Local Notes

Twenty seven bales of cotton were received at the platform by way of the day.

Two boxes taken up for Evang.
They were round and lay at the side of the platform.

The second annual session of the Baptist State Convention opened at Winston on Monday.

Miss Mary W. Austin will spend Easter Sunday with Mrs. T. W.
Watson, May 1st with Mr. and Mrs.
F. G. Moore, May 2nd with Mr.
Austin, and on the 3rd with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Austin.

Rev. Dr. R. L. American wants to know the address of Mr. G. H.
Hager. Mr. Hager is a work for Mr.
A. Lowry, 31 North Charlotte street, Charlotte.

Mr. J. D. Fox who goes to Atlanta on Saturday evening at the request of Capt. Attwells of Burwood.
His invitations to the party are very numerous.

The gravity of the criminal trial is forgotten in great relief.
There are no indications of illegal sales of whiskey and those are against S. W. Peeler.

The foundation for the building of the new rail road bridge over the James River at the Carolina Crossing is to be laid Tuesday next.
This is a long time in view of the fact that the bonds will be called.

J. C. M. Payne, D. D., of Concord will speak to the community meeting at the First Baptist Church on Saturday at 8 o'clock P.M. This is the first meeting since his returning May 10, 1892, after his release.

Rev. Walter W. Morris, D. D., of Hampton, Selby, C. H., V. A., has accepted an invitation to speak at the benevolent services of the Seminary of Salem Academy Sunday morning, May 12, 1892, at 10 o'clock.

Rev. Walter W. Morris, D. D., of
Hampton, Selby, C. H., V. A., has
benevolent services of the Seminary
of Salem Academy Sunday morning,
May 12, 1892, at 10 o'clock.

Dr. J. F. Crowell, president of Trinity College, will give a special talk at the Young Men's Christian Association, to-night, 8 to 10 o'clock, on The Social Question. This talk is free to all, and every one is invited to attend.

A movement is shortly to be made for the early closing of the stores. Early closing prevails here every summer, but it is proposed to bring it on earlier this year than ever and keep it up until September. Saturdays and 20th May will, of course be excepted.

One of the features of the 20th May celebration will probably be a sham battle participated in by several companies of the State Guard and the Naval Battalion. That would be a winning card, and it is to be hoped that the idea will be carried out.

The rainy weather today stopped farm work, and in consequence, a great many farmers were in the city. Their news as to the damage to the fruit by the late frost vary very considerably. Some say the fruit is not hurt at all, others say it is badly damaged, while still others maintain that it is all killed.

—Esquire L. M. McAllister, who was foreman of the grand jury for the present term of the Criminal court, is also secretary of the Mecklenburg County alliance. He wanted to attend the meeting of the alliance at Huntersville today, and Judge Meares excused him. John A. Newell was sworn in as foreman for the balance of the term.

THE EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.

HIS TESTIMONY NOT TAKEN.

BAPTIST CHURCHES AT THE MEETING.

It came to-day after a pleasant and profitable session.

The second and last day's session of the Methodist Educational Convention convened in Tryon street Methodist church this morning. The weather at the time of meeting was not at all favorable, but despite this a goodly number gathered to hear the addresses and discussions by the members of the convention. The convention was opened with a song and prayer service after which the committee on constitution and by-laws made their report. After this was the report of the committee on unification of Methodist institutions.

At 12 o'clock Rev. J. H. Stearner, of Davidson College, delivered an able and timely address on the subject of "The place of the Bible in General Education."

At 12 o'clock an address by Dr. Jno.
F. Crowell of Trinity College, on what should be the educational policy of Methodism in North Carolina, was next on the programme, but the programme was changed and Prof. Snider of Wolford College, S. C., occupied Dr.
Crowell's time, his theme being The Waste of Education. Prof.
Snider handled his subject in a very interesting and interesting manner.

At 12 o'clock Rev. M. L. Wood, of Rockingham addressed the convention on "The Educational Collections in the South Carolina Conference," thereafter he said, "I am sure after which followed at the close of Rev. J. A. Bassett, then it was over. After the recess for dinner the convention transacted what business as was presented for consideration, after which a few discussions followed on the subjects as mapped out by the programme, and at 4 o'clock the convention will adjourn with thanks and benediction.

The delegates, at least all three now have had spoken the giv-ings—each in the most complimentary terms and all seem not at all glad that it was at such short duration.
Most of the learned teachers of the Methodist church of North Carolina have been in attendance and it is indeed truly a convention of wise heads.

A Diamond Jeweler.

Several years ago a jeweler named J. P. Barnes was in business here.
He lost a watch from Mrs. W. F.
Abraham of Paw Creek township and struck out for South Carolina to file a suit in that State for its return and spent 12 months in the penitentiary. A few days ago, he reappeared in Charlotte, and got a watch to replace, from W. S. Charles.
He pawned the watch for $6. Charles had not yet got his watch, but had got Barnes and had him arrested before Esquire D. G. Maxwell.
Barnes is now in jail in default of his bond.

Mrs. E. F. Carson has gone on a visit to her mother at Ashboro.

To-morrow, Good Friday, is the day to put seed of all kinds in the ground.

Green peas from the South are on the Charlotte market to-day.

South Tryon street is still building up. Lumber is on the ground for the commencement of work on Mr. G. S. Durham's new house.

"Apple-john," the negro who for years has piloted the apple wagons about town, goes to the chinawagon for two years. In an evil moment, he stole a sack of dried fruit from a mountaineer's wagon, and for that he is to put in two years' work on the county roads.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

A new lot of clean spring Mosque and glace lace in the popular shades pearl gray, tan, mode, etc.

Already the fan trade has opened and we opened with it stacks of them from up. It seems that every conceivable color is found in the lot.

Fancy decorative Jap fans of fine my shapes. Don't be afraid to look into the stock of parasols, we might match your dress with one.

A look at our shirt waist counter will convince you that we expect to sell hundreds of them this season and so do. Last season they were worn. Well, that was only a dim shadow of what will be soon. Their comfort, economy, etc., has been discovered.

Caps for the little ones.

Don't think of closing the trade on your spring dress till our dress goods department has revealed its charms.
Ladies tell us we have the best line of Gimp, feather, passementerie, ribbon, trimming, ornaments, etc., in the city.

That's what our stock thus far has proven: rounds of pleasure as from counter to counter you pass. It seems to the customer that the fore is fully engaged, but all are rapidly and pleasantly waited upon.

Pretty and tasty goods always sell easily, so we never have to persuade a person; the goods and prices are silent salesmen of no mean talent, and the steady trade of another week makes hope eternal spring afresh.

In evening slabs we are doing a smart trade, showing them in Henrietta's, A. Hair, Abbotross, Cashmere and Mandarin.

A special price has this week been put upon some all wool Abbotross, garnet, blue and cardinal, elegant for tea gowns, etc. etc. Chaffinch rather than ever and more to choose from we dare not confine your choice to a few patterns; and the ladies they are trimmed with will cause a flutter of the heart.

Black Organzines that are black indeed; some entirely new kinds shown, as Crepon, etc.

We will only add one more now and it covers thousands of yards of great and small plaid, stripes and solid, Ginghams.

A few caps and blazers remain and have been marked deep down.
Their service is unquestionable, the prices correct.
