We Didn't Make This Pair.

For a good shoe you can say nothing too good; for a bad shoe nothing too bad. With a bad shoe you can't do anything; it's a hopeless case and the sooner you get rid of it the better you'll be off. We would just as soon think of trying to give a bad shoe a good character as we would of trying to give a good shoe a bad character. Our $3.00 shoe speaks for itself the minute it is on the foot. It is unrollable in absolutely no respect. It is just what economical buyers are looking for—it gives economy a chance without sacrificing either quality or comfort.

E. RANKIN & BRO.

We have Coca Cola on draught and will continue to have it all summer. We sold hundreds of glasses last season and it is undoubtedly a quick relief for headache.

A. B. REESE & CO'S.

Local Ripper.

—Mr. Pembroke Jones, of Wilmington, is at the Central.

—Mr. J. N. Reinhardt, of Liberton, is in the city.

—A little child of Dr. C. A. Misenheimer is quite sick with pneumonia.

Seventy five bales of cotton were brought to the city by wagon today.

—Capt. Fride Jones, one of the Richmond & Danville's vestibule conductors, is on a furlough.

—Mr. W. L. Smith, prominent citizen of Delta is very sick with the grip. His condition is considered critical.

Miss Mary Boyd, who has been the guest of Miss Blocker Springs for the past three weeks, will return to her home, Reidsville, this evening.

—Ben O'Neil, the Jewish missionary in Jerusalem, is building a new church there, and in it is a tablet with the simple inscription: "Dr. Miller's Jerusalem Mission."

—The report of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange for the week ending March 18th, shows 2,252 bales in sight, against 2,112 for the same date last year.

—Mrs. Alex. Mann and Miss Mann, of Brooklyn, Miss S. J. Paul of Smythright, New Jersey, and Mr. Barnett and wife, of Portland, Oregon, are at the Central returning home from Florida.

—Mr. John C. Leslie and Mr. McDowell, of Rogers & Co., have returned from the New York markets. They selected an excellent spring stock which they will have ready for the trade in a few days.

—The Presbyterian Orphanage at Barren Springs was founded through the efforts of the ladies of Charlotte, and naturally, our people feel a deep interest in its success. Dr. Rump's appeal for aid will therefore be quite liberally responded to by the people of Charlotte.

—There was a gathering of the anti-Brady faction in the court house last Saturday night, J. W. Gordon being master of ceremonies. The resolutions passed did not embrace a clause stating that as a postmaster Mr. Brady is a success.

—Jas. Harrison, a young man of Charlotte who gave up a job on the cotton platform nearly two years ago to go to Tampa, Fla., back, and he is here to stay. He has been in the electric light business there. He likes Tampa very much, but he likes Charlotte better.

—Bob Wallace, of Eastfield, was in the city today. He says that the fruit in his section is still safe, and the prospect for the small grain crop is fine. There will not be much cotton planted in his section, but cornfields will be abundant. Mr. Wallace is still in hopes of the Roanoke and Southern plowing a furrow through the Eastfield section, on its way from Winston to Charlotte.

—Dr. Francis of the Cental Presbyterian church, Cincinnati, Ohio, preached in the Presbyterian church at Concord, last night, a most eloquent sermon from the question of Christ, "Whom do ye say that I am?" Every one in the audience was delighted with the discourse. Dr. Francis is connected with the Junkin family and, by marriage, with Satterfield president of Scotia seminary. Dr. C. M. Payne preached at Poplar Tent yesterday at three o'clock. Mr. Gilland was absent in South Carolina.

Modern Day Romance.

J. R. Thompson, aged 64 years, a member of the Atlanta police force, was married in this city today, to Miss Lydia J. Henry, a 22 year old daughter of Mr. John Henry, of Iredell county. Esquire D. O. Maxwell, who holds the belt as the champion knot adjuster, of North Carolina, performed the ceremony.

It appears that policeman Thompson advertised for a wife. The Iredell young lady opened a correspondence with him. They exchanged photographs and all that sort of thing, and arranged to meet each other here today. Policeman Thompson arrived here on the morning train from Atlanta, and was at the depot when the A T O train came in, watching out for his girl. They had never met, but as the passengers got out of the train, the people in the train yard saw a good looking young lady rush up to a first rate looking man and throw herself into his arms. It was the first meeting of Mr. Thompson and Miss Henry. They hurried up town, secured the license from the register of deeds and were married by Esquire Maxwell. Then they took the afternoon train for Atlanta.

The Coming of the Majestic.

Considerable interest is manifested by people in this city in the Drayton Harrowe affair. The Majestic, upon which the two men are crossing the ocean is expected at New York next Wednesday. Mr. Drayton's Philadelphia friends have chartered the fleetest tug in New York harbor, their intention being to steam out to sea and meet the Majestic before she reaches port, so as to give Mr. Drayton full information about the publications that have been made in the newspapers in regard to the affairs of his wife and Mr. Harrowe. The Harrowe party has also chartered a tug to steam out to meet the Majestic. The society of New York and Philadelphia is wonderfully stirred up over the matter, but sympathy seems to be with Mr. Drayton. The tale that the Majestic will bring may be a tragic one, or it may not. Probably one or both men have been fed to the sharks, or probably they will be landed in good condition to spill each other's blood on American soil.

At St. Mary's To-Day.

Today has been quite an eventful one at the Catholic monastery at Belmont in Gaston county. This is the feast day of St. Benedict, the founder of the Benedictine Order, and it has been celebrated at St. Mary's in an elaborate way. Pontifical high mass was celebrated by Bishop Hall, who was assisted by Father Francis, of Charlotte, and the resident priests. After the religious exercises, ground was broken for a new Catholic church at the monastery. The new church will be built of brick.

—Senator Hill passed through Charlotte Saturday night on his return to Washington, and found a very large crowd, including many ladies, at the depot to meet him. He made a brief address, and said that he had a good speech which he held in reserve to be delivered here on the 20th of May.

—By request, Prof. Allmon will repeat the series of last Friday night. The date set is to-morrow, Tuesday evening, and it goes without saying that a large crowd will be present. The series was one of the most elegant affairs of the kind yet seen in Charlotte.

The Bear Show.

A party Italians with three big bears are fuisting amusement on the side streets of the city at present. It is a good bear show, inasmuch as the boys and the men, for the consideration of 50 cents will indulge in genuine boxing and wrestling matches. Of course the bears always win but the men make enough of a show of fight to make it entertaining. At a show Saturday night, an Italian who was boxing the little bear hit him rather hard lick on the ear. When the bear gave a growl and cuffed the Italian on the side of the head so fiercely as to knock him flat way across the street.

While the show was going on today and the big bear was ambling around the ring with a pole, a little darkey sung out: "Look at de bear, clarr de de dean walk jes like de vance."

A Fair Escort.

Among the party that escorted Senator Hill from Rock Hill to Charlotte Saturday evening, was Miss Biesker Springs, of Charlotte, Miss Mary Boyd, of Reidsville, and Miss Genevieve Gray, of Greensboro. These young ladies were introduced to the senator and his party as the train moved off from Rock Hill. The senator was in his happiest mood and his attentions to these three young ladies was noticeable to all on the car. The senator being a bachelor and his chances exceedingly bright for the presidential chair, the News-Tribune thinks that it would not be dating things too far ahead to venture the assertion that some day one of these three, the most popular young ladies of the old North State may share with him the honors that cluster around the White House.

Cabarrus Politics.

A meeting of the Cabarrus county Democratic executive committee was held in the court house in Concord, last Saturday. The primary, or township conventions, are to be held throughout that county on April 7th, and the county convention to send delegates to the State convention will be held on April 14th. Cabarrus politics have always been pretty hard to understand, even by the natives themselves, but this year it seems pretty clear that the Alliance crew will have charge of the old county ship of Democracy, a ship by the way that appears to have been foredoomed to run through rocky channels, but that always comes into port in good time with a jolly crew and anywhere from 750 to 1,000 Democratic majority on board.

of Interest to the Knights.

Every Knight of Pythias should see Robt. Downing's production of "Damon and Pythias" which will be given at the opera house on next Friday evening with what might be termed a knightly cast, as there will be no less than seven members of the order in the principal parts, including, Sir Knight Robt. Downing, who will be seen in his great impersonation of Damon, Eugene Blair the beautiful and talented leading lady of the company appearing as Calathie while that sterling young master actor Fred C. Mosley will enact Pythias.

Death of Mrs. Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. M. C. Kirkpatrick died at her home in that city on Saturday at 11 o'clock last night and her body was buried at the grave yard at 10 o'clock this afternoon. She was one of the most estimable ladies of Mecklenburg county and was a widow of Mrs. P. Alexander of Charlotte.

New Ice Machine of Value.

It can be possible that Dr. George W. Handerlin will be a good enough man for the attention of the people to pay for his machine. Even the best publicans would give for him, but the News-Tribune is a pretty good source that he is to be able to track. The two men now most prominently mentioned by the machine are Mr. Handerlin and John H. Vance. It is the day of ice and somebody's particular business is bound to be bust.

Sail A'Way.

The past season's 27 ft. launch will be somewhat revised with a new after-mast at 2 o'clock, and will be put on the water with Mr. J. C. Herring will sail his pleasure boat on the charming waters of the lake at Lake Park. Four sweet little cherubs will occupy the seats in the boat, which is of green color, trimmed with red and brown with an awning to protect pleasure seekers from the rays of the sun. This is merely a sample boat to test home skill and if it comes up to the requirements a dozen will be made here and glide over the lake this summer for the sport of Charlotte's little ones. The boat is twelve feet long and three and one-half wide, round bottom and strongly built.

Leave Green Up.

A dispatch from Savannah says that receiver Alexander has received a telegram from President Oakman, of Richmond Terminal, advising him that the Richmond & Danville Railroad will not resume operations of the Central road after the expiration of the temporary receivership, and asking that separate management be appointed. General Alexander will at once appoint operating officials under this advice. The headquarters of the road have been transferred from Atlanta to Savannah. Orders were issued to the agent of the Central and its leased lines, to pay all moneys to the Central Railroad bank in Savannah instead of John W. Hall, treasurer in Atlanta. General Alexander and counsel for the Central Railroad, says the lease will have to be maintained in accordance with its provisions. A meeting of the Central Railroad directors will be held at once to take action.

End of the Standard Oil Trust.

New York, March 21.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Standard Oil Trust, held today, it was decided by a two-thirds vote to terminate the Trust, and that all property held by the Trust, except stocks of corporation, shall be sold by the trustees at private sales.

—Fine weather reigns once more, and the farmers are busily engaged in planting corn. There will be a big crop of corn raised in Mecklenburg this season.

—The perch with red trimmings that abound in the black waters down about Hamlet have begun to bite, and a party of Charlotte fishermen will go there this week to see what sort of luck is to be had.
