Improvement of the Gas Works. A very handsome and commodious two-story brick building is being built on the grounds of the Charlotte Gas Light Company. The building is to be used for office purposes. The first floor will be used for "shop" work, and the others will occupy the second floor.

A Noted Anniversary. This is the anniversary of a day ever memorable in the history of the South. It is the 24th anniversary of the great battle of Chancellorsville, in which the immortal Stonewall Jackson received his death wound. It was one of the famous battles of the world. There were 18,000 Federals against 12,000 Confederates, but it resulted in the greatest victory the Confederates ever gained. There were hundreds of Mecklenburg soldiers in that fight, and sergeant Orr, of the city police force was one of them. He left an arm there.

Local Weather Report. The following is a synopsis of the weather prevailing at 8 a. m., today: The high pressure which was over this section yesterday morning remains nearly stationary in the same spot area, Augusta, Ga. A low pressure is steadily advancing from the west, and is dominating over the entire section to the west of the Mississippi river, resulting in generally cloudy and threatening weather over that part of the country. Quite a few local rains have occurred to the north of the Ohio river, across the entire country. New Orleans, La., is the only other station besides Charlotte reporting any rain during the past 24 hours. Temperatures have risen over this section, but have fallen in the extreme northwest, where snow is occurring this morning at Huron, S. D.

Rocky River Ripper. The News' Harrisburg correspondent writes today. The annual drive of May collection for foreign missions, at Rocky River, last Sunday was a little over $500. Last year it was $400, and the day being rather wet, only home people were there to contribute.

Rev. Edward Mack gave us three fine sermons Friday and Saturday, and his visit was evidently a great treat to the old friends of his honored father and mother. He must have been gratified at the affectionate welcome he received from the ladies, when recollection of the gifted young preacher goes back to his infantile splashing frolics in the bathtub of the Mann nursery. One lady remarked she couldn't call him "Mr. Mack," for she had often bathed and dressed the "little fellow" and taken care of him at night.

The Shell bag factory could run only part of the time last week, and will not run at all this week. Isoms not furnishing cloth to keep the bag machines going. This is hard on the boys who operate these machines. Last month our Rocky River boy running a large bag machine turned off 25,000 bags.

Major Turk makes the following official announcement. Rates for May 1st 1892 are based upon tariff for civilians and tariff for military as per Associated Railway's circular No. 785 from points within the State of South Carolina to Charlotte. Also rates of one first fare for the round trip are authorized from Atlanta and intermediate points within Georgia and from Augusta amount of the occasion. Tickets to be sold May 1st, and up to and including trains scheduled to arrive in Charlotte 10 p. m. of the 20th, limited good returning May 22, 1892.

The circular above referred to for civilians makes the rate equivalent to one fare, while the military is much below it. These concessions upon the part of the lines leading to Charlotte, within themselves guarantee the coming of nearly all the infantry regiments and villages round about and will prove attractive to farmers living along the routes.

Memorial Day. The officers of the Confederate Veterans Association of Mecklenburg have not yet, so far as is known, made any preparation whatever for the observance of Memorial Day, which falls on May 10th. The Democratic county convention meets in Charlotte on that day, and the News suggests that the program be arranged so that the veterans can meet immediately after the convention and march to the cemetery to decorate the graves. Charlotte's military and bands should head the parade followed by the graded school children, old veterans and citizens.

Rev. Tom Dixon. Among the passengers on the south-bound vestibule train this morning were Rev. Thos Dixon and family, of New York. Mr. Dixon was en route to Columbus, Ga., where he was married, and where he will leave his wife while he goes on to Atlanta to attend the Baptist convention. He delivers a lecture in Atlanta next Monday night. Mr. Dixon did not have anything to say about the St. Clair interview in the New York Press.

Mr. Dixon will stop in Charlotte on his return North, on May 12th, and will deliver a lecture that night on "Food."

A Right hand road Bill for the County to Pass - The liquor license laws.

Although the county is represented by a regularly appointed jury, at a stated salary yet without any other what famous booster, manufacturer case came up a few weeks ago. Judge Hynum, the commissioner, thought it necessary to employ a special counsel. Mr. George F. Wilson and Mr. George F. Wilson were retained and they put in their bill. The action was so made the commissioner, in a cause why because of the bill granted by the Board of Commissioners. Messrs. Hynum & Wilson presented a bill for the services rendered in the case. It totaled for $100. The commissioners had in mind to pay up to the time that the bill was presented.

The board met this afternoon to consider the application for a license to sell whisky in the county. No applications were on the table for the evening. Mr. W. W. Broomfield, a News reporter, was not present because he had to go to the State to make a fight with one of the commissioners. They will meet next evening, located at the city hall, on the south side of Tryon street, at the east side of Trade street.

In the commencement of the afternoon session was taken up the eligibility of Mr. J. C. H. W. and J. H. Mack to be sworn in as members of the county. The time, this morning, would have had no more than the eligibility of Mr. J. C. H. W.

The Republican ticket headed by Messrs. A special to the News from this morning says: "The Republican ticket was beaten yesterday three to one. That ticket was headed by L. J. Jenkins for mayor, and Week Adams, O. W. Davis, V. F. Long, F. S. C. Whitesides and M. C. Martin for aldermen. The Democratic ticket elected was J. D. Brumfield for mayor, Wm. Frobenberger, Geo. A. Terry, Ernest Torrence, Mack Morris, and J. E. Love, aldermen."

April's Weather. The report of Mr. J. G. Gardiner, observer at the Charlotte signal station, shows that the mean temperature of the month of April just passed was 57 degrees. The highest temperature was 75 on the 16th, and the lowest was 41 on the 10th. The mean temperature of this month, for 25 years past, is 58. The total rainfall was 3.50 inches. The average total rainfall for this month for 25 years past, is 3.94 inches.

The Farmers of Mecklenburg and the Daily Papers. Extricate of post offices in Mecklenburg county, in the State, is that all get considerable mail. In most counties, it is unusual for farmers to get anything except weekly papers and occasional letters, but in Mecklenburg a higher order of civilization prevails. Their farmers are readers, and they not only take the weeklies, but the dailies. Some post offices in the county have a daily service, others a bi-weekly, others a semi-weekly and a few a weekly. At all of these offices the daily papers are taken. The News has a subscriber at a weekly office, who gets six copies in a lump, once a week. An investigation will show that the farmers of Mecklenburg take more than triple the number of daily papers taken by the farmers of any other county in the State.

Woman with the Broom. In spring house cleaning, we wonder if her maid runs in the MATTING CHANNEL. If so we can satisfy the want beyond a doubt, having more than ever to show, and being fully determined to sell. We did not get the stock of Matting for a koe-sake, but for our friends. Comfort then for COMFORT'S SAKE, and sell it must, sell it shall, and sell it does. Don't let all straw matting seekers turn in bitter at the roughest sign on West Trade street. Over the door is an unbreakable iron bar they say, but we are having fine success.

A TALK ABOUT FURNITURE.

You can furnish a house or an apartment now in excellent taste at no greater expense than it would have cost a few years ago for furniture of the plainest variety. Improved appliances have not only brought new and better styles, but they have brought reduced prices as well, and household articles are now within the reach of those who could formerly afford only household necessities. There is no reason nowadays why anyone with moderate means shouldn't have a nicely furnished house. A look through my stock of Furniture will convince you that, for a very small sum you can furnish your home only. I wish to call your attention especially to my line of Chamber Suits, representing not the indiscriminate aggregation of the Abner Makers, and marked at prices which puts them within the reach of all. It is so short to attend a description here, but if you want to get a Real looking of the "values" of Furniture you shouldn't fail to drop in and see for yourself.
