OUR SHOES ARE ON TOP.

Common sense governs the making of the modern shoe and common sense should govern every level headed purchaser. Don't take your custom where you have to take precautions too. The dealer who sells fraudulent shoes should be made to wear them; the more fraudulent the shoe, the more severe and well deserved the punishment would be. There is no trash in our 3.00 shoe. It is an honest article clear through, it is a perfect phenomenon of cheapness and it simply can't be matched in footgear for the money.

GEORGE W. KITTELLE.

There are a good many people in Charlotte who consider themselves or ordinary every-day-average citizens, of fairly good repute for business integrity, who think that at least in regard of Mr. Geo. W. Kittelle, the proprietor of the Buford House, the moral character business has been carried to a point beyond anything that the exercise of Christian charity would demand. It is the intention to garrot him, it should be done at once, and not by degrees. Mr. Kittelle is either a bad man, or he is a good man. The News does not know that he has habitually occupied a high and conspicuous seat in the synagogue, but it does know that he has been a willing and liberal contributor to local church and charitable objects; that he has been quiet and unobtrusive as a citizen, and enterprising as a business man; that he has conducted the Buford House in a style than it has ever before been conducted, and that since he came to Charlotte and invested his money here, he has proved himself in every way a most desirable resident, from a social and business standpoint. In view of these facts, THE NEWS is bold to say that it could wish the recent actions against him partook less of the appearance of persecution.

Local Ripples.

—Capt. H. C. Cowles of Statesville is at the Buford.

—Mr. Charles Wilson is quite sick at his home on North College street.

—The Chicago Produce Exchange was closed today in honor of Lincoln's birthday.

—The study of a miracle commences at 7:45 at the Y. M. C. A. tonight. Men cordially invited.

—Despite the stormy wind to-day, there was a right good lot of cotton in the city. Forty bales were brought in by wagons.

—“Keep the Ball Rolling,” says the Greensboro Record, in referring to Charlotte's claim for the State convention.

—Mr. W. L. Cochran, father of Mr. R. L. C. Cochran, of the firm of Sims & Cochran, is very dangerously sick at his home in the Back creek section of this county. His recovery is despaired of.

—Mr. J. M. Sims has begun his spring sales of Patridge Cochran eggs. Mr. Sims' chickens are beauties. He shipped a pair of chickens today to Atlanta. The pair weighed 18 pounds and was sold for $3.

—Mrs. Sue Lethco was sent to the State hospital at Morganton this morning, in charge of Mr. R. J. Porter. Mrs. Lethco's friends hope that she will soon be returned to them fully restored in health.

—The gymnasium exhibition at the Y. M. C. A. next Thursday night will be the best ever given in Charlotte. The high diving and distance diving, the Indian club class and the pyramids by “flash light” are among the new features and especially fine.

—The Olcott Richmond Terminal re-organized plan is expected to be completed before the end of the present week. A member of the committee stated that the plan would undoubtedly be a success, as no efforts have been spared to render it practically as possible in the circumstances to all interests concerned.

For the Thompson Orphanage.

The ladies of St. Peter's Episcopal church are striving to give quite a unique entertainment on the night of the 20th of this month, for the benefit of the Thompson Orphanage. The programme, which is as yet not entirely completed, will rival any entertainment given in Charlotte this winter. The building in which the entertainment is to take place has not been definitely decided upon, but if satisfactory arrangements can be made the auditorium will be the place.

A News reporter in conversation with one of the ladies who has charge of the preparatory arrangements this morning learns that everything was working well, and that “The Fair” promised to be a grand success. Among the varied attractions that can be seen on that night will be seven tables representing the seven different colors of the rainbow, each table heavily laden with the most tempting delicacies of the season and some fair ones to attend to the crowd's every want.

In connection with the fair will be a doll show. To mention the different colors, sizes and expressions of each of the dolls would be indeed a tedious undertaking, but it is enough to say that Prof. John W. Walker will manage this department of the fair, and to him we will leave further details concerning the doll show. This entertainment which promises so much pleasure for the old and the young should be well patronized, as the proceeds go to a worthy cause.

Views of a Western Democrat.

THE NEWS today had a talk with one of the most prominent politicians of Western North Carolina. Referring to the State convention he said: “The coming convention will be one of the largest and most important that has yet been held in the State. It has been demonstrated that Raleigh has no accommodations for the gathering that is expected. I was glad to see in THE NEWS a few days ago, the point so forcibly made that the convention has been held at Raleigh merely as a time-honored custom. It is time for common sense to take the place of custom. The west wants the convention held at Charlotte, and a great many Democrats in the east are also in favor of Charlotte. The executive committee, in my opinion, would do the party and the State a service by fixing upon Charlotte as the place for holding the convention.”

No More Local Forecasts.

The United States weather bureau at Washington has addressed a circular letter to the forecast officers in all of the local bureaus throughout the country, instructing them to discontinue furnishing forecasts made at night to the morning newspapers. These will hereafter be furnished exclusively by the bureau at Washington. The reasons set forth in the circular are that the reports will very frequently conflict and give the people an idea that the forecasters are not certain that the predictions made will materialize. That they do conflict at times is well known from the fact that two experienced men, working from exactly the same data, will very often draw different conclusions as to the result.

Adjutant General James D. Glenn, of Greensboro, is expected here Monday and the boys are looking for some military news.

—A Monument to Father Ryan. SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 11.—Savannah is to erect a monument to Father Ryan, the Confederate's poet-priest. The organization is now being perfected. General Henry R. Jackson will probably be president of the association.

NOT WILEY AS INDICED.

But Quality of Evidence Suggests—John Wiley Will Go to the Penitentiary.

The case of John Wiley for the murder of Sidney Burton was resumed in the Criminal court this morning at 10 o'clock. The testimony was completed in a short time after court convened when the argument by counsel began. The counsel for the defense, Messrs. W. B. Dowd, J. A. Bell and Wm. M. Little reviewed the testimony in the case and made strong arguments for their client. The plea of self defense was presented to the jury by Wiley's counsel, they claiming that the testimony in the case warranted such a stand and that throughout the trial no evidence had been produced to set aside this plea of self defense. Solicitor Brown for the State presented the State's side of the case in a plain forcible manner, recapitulating the testimony and bringing out all the strong points which go to show Wiley's guilt.

Judge Meares charge was an able one, every point in the case being brought before the jury. It was nearly an hour in length, and clearly showed the ability with which all his charges are characterized. The case was given to the jury at one o'clock.

The jury came into court immediately after the noon recess and returned a verdict that we, the jurors, find John Wiley not guilty of the felony and murder as charged in the bill of indictment, but we find him guilty of the felonious slaying of Sidney Burton. This verdict will send Wiley to the penitentiary.

A little negro girl named Mary Ross, was found guilty of stealing a lamp and was sentenced to 90 days on the chain gang.

Only Two Men Who Could Do It.

The world has had just two men who could play the original composition of Paganini on the “G” violin string—one was the composer himself the other Ovide Musin, Mr. Musin will play this famous composition at the Y. M. C. A. Hall tomorrow night on a violin having but one string, the “G.” Mr. Musin is the only violin virtuoso who plays the original Paganini variations, having secured them from a relative of the famous Paganini, and possessing now the only copy in existence. If the programme contained but this solo alone it would be well worth the very moderate price of admission.

Freezing Weather and High Winds.

Charlotte woke up this morning to find a cold wave prevailing. The sun shone brightly but a rattling wind from the west prevailed, and the temperature stood below the freezing point all morning. At times the winds whistled by at the rate of 30 miles an hour and the very thoughts of a fire made one nervous. Chief Bixby and his force were up and ready for duty at 5 a. m. but fortunately the top of the fire bell was the one stroke which regularly announces the noon hour. Farmers who came in to-day say that the freeze was so hard that all along the road the red clay banks were shoved up by the icicle needles.

A Monument to Father Ryan.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Feb. 11.—Savannah is to erect a monument to Father Ryan, the Confederate's poet-priest. The organization is now being perfected. General Henry R. Jackson will probably be president of the association.

The Steam Laundry.

The steam laundry established here two years ago by Mr. A. A. States has been bought by Mr. D. M. Rieger. Mr. Rieger will assume charge of the laundry tomorrow night. It is a good investment. Dal has always had a knack of making that sort.

A Bad Case.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Knox, of Lemby township, this county, are both at death's door with pneumonia. Mrs. Knox was not expected to survive through the day and Mr. Knox's recovery is despaired of. Mrs. Knox is sister to Mr. Jetton, a member of the board of Mecklenburg county commissioners.

Outside of Hallsboro.

Yesterday afternoon Father Francis of St. Peter's Catholic church of this city, received a sick call to Hallsboro. He went there last night. He was called to see a young man named Henry Ruch, who had swallowed two vials of laudanum with suicidal intent. Father Francis returned to the city this afternoon. He reports that the young man died last night.

A True Bill Against Boyd.

The grand jury of the Criminal court today found a true bill for burglary against John Boyd, the negro who is in jail here under various charges, one of which is the wrecking of the train at Boston's bridge. It will be remembered by the readers of THE NEWS that Boyd was arrested for stealing a cow, while the railroad detectives were after him for train wrecking. He is indicted for burglarizing the house of Mr. McQuay.

A New Spring at Cleveland.

Mr. J. B. Wilkinson, proprietor of the Cleveland Springs, was in the city yesterday. He says that a new spring of sulphur water, equal if not superior to the old white sulphur spring, has been discovered at Cleveland. The new spring is located near the iron spring at the foot of the terrace near the bowling alley. It is said to be splendid water. Mr. Wilkinson is getting the springs in shape for the coming season and expects to accommodate more guests than ever.

The Naval Battalion Bound for Hampton Roads.

While the State Guard is rowing over the matter of the equipment of the Charlotte Naval Battalion is resting quietly on its oars and guns, confident of having a fine time in Hampton Roads next June. The Naval Battalion will camp at Fort Monroe, but will be exercised during the day on board ship in the roads. Some of the members of the Battalion may, perchance, not have a correct idea of “the roads.” THE NEWS will merely suggest, though, that if any of them expect to find any dust on Hampton Roads, they will be disappointed.

David's Men Hard to Get At.

The Chronicle sent out a reporter yesterday to prod the local eagle and see how many times he would scream for Hill and how many screams he would give for Cleveland. The eagle must have been subsidized, for only once in a while did he give a scream for Hill, and then it was of an apologetic nature.

The real explanation of the paucity of Hill expressions in the Chronicle's interview, is this: David B. has his men all caged up and ready for business. You must first get at them before you can interview them.

A GLITTERING TURNOUT,

We can give you a chance to display your judgment. It has never been our good fortune to offer for inspection such an enticing display of Knives and Forks as we are now showing.
