and the committee hopes to have the cooperation of the Superintendent of Public Education in making the exhibit, and the committee expects that the exhibit will be such as to represent the entire educational system of the State, the public and private schools, the colleges and the University. The committee also made preliminary arrangements for gathering together the exhibits in agriculture, horticulture, forestry, mines and mining, general natural history and fish and fisheries, and the details of this work were turned over to specialists who will report at an adjourned meeting of the committee on the 13th of next February. The members of the committee present yesterday were President Peter M. Wilson, Commissioner John Robinson, Mr. T. K. Bruner, Prof. J. A. Holmes, Dr. H. B. Battle.

The Weather.
Following is a synopsis of weather prevailing at 8 a. m. to-day. The pressure has diminished considerably over this section and temperatures have risen 5 to 10 degrees. Generally fair and warmer weather prevails over the entire country, but one station on the map of Buffalo, reporting any rainfall for the past 24 hours. An area of low pressure obtains over the Lakes, but is not much of a storm developer, as there are neither high winds or precipitation in its influence.

HONES FOR THE ORPHANS.
Col. Brown and Dr. Rumples decide upon a beautiful building for Hartum Springs. The new building for the Presbyterian orphans at Hartum Springs, is to be a beauty in design, a perfect gem of architecture. At the last meeting of the Regents, it was decided that the plans as drawn by Capt. Ramsey, of Salisbury, while being good enough in their way, were not just what was needed and the Regents appointed Col. John L. Brown and Rev. Dr. Rumples a committee to visit the Thornwell orphanage, at Clinton, S. C., and get some ideas from that model institution. Col. Brown and Dr. Rumples went there Tuesday, and returned last night. As a result of their visit, they adopted a three story building, of a beautiful architectural design, containing 15 rooms, with two large class rooms. This building will accommodate from 30 to 40 orphans, and when its capacity is overtaxed another building can be added.

There are now nine buildings on the Thornwell orphanage grounds, and two more are under contract. All the buildings are of stone, shingled in English style on the upper stories. In conversation with a News reporter, Col. Brown talked most entertainingly of his visit to the Thornwell orphanage. Rev. Dr. W. P. Jacobs, the superintendent of the orphanage showed Col. Brown and Dr. Rumples every courtesy possible, and made their visit one of genuine pleasure.

The report of Col. Brown and Dr. Rumples will be at once submitted to the Regents, and the contract for the new building at Hartum Springs will be given out with as little delay as possible.

He Lost His Head.
Reference was made in THE NEWS yesterday to the runaway car at the Carolina Central railroad. The superintendent desires to now inform the public that the safety of passengers does not simply lie in the protection ordinarily afforded by the brake, the chain of which yesterday broke, but that motormen had been instructed to reverse the motor under such circumstances. The motorman who was the real cause of the cars escape had only been on for a few days, and besides want of experience he labored under an intense excitement, hardly attributable to a man of his physique.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew.
The St. Andrew's Brotherhood is an organization within the Episcopal church, a society, we might say, of the young men of the church, in which they are the better trained for the work, and are enabled to be of great service. This society originated in Chicago about 8 years ago. Several young men in that city came together and formed an order with one object, viz, the spread of the gospel among men, and two rules to pray each day for the spread of Christ's kingdom among men, and to make an earnest effort each week to bring some young man within the reach of the gospel. It was found so simple an effective that it has spread all over the United States and Canada, and today there are six hundred and thirty-eight chapters.

A commission of the Brotherhood consisting of Rev. Mr. Lloyd of Norfolk, Va., and Mr. John Wood, General Secretary of the Brotherhood will deliver addresses in St. Peter's the Brotherhood in the United States. All will be welcome and young men are especially urged to be present.
