

THE CHARLOTTE NEWS.

VOLUME VII.

Seigle's

FEB 22
1892

True Values.

A good article you know what that means! It means economy. It means something that always looks the same well and gives good satisfaction. We keep only the best. What we say is that we mean only what we say. Our stock consists of the choice from the home, fresh from the makers, the cream of the cream of the season's product. They are the very best value that money will buy, and cost a whit more expensive to you than others ask for inferior and second-hand stockings. A full price always brings its market value, just so with these genuine textile art and manufacture. How often have you heard the old saying that the best way the cheapest, and as to the truth of it you only have to look at your own experience of it. We will be glad to give you all the information you want to know about our memory, that we have been in business for a long time, and that we are well known throughout the country. We make our statements plain so that there can be no misunderstanding. For values equal to ours, our spring stock of Embroidered White Goods, and Laces, where and when new being shown. Likewise we shall quote some qualities and prices thereof that will be a credit to our name in the trade.

T. L. Seigle & CO.

No 11 W. Trade St., S. Tryon at

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

For every article bought of us, that does not prove to be satisfactory, we entreat most that it be returned to us, and we will make a full refund, and give a credit. We prefer to be honest and straightforward.

By order of T. L. SEIGLE & CO.

Just Received

A Fresh Supply of

PETER HENDERSON'S

Prize Tomato Seed.

"PONDEROSA"

Burwell Dunn,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL

Druggists.

EUCALYPTINE JELLY

Eucalyptine Contains no Grease.

A Specific for Chapped

Hands and Lips, Scratches

Cuts, Burns, Insect Bites,

Chafing, etc.

FOR SALE AT

A. B. REESE & CO'S.

You can get more positive discomfort out of a shoe, to the square inch than out of almost anything else under the sun to the square mile. If you don't think so, try it. That's one side of the picture. Here's the other: From the right kind of shoe you can get no discomfort at all; on the contrary it will be a case of getting satisfaction first, last and all the time. This is exactly what you can depend upon our shoes to give you; they will give you this, and nothing else, and before you've worn them ten minutes you'll agree with us.

A. E. RANKIN & BRO.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., TUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 23, 1892

NUMBER 1078

Local Happenings.

Lieut. W. E. Shipp, of 10th Cavalry, U. S. Army is registered at the Central.

One hundred and five bales of cotton were received in the city by wagon to day.

The dancing class for ladies and gentlemen, will meet tonight at the Academy, at 8:30 o'clock.

A movement is on foot to merge the Naval Battalion and the Hornets' Nest Riflemen in one organization.

By the provisions of the Mecklenburg county bird law, it will be unlawful to shoot birds from the 1st of March to the 15th of next October.

Mr. T. H. Alexander is very sick at his home on 11th street. Mr. Alexander was taken sick in Macon, Ga. and reached home last night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jordan, of Mt. Island, who have been in the city for a few days past, with a sick child have returned to their home. Their little child is somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. superintendents of Mr. W. T. Jordan's stores at Mt. Island, was married in Fort Mill, yesterday by Rev. Mr. McManaway, to Miss Emma McMillen, sister of Mrs. Jas. Carter, of Charlotte.

The unique and beautiful paper ornaments to be seen at the fair to-morrow evening will be well worth looking at. This department will be one of the prettiest features of the fair.

Capt. A. G. Breuer's lecture on Banking and Money, delivered at the Y. M. C. A. hall last night, was listened to by a large audience. The address was an excellent one, interesting, entertaining and instructive. It will be published in tomorrow's News.

A pair of beautiful horses hitched to a buggy came dashing down South Tryon street this morning, but were stopped before much damage was done, not however before they had turned the buggy over and broke several pieces of the harness. They belonged to a driver at W. W. Worth's stables.

Some Cotton that Was Held.

Mr. Walter Pharr to day brought ten bales of cotton to the city and put them on the market. This lot, which was ginned in 1889, Mr. Pharr could have sold it then at 25 cents. It averaged 6 cents per pound. When sold to day, a loss of $20 per bale.

To Drill the Guards.

Lieut. W. E. Shipp, of the United States Army, who has been detailed to drill the various companies of the North Carolina State Guard, will be the Charlotte Queen City Guards in hand to-morrow. Lieut. Shipp will drill the guards in the auditorium.

Not a Good Day for New Authors.

There hasn't been much of anything going on about town-day except runways. There were three up to the hour THE NEWS went to press. A countryman was running into town with a barrel of kraut, when, as he said, his horse "got skeered at the damned electric kers," and lit out. He lost his kraut, and for half an hour afterward, a crowd of little darkies were busily engaged gathering it up.

A horse-driver was driving a pair of spirited animals on South Tryon street, when they ran away, overturned the buggy and threw out the driver. Neither horses, driver nor vehicle were injured.

At 4 o'clock this afternoon, a four horse team ran away on Calhoun street. At Mayr & Ross' corner, the team collided with a beef wagon and the air was full of flying spokes, single trees, quarters of beef, wagon planks and niggers. The beef wagon was torn all to pieces and pedestrians had to dodge the flying chunks of meat. The wreckage of both wagons fairly strewed the streets, but, for a wonder nobody was hurt.

New Advertisements To Day.
The Doll Show
A. F. and A. M. French
Gum-shoe, W. B. Taylor
Gum-shoe, Jas. Hawkins Co.
Tin Cakes, T. H. Wright & Co.
Premium Shoes, George A. Co.
Ducks and Chickens, J. M. Jones
Rainbow Fair, Mrs. E. A. Osborne
Eucalyptine Jelly, A. B. Reese Co.

Get one of Easylights' bushrakes for us something new.

CONGRESSMAN.

Bush House in Session but a Short White Intermission Proceedings.

Washington, Feb. 23. Senate.—

After a three day's recess of the two houses, the Senators were not very punctual in their attendance for not one fourth of their whole number were present when the opening prayer was offered and the journal of last Friday, was read. Senator Vestgate noticed that he would on Thursday next call up Mr. Hale's reciprocal resolutions for the purpose of submitting some remarks upon them. Senator Call gave a like notice for Monday next on his resolutions as to the railroad corporations in Florida influencing the senatorial elections. The calendar was then up and the Senate bill appropriating $100,000 for a public building at Newport News, Va., was discussed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23. House—

There was not one hundred members present when at noon the House was called to order by Chief Clerk Fowles, who stated that owing to the continued absence of Speaker Crisp, on account of sickness, it became evident on the House to elect a speaker pro tem. On motion of Capt. Engle of Miss. McMillen of Tenn., was elected to perform the duties of the chair and the resolutions were adopted providing for notification of the President and Senate of this action.

Brown of Indiana gave notice that he would call up the Pennsylvania contested election case of Craig vs Stewart Thursday next. A few reports were made from committees and placed upon the appropriate calendar and the House then adjourned.

The Little Tycoon.

At the opera house, Thursday February 20th, an elaborate production of the merry comic opera, "The Little Tycoon," will take place with the original company, headed by the finished comedian, H. E. Graham. It will be interesting to note the extent of current interest in this work which outrivaled in popularity every other operatic production of its class, with possibly the exception of "The Mikado," which the author claims on what seems to be reasonable grounds, was the result of a reading of his own libretto by the Gilbert and Sullivan men after he had entrusted it to Boyle Carter sometime before the work was made public.

Of the merit of "The Little Tycoon" it is needless to speak extenuably. At the time when public comment upon it ranged mostly from faint praise to undisguised ridicule, the press of Philadelphia found reason to cordially commend Mr. Spenser's music for its freshness, fluency and originality, and to approve with equal warmth the general interest of the entertainment. So long as "The Little Tycoon" was presented by competent principals and an adequate supporting company, that verdict has almost uniformly been sustained by the public in Philadelphia, its birthplace, and elsewhere. On the part of the management, an elaborate production is promised with a strong cast and new scenery and costumes. H. E. Graham, the well known comedian, Louis Millard, Joseph Meany, Robert Dunbar, Mabelia Baker, Mamie Estelle, G. Broderick, J. F. Metcalf and Charles E. Graham will appear. The production will be given under the supervision of Henry Greenwall, who has secured the rights from the author.

Creditors to Meet Thursday.

The creditors of Mr. Richard Moore are to hold a meeting in the law office of Clarkson & Dials, Thursday morning, at 10 o'clock. The stock which was in the store on Trade street, has all been removed to the store room next to Metcalf's. The inventory shows that there is $7,500 of hardware and debts outstanding to the amount of $7,587.54. The liabilities amount to a little over $100.

Presidential Nominations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The President to day sent to the Senate the following nominations: William R. Gilbert of Oregon, United States Circuit judge for the 9th judicial circuit; Henry H. Smith of Michigan, Assistant register of the Treasury.

Children Crv for Fisher's Castoria.

THE ROSENBERG MFG. CO.

Bush House in Session but a Short White Intermission Proceedings.

Washington, Feb. 23. Senate.—

The big fight over Still Bingers, More Legal Bingers Drawn in and the Commissioners Make a Type Writing to see if Japanese Goods.

There was today settled the hearing of mandamus proceedings before Judge Johnbury Bryan, the board of county commissioners having been subpoenaed to appear before him and show cause why license to retail liquor in Charlotte should not be granted to Capt. Roesser. The full text of the papers served on the commissioners was published in our News of Saturday, February 1st.

The attorneys for Capt. Roesser specified thirteen complaints and prayed judgment that the defendants be compelled by writ of mandamus to grant license to the plaintiff to sell liquor at the place designated in his application.

That the plaintiff may have such other and further relief as under the law may be entitled to have in the premises, and for the cost of this action.

Judge Bryan was to have been here to day to hear the issue, but last night it developed that he was still detained at Monroe holding court. It was then mutually agreed by counsel that the matter be postponed to next Tuesday, when Judge Bryan will be here to hold Mecklenburg Superior court.

The commissioners however were here today arranging, revising and adopting a formidable looking document in the shape of an answer to the papers served upon them by Capt. Roesser's attorneys. It will be remembered by THE NEWS readers that the document served on the commissioners made three solid columns in this paper. The answer which will be filed by the commissioners through their attorney, will be fully as lengthy. Tom New got on track of it yesterday afternoon, and chased it diligently up to twelve o'clock today. It is first given to the cabinet meeting of the county commissioners, who spent some time in nailing up the gaps and it was not until this morning that it was given to a type writer to build over in good shape. It required an hour or two for the type writer to get through with the task, and then the type written document had to be again revised at a meeting of the cabinet. At noon, A. E. News reporter picked the peck to Lawyer Carter's door and broke in on the meeting. "Can I get a copy of that document now?" asked the reporter. Chairman Van Stockton head, Lawyer Basin said. "In an hour or two," our calendar for printing the document to day were thus broken beyond repair. The answer takes up each poem made by the plaintiff himself and denies it at length.

The fight grows bigger the longer the day of the final clash is delayed. The commissioners have called in Messrs. George E. Basin and George E. Wilson to assist Mr. Carter. Capt. Roesser's array of counsel consists of Col. H. C. Jones, Burwell & Walker, and Osborne & Maxwell.

Moore and Jetton Not in.

The names of Baxter Moore and J. L. Jetton, members of the board of commissioners, are missing from the signatures to the answer. Mr. Moore and Mr. Jetton were in town today, but they knew nothing at all about the answer. They say that they were not invited to the meeting between the commissioners and their attorneys, and therefore were not in the business at all.

A Sensation in Prospect.

The answer of the three County Commissioners, Van Kirkpatrick and Hilton to the application of Capt. Roesser for a mandamus to grant him license to sell liquor will create a sensation in the community before it is done with. These commissioners declare on oath that they had formed and expressed no determination to grant license to any one previous to the hearing of the case.

There are, rumors current that tend to modify the force of this statement. Then again the old controversy between Capt. Roesser and Mr. Hilton about the schedule of prices is revived. The complaint charges Mr. Commissioner Hilton with having suggested this schedule. Mr. Clegg, Mr. Hilton and only do we know that statement but says that he never heard of it until it was presented to the board.

The Roads of the Tar Heels.

A call meeting of the board of trustees of Charlotte Academy was held this morning at the office of Dr. C. H. Maxwell. The secretary read a petition numerously signed asking that the portion of the road as laid out last fall between Belmont and Paul McRae place be condemned and that a new one be opened from McRae place to a point on the Highland road at Belmont, passing through the property of C. H. Wilson, C. H. McDonald, and A. P. Foster. The tract of land in question is bounded by the grant of Jas. McRae. The petition of the trustees was approved.

Opposition to the new road was reported to the president by Mr. Myers.

J. J. Wilson was appointed supervisor and H. E. McDonald, Charles Heins and Wm. Brown a committee to divide the battle between the C. H. and Shadwell roads.

A motion made by W. W. Price that a committee of twelve be appointed to ascertain the cost of making a map of the roads of Mecklenburg and Union was carried. The committee appointed consisted of C. H. Wilson, S. Myers and W. W. Price.

A Celebration on Mr. Gathert's Farm.

The colored people on Mt. H. Gathert's farm a day or two ago were seized with a spirit of patriotic and decided to celebrate Washington's birthday with a big fish fry. They bought salt water fish in town and that night there was a great gathering at a cabin on Mr. Gathert's farm. About twelve o'clock the feast had been ample done for, and the blacks who had been indulged in during the evening, came in to play cards. One knocked another cold with a loaded shot, and then the round began again. Law, rocks, sticks and pieces of plank pulled from the cabin were the weapons used. When the row ended two negroes were lying on the ground insensible from blows on the head, and three others were gory with blood from knife wounds. All the participants in the row who were able to travel escaped across the line into South Carolina.

The Valer Case.

The case against the Robert Porter Brewing Co. for selling beer without a license will probably hang fire for sometime. When it was called before Esquire Maxwell, yesterday afternoon, Mr. Valer, the agent of the company, demanded a jury, whereupon a discussion arose upon alleged defects in the papers served on him. The papers were amended, and then came the question as to who would be responsible for the costs, as no prosecutor's name appeared on the warrant. Finally Mr. Valer voted to let the case be tried before Esquire Maxwell. That magistrate assigned the case to Mr. F. B. McDowell, and Mr. McDowell transferred it to Esquire Boyd.

Esquire Boyd gave notice that he would try the case this afternoon, and on asking Col. Jones, of counsel, for Valer, at what hour he would be ready, he told him no hour at all. It is claimed that the law does not permit passing around from base to base of a case in this manner. The next move will anxiously watched by the public.

The Weather.

The following is a synopsis of the weather prevailing at 8 a.m. today: The cold northeasterly winds which are in progress at this point, and which also prevail over this section generally, are the result of a high barometer located around the lower lakes, producing these high and cold winds outward from the high. With the exception of a very limited area in this section, cloudy and threatening weather obtains over the country, but very little precipitation has occurred, except along the Florida coast, where light rains have occurred, and a rain area is now in progress. A low pressure is located in northern Texas, but is very imperfectly developed as yet. Temperatures have fallen over this section.

Immense line of Towels and pretty fancy Splashers, Jeweled Tidies, Sofa Cushions.

Good stock Mas Gloves,

Blazers and pleated Caps

Fancy Serim, Figured

drapery silks. Best val-

un yet offered in Mens half hose, black and ecru, at 25c.

TIME IS MONEY.

<p