At the Bottom Grounds.
The News yesterday afternoon made its first visit to the season to the park. It went there to see the balloon ascension, but if it did not see what it went for, it did have a study of human nature that made it feel that its trip was all right, after all. A high wind was blowing, but at 4 o'clock, the hour for the ascension, a big crowd was in the grand stand and in the grounds. Few people had any idea that an ascension would be attempted, but confidence was restored when the aeronaut, in his spangles and tights, addressed the grand stand and said that wind or no wind, he would go up in thirty minutes. Then he went back to the place from which the balloon was to start and waited for the wind to die down. The crowd hung on in expectancy, and along towards sundown the work of inflating the balloon began. Many had gone home, yet a few remained, and just after dark they saw the balloon go up and anchor in the top of a tree near by. It would have been all right but for the speech of the aeronaut. In the car returning home some people were mad while others laughed. "It'll just never come out here again," said a tired out lady with two fretful and hungry children. A jurist, taking a legal view of the case, said "I don't blame the fellow for not going up, but I do blame him for lying about it."

Local Ripples.
Mr. Walter H. Neal, a prominent lawyer of Richmond county is at the Central to-day.

The balloon will go up this afternoon at 4 o'clock, if the wind don't blow.

A revival meeting was begun yesterday at the Methodist church at Bertha, by Rev. Mr. Page, and will continue for a week. Mr. Page will be assisted by Dr. Grease and others.

An invitation is extended to every man to attend the Men's Gathering at the Young Men's Christian Association to-night at 8 o'clock. Mr. B. W. Barnett is leader.

Two extra coaches were attached to the Richmond & Danville train which came in at three o'clock this afternoon. They were filled with school-boys on the way to their homes from Salem.

The members of the Italian band arrived home this afternoon from Winston, where they played for the ball at the Zensendorf, last night. They played until a o'clock this morning.

Mr. L. T. Myers, general superintendent of the Carolina Central road, passed through the city in his private car this morning for Asheville. He went over the A. T. A. and the Western North Carolina roads.

Messrs. Edwin Cady and Chas. A. King, of Norfolk County, arrived in Charlotte yesterday, and left to-day for Cleveland Springs. The fame of that resort is traveling abroad.

Farmers who were in the city to-day, say that the wheat crop of the county is better than has been known in the past six years. Unless the unexpected happens, it will be an extraordinarily fine harvest of wheat.

Mr. Chas. Bland and Mr. Earnest Kearns have returned from the State Dental Association. Both of these young men passed highly creditable examinations before the board, and will in a few days have their sheep-skin.

Mrs. Minnie Benson, wife of Mr. Ernest Benson, died at her home on Fourth street in this city, yesterday afternoon. She leaves an infant child. Her body was taken to Coddle Creek church yard, Cabarrus county, for interment.

The Young Men's Christian Association is booking a number of attractions for the coming season. Already some fine instrumental and social concert companies have been secured, and the Star course the coming season will be finer than ever before.

If the 40's really wants an attraction at the park, why can't it arrange for a balloon ascension that will take the Charlotte baseball club about a mile high and let 'em come down, each one with a parachute in the shape of a 28 inch umbrella?

Military Officers Commissioned.
Gov. Holl has commissioned the following military officers of the State Guard: H. H. Orr, adjutant, rank of lieutenant, senior grade and captain 1st Battalion, Naval Reserve; Paul Bigelow, ordnance officer, rank of lieutenant, senior grade and captain of First Battalion Naval Reserve; L. N. Schiff, paymaster, rank of lieutenant, senior grade and captain, 1st Battalion Naval Reserve; Gilbert B. Sellers, captain Co. E, 2nd Regiment; John B. Sellers, 1st lieutenant Co. E, 2nd Regiment; G. B. Patterson, 2nd lieutenant Co. E, 2nd Regiment; W. J. Swink, 2nd lieutenant Co. G, 4th Regiment.

Two Candidates to the Field and Three Candidates Yet to Hear From.
As Mr. Frank H. Osborne, attorney and collector of the 11th Judicial District in the State, the office of solicitor of this district will have to be supplied by a new man. This district is composed of the counties of Union, Mecklenburg, Gaston, Lincoln, Rowan, Alexander, Cleveland, Rutherford and Polk. A special judicial convention to nominate a candidate for successor to Mr. Osborne will be called, and it is probable that at least a score of the nine counties will have ready dates. Already two candidates are in the field. They are Mr. Barton Shipp, of Lincoln and Mr. J. E. Webb, of Shelby. Mr. Shipp is a son of the late Judge Wm. Shipp, and was a member of the Charlotte law firm of Hysam, Hysam & Shipp. Mr. Webb is one of the best known lawyers of this district. The News hears that an excellent lawyer of Monroe will also be a candidate for the solicitorship. Within the bounds of this district are some of the finest lawyers in the State and there will be no difficulty in getting a good man to fill Mr. Osborne's shoes. The contest promises to be lively and spirited, but the winning man, who ever he may be, will have a hard shake from each of his unsuccessful rivals and the united support of the Democracy of the district.

Charlotte Real Estate.
A News reporter talking to prominent real estate men this morning gained some telling points about Charlotte dirt. While the boom around Charlotte and others in Virginia and in many other Southern States have sounded aloud their many advantages and whispered to the capitalists that there is the place to place your money, Charlotte has by no means been asleep. To-day the fate of these boom towns, or at least many of them are sealed. The ones that headed these flaming circulars and partook of the free excursions are sadder but very much wiser. Their money is invested in lots far from any center of trade and in most cases little hope of any future enthusiasm is even dreamed of by those made wiser by experience. Not so with Charlotte. Our beautiful city stands today on a high plane of progress, our real estate men have about all they can do and property is almost hourly changing hands, in almost every case at a profit to the buyer and alike to the seller. No buyers have invaded our quietude and our people feel thankful that such is and has been the case. We have no coal fields and iron mines situated far below the surface of mother earth to attract the weary worn capitalists in their search for gold but we have a town substantial in every respect, a little city in which any man should feel proud to say "I am part owner." Real estate business is increasing in proportion and magnitude every day and as the autumn approaches, business will increase very much.

Acknowledgment from Senator Hill.
As one of incidents of Senator Hill's visit to Charlotte, The News mentioned that he was presented with a diminutive hornet nest from Cabarrus county, through Mrs. H. C. Eccles. This morning Mrs. Eccles received a letter of acknowledgment from the Senator. In his letter to Mrs. Eccles he says: "I received with pleasure your very appropriate souvenir of my joyed visit to Charlotte. I still retain it, and feel indebted to you for your thoughtfulness. Assuring you of my appreciation of your courtesy, I remain very respectfully,
DAVID B. HILL."

The Concord Times' report of the 20th May celebration in Charlotte, was brief, but it is the best and fairest that we have noticed yet. As a general thing, the visiting editors looked out diligently for the flaws and used them for all they were worth, while at the same time they altogether ignored such as there may have been of good points.

Dr. Chas. L. Alexander has returned home from Winston.

West Trade street, from the Richmond & Danville passenger station to the limits near Irwin's creek, is being graded and macadamized. In digging down the street, the graders have come upon a bed of rock that will require blasting and that in itself will furnish a lot of macadamizing material.

WHAT IS LIFE WITHOUT A FAVORITE?
The acme of perfection in a Comfort Chair was reached when the "Favorite" was made. It is strong, light, neat and durable. Combining the best qualities of others without their faults. Has a steel frame and stand. Is entirely automatic and self-adjusting while taking any position from upright to horizontal. Does not warp in wet weather. Has no rattling or loose joints. Can be folded for storage or shipping and will last a lifetime. For canvas, lawn, study or sick room it has no equal. Why buy a hammock, cot or room chair when the Favorite combines all? I would be glad to have you come see it. I'm only asking $5 for them, and they are well worth $7 and are sold in other towns. If you don't live in the city write for one. Sold exclusively.
