GOOD FRIDAY AT ST. MARK'S

Service this morning by Rev. Dr. Bowman at the Lutheran Church

Good Friday services at St. Mark's Lutheran church this morning were of a most interesting character...

That human tribunals will find in their decisions a thing that we would naturally expect because human law will be applied to every human case...

In the case of the unjust, the law is the most exact justice. The law is the most exact justice. The law is the most exact justice.

Very few and in a very small number of cases, the law is the most exact justice. The law is the most exact justice.

TRANSACTION BECOMES PLAIN

Then you can measure the depth of Christ's humiliation by the height and magnitude of the world's transgression...

Then the true believer can see in every wound in every bruise in every stripe in every chastisement that was laid upon his Lord...

He was wounded for our transgressions. While the barbarous nations of ancient and medieval times had as many a thousand of destroying human life as cruelty and barbarity could invent...

These were stoning, beheading and crucifying. The latter mode of inflicting capital punishment being the most cruel and inhuman was reserved for the very worst of criminals...

Among the Romans it was a custom that when a person was accused of a crime under strong presumption of guilt and confession of guilt was not given...

He was wounded for our iniquities. Satan said very truly for ones, that all a man both will give for his life. Whatever safeguards human government has ever afforded...
