Used of the 20th Convention of the Lutheran Synod. The Evangelical Lutheran Synod of North Carolina, closed its sessions on Tuesday night. The session was an important one. Quite a missionary spirit was manifested, and the largest sum, appropriated for home missionary purposes, possibly ever given at any one of its former sessions.

Two ministers were added to the Synod, namely Rev. G. D. Bernheim, D. D. of Wilmington from the old Pennsylvania Synod and Rev. Prof. Henry Fisher, of Mt. Pleasant, from the Maryland Synod. One young man was examined by the committee consisting of Rev. F. W. E. Foschlar, C. L. T. Fisher and H. B. Brown, and being recommended for ordination was duly and solemnly ordained on Tuesday morning. The young man will now be known as Rev. H. M. Patton, pastor of the Second English Lutheran Church of Richmond, Va. He is a native of Mt. Pleasant. Two new congregations were received into connection with the Synod, namely the Mt. Matthew English Church of Wilmington, Rev. G. D. Bernheim pastor, and Augsburg Church of Winston-Salem, Rev. W. A. Lutz pastor.

The next meeting, the 25th will be held in the church at Chink Grove, Rev. C. A. Marks pastor. A Train Load of Baptists. The Richmond and Danville great Baptist train passed through Charlotte this morning at 2 o'clock. It was running two sections, and had been in the regular travel of Baptist ministers and delegates going to Atlanta. It was to be expected, a magnificent train loaded down with a magnificent company of people. The Baltimore, Washington and Maryland delegates occupied two Pullmans that came through from Washington. The Richmond Norfolk, Petersburg and the balance of the Virginia delegates occupied three sleepers that came through from Richmond, joining the Baltimore and Washington party at Danville.

The Raleigh and Eastern Carolina delegates were quartered in a palace car through from Raleigh, and when they left the cars were composed of seven sleepers. Delegates from Winston-Salem, Salisbury, High Point, Thomas, H. Lexington, Salisbury and Concord joined in and when the two trains arrived at Charlotte almost all of the available room in every car was well filled.

Rutherford Court News. The Rutherfordton correspondent of The News says that the jury in the case against John Michal and others for the murder of Taylor Logan, after three hours of deliberation returned a verdict of guilty of murder, as to John Michal, guilty of manslaughter, as to Sumner Carpenter guilty of an assault, as to accessories to John McDowell Jr., a carpenter gets twelve years in the State prison, and McDowell twelve months in jail, and Michal meets the murderers doom, if he don't escape first. One civil case consumed all yesterday and other tedious cases await.

Woman with the Broom. In spring house cleaning, we wonder if her maid runs in the MATTING CHANNEL. If you want satisfy the want beyond a doubt, having more than ever to show, and being fully determined to sell. We did not get our stock of Matting for a less sake, but for our friends' comfort then for COMFORT SAKES, and sell it must, sell it shall, and sell it does. They're all eye straw matting seekers turn in lather at the roughest sign on West Trade Street. Over the door is an inquiry number. They say, but we are having fine success.
