At Matthews—A Church Court.

The News correspondent at Matthews writes this morning: The union meeting of the Mecklenburg and Cabarrus Baptist Association will be held in the Baptist church at this place, beginning on Friday, 27th inst. There will be preaching Thursday night, by Rev. J. B. Richardson. Dick Morse is here before breakfast, preaching prohibition in his own peculiar way, abusing the "Dimmy-cran," and talking tomstones. Dick ought to have the contract for the Third party head and foot-boards.—We have had fine rains and the farmers are in good spirits, as their crops are looking well.—Attorneys Tillett and McCall, of Charlotte, arrived here today en route for Wilson's grove church, where a church court is to be held. Mr. Wm. Taylor is the defendant, and he is charged with two of the highest crimes known to the church discipline. Mr. Tillett appears for the church and Mr. McCall for the defendant.

The Richmond Terminal to be Wound Up.

A meeting of the Richmond Terminal security holders was held in New York yesterday to receive the report of the committee appointed last week. General Thomas, representing the committee, presented a plan of which the following are the principal points: The Richmond Terminal Company is to be wound up and succeeded by a new company with $4,000,000 preferred stock and $700,000 common stock. The present 100 million preferred stock, the present 100 million common stock, and preferred stock to be given par in new preferred stock, and the common stock to receive par in new common stock, and to subscribe for $5,000,000 collateral trust two-year 6 per cent. notes at 92%. These notes are to be secured by the same securities that are now pledged to provide for the floating debt and to be exchanged for 170 per cent in new preferred stock, if the plan is successful. It is not proposed to pay off the floating debt with the proceeds of this assessment of about 10 per cent, but to buy the claims now held by the bankers, and if necessary foreclose these claims and take possession for the stockholders of the component parts of the system. If the full amount should not be subscribed by the stockholders the preferred stock will then have the right to make subscription for the balance and take the securities that would have gone to the non-paying common stock, and the common stock not subscribing will have no right to the common stock of the new company.

Local Weather Report.

The following is a synopsis of the weather prevailing at 5 a. m. today: The high pressure which was noticed in the eastern portion of Texas yesterday morning has moved north-easterly, and is this morning central in the vicinity of Atlanta. This high pressure has caused cool weather over this section, which will become much warmer during the day. A low pressure is in the Upper Lake region, and is producing cloudy and threatening weather in that section. Light rains have occurred in the northeast portion of the country; elsewhere a general absence of precipitation has obtained. Temperatures are slowly rising over the entire country, more perceptibly in the southwest portion and will be felt over this section during this day.

THE AFFAIRS OF THE CITY.

It is only a passing thing, but it has been the subject of much talk in the city.

The gardeners of Charlotte, who for ten days past have been trying to get rid of the potato bug, have far better luck than they are getting. The potato bug is still in the garden, and the gardeners are still trying to get rid of it. The potato bug is still in the garden, and the gardeners are still trying to get rid of it.

Another gardener, who has been trying to get rid of the potato bug, has had better luck than he is getting. The potato bug is still in the garden, and the gardener is still trying to get rid of it.

The State Normal and Industrial School.

In addition to the selections made by the Board of Directors of the State Normal School for girls, to fill the various chairs in the faculty of that institution, already notified, the board assigned to President Charles H. McIver in addition to his other duties, the chair of the Sciences, Art and History of Teaching, and Professor Edwin A. Alderman has the chair of History and English Literature. The board postponed action in regard to the chair of Stenography, Typewriting and Telegraphy until their next meeting about July 1st. At that meeting there will also be selected a lady to take charge of the dormitory building and manage the boarding department. The board was well pleased with the progress of the buildings and decided to open the institution on the 24th of September of this year.

One Trout Hunt.

A fishing party, thoroughly equipped with rods, reels, lines, flies and baskets, left yesterday afternoon for Blowing Rock, to wade the mountain brooks in search of the trout. Harvey Orr, D. E. Allen, W. P. Dixon and J. D. Church constituted the party. The water up there is rather cool just now, but whether the temperature is low enough to cool their ardor is a question. Harvey Orr, the chaperone, is a great man for mountain trout and he is not only always turns in at his boarding house after a day whipping the streams, with a fine string of trout, but it always strains the capacity of the village grocery scales to weigh 'em.

The house that stood on the lot recently purchased by Mr. Vinton Liddell, on North Church street, has been moved off, and Mr. Liddell will soon have a handsome residence erected in its place.

We Have Only Been WAITING

Till the Gala days were over; All that time our pent-up earnestness was fretful to

Break Out

And show the appreciative people such goods as are in greatest demand

The Next Great Excitement

In order will be caused by our prices, not on one thing that you need, but on many things that you need right now.

This must be a great event, because we have The Goods, because the goods were all bought on 2nd N. trip, cheap; because we are in dreadful earnest and fully determined.

The harvest of low prices is ready for your gleaming.

There Were Bad Men in Those Days.

During the preparation for the celebration people who looked up into the old records at the archives, came across many queer things. It appears that they had had men in those days as well as now. In the records of the court of pleas and quarter sessions, held in Charlotte on October 15, 1778, is this record: "Complaint on oath, being made to the court that John Warden had and divers times threatened that he would break a barn of a certain meeting, was called the Hunky Biv, a meeting house, and that he would break over the best graves in the graveyard near said meeting house. It is ordered by the court that said John Warden enter into recognizance to the sum of 200 pounds and give security with like sum for his good behavior to the subjects of this State, and in particular to the congregation of Reek's Spring and their property. Ordered that he be committed to jail until he shall comply with this order." It does not appear whether the said Warden got out of the scrape. In another part of the records it appears that Warden was committed to jail for breach of the peace and contempt of court.

Wardens Buried.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. S. of Berryhill township, aged seven years, died this morning at 11 o'clock. The remains were buried at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the cemetery.

The Scratching of Mr. Phillips.

The delegates from Morning Star township to the county convention feel a little sour over the article in the Times from Mr. Phillips in regard to his name being scratched off as a delegate to the State convention. The said delegates claim to be honest in their actions in the matter. They believed that if a man talks Col. Polk, and endorses Col. Polk, and believes in the sub-treasury as Col. Polk does, and Col. Polk is a Third party man, then what could we guess such a man to be but a Third party man, too. They think that Mr. Phillips should not have used such harsh language as the delegates had good reason for said action, and did not do it to injure him as there was no public demonstration of the matter made by those of the delegates to whom he refers in his article. Please by calling the attention of your readers to an article in the Times of this week from J. Sol. Reid.

A Rural Reform Society.

At a special meeting in New York, in the Church of the Heavenly Rest, Rev. C. F. Cassidy outlined the principles of a new rural reform society, which is to be organized at once in that city. The object of the organization is, in brief, to simplify and cheapen modern burial customs, abolish crapes, flowers, expensive funeral trappings all pagan devices, and adhere to the observance of sanitary measures by committing bodies to the soil, instead of placing them in vaults, &c. The results of such a society which has existed for some time in London are said to be most satisfactory.
