RIGHT BEFORE YOUR EYES.

It ought not to be a feat to get good foot-wear. There isn't any scarcity of it. It is a pity to be obliged to confess that while there are plenty of good shoes, there is also no scarcity of bad ones. There is one point about the purchase of shoes that cannot be sufficiently emphasized, and it doesn't make any difference how emphatic you are about it. It pays to buy a good article. We are assuming that you are looking for the best shoe that you can possibly get for the least possible money. If you will call on us, therefore, we will guarantee that you get the worth of your money. A large stock Hats and Umbrellas, Trunks, Valises and Handbags always on hand.

Rev. Frank Shober. The New York Sun says that the testimony submitted to Bishop Potter in the Shober case will be made public. Mr. Shober has applied for possession of his four children. Mr. Shober does not deny telling Mrs. Aspinwall that the doctors said that he had delirium tremens, but he says was done for a purpose which will be fully explained at another hearing on June 24, when, it is stated, that all the evidence taken by a commission appointed by Bishop Potter, which commission sat at Harrytown some time ago, will be made public. Evidence on Mr. Shober's side only was taken by the commission, although the friends of Mrs. Shober were invited to attend and give testimony, which they did not do. After the stenographer wrote out one copy of his notes of the evidence given then, he was instructed to burn his notes, and the only copy thus secured was sent to the Bishop. Mr. Shober, it is expected, will make serious charges at the next hearing. He is not in the employ of a Poughkeepsie newspaper as reported.

Kurtz and Koozkey. Kurtz and Koozkey have written a card from Baltimore to the Columbia State. They say: "In your issue of Saturday, May 21, a special dispatch from Charlotte, N. C., says that Koozkey and Kurtz jumped out of town and did not pay the players, or in fact any one but the Columbia Baseball Club. Now, that is a lie, for we did not owe $1 in the town, and every one of the players received every cent that was due them. We could not get a man in Charlotte to put up a dollar for the team or buy us out, after being $300 out of pocket. We thought it proper to leave the town, after getting our money back, and not stay and lose it on a city that would not help us out."

Local Weather Report. The following is a synopsis of the weather prevailing at 8 a. m. to-day: A low pressure prevails over eastern Texas, and light precipitation is occurring over the section to the north east of this pressure. Generally cloudy weather prevails over the entire country. The precipitation area extends from the north to the south, west of the Mississippi river, the heaviest showers occurring to the north around the lower lake region.

A Lumberton Man Brought to Charlotte for Trial.

A trial of rather more than usual interest is in progress in Judge P. G. Maxwell's court this afternoon. Mr. J. M. Dees, of Lumberton, is being tried upon the charge of abducting his wife and child in Charlotte. He reached the city this morning accompanied by his lawyers, Messrs. N. A. McLean and E. K. Procter, Jr., of Lumberton. Mrs. Dees is represented by Mr. K. T. Candler. The preliminaries of the trial were being arranged as this News went to press.

The Sunday School Mass Meeting is Closed.

The First Presbyterian church of Concord was filled to overflowing last night at the Sunday school mass meeting in which all denominations of the town were represented and participated.

The subject of the occasion was the international lesson on Daniel and his three companions. Dan. 1:8-21.

The invocation was by Rev. Paul Barringer, of the Vermont reformed church.

Mr. D. E. Coltrane, of the Central Methodist church, presided and conducted the exercises which consisted of a responsive reading, on temptations on temperance, addresses, and recitations interspersed with songs appropriate to the subject, led by a large choir. Following are the recitations: We want the boys and girls, by Henry Craven and Maxfield Cole; Only a Boy, Charlie Montgomery; Our Teacher, Ralph Odell; Young Abstainers Appeal, Miss M. Lentz.

Mr. J. P. Cook, of the Standard was the first speaker and charmed his audience by an eloquent paper on the influence of Daniel's example and character.

Professor E. P. Mangum, superintendent of the graded school spoke of the importance of decision in matters of right and wrong, advising the boys to imitate this trait of character, and emphasized the temptations of Daniel and the great honor which attended his obedience to the dictates of conscience.

The address of Mr. B. E. Harris of the Presbyterian church, was a glowing tribute to the true courage of Daniel and an encouraging appeal to resist the first temptation to wrong doing. A successful resistance of the first temptation assuring strength of character and the happy life of an honest man.

The Wilmington Bank Cases. The Wilmington Messenger says: A special term of the United States Court will be held in this city the second week in June for the purpose of hearing the case of W. S. O'R. Robinson, Receiver of the First National Bank vs. the City of Wilmington and William A. Wilson, City Clerk and Treasurer. This action was begun at the April term of the United States Court in this city, when the receiver sued out a writ of injunction restraining the city from selling the defunct bank's property for taxes on the stock of the bank. Judge Goff, of West Virginia, Judge of Appeals, will preside at the special term, and besides the case above mentioned, he will also hear other cases in which the bank is involved, together with several cases in equity.

OH! THERE'S BOUND TO BE A ROW.

We were never called rowdies but we can't help raising a row just now.

Not our fault we can offer such a list of new prices, only our good luck in finding reasonable goods at reduced prices.

The reduction is a caution—many have waited a tumble of prices, now they hear the crash.

Like Humpty Dumpty on the wall. A score of prices had a fall.

Something now draps upon this city that shall be

Picking Cotton in May.

A traveler who arrived in the city on the A. T. & O. train yesterday reports an odd sight along the line. In a field near Davidson College he saw a lot of hands at work picking cotton. It certainly is a rare sight to see cotton picking in progress in May.

Richards will preach here to-day, and there will also be a Sunday school mass meeting.
