RIGHT BEFORE YOUR EYES.

It ought not to be a feat to get good foot-wear, there isn't any scarcity of it. It is a pity to be obliged to confess that while there are plenty of good shoes, there is also no scarcity of bad ones. There is one point about the purchase of shoes that cannot be sufficiently emphasized, and it doesn't make any difference how emphatic you are about it: It pays to buy a good article. We are as-suming that you are looking for the best shoe that you can possibly get for the least possible money. If you will call on us, there-

Bav. P. B. Law, paster of the Presbyterian church at Lumberton, was at the Central today on his return home from the sessions of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church which closed in Hot Springs, last Saturday. Speaking of the meeting, Mr. Law says it was the most targely attended of that body ever hold and its proceedings more exciting from day to day, and its conclusions more far reaching perhaps than those of any preceding Assembly.

Rev. S. A. King, D. D. of Waco, Texas, a man of pronounced ability, dignity and plety was its moderator, and Rev. P. B. Law, of this State, and Boy. W. C. Clark, of Tennesers, were its recording clerks.

Among the encouraging results of the meeting was the revelation that notwithstanding the hard times, there was an increase of contributions to every object of benevolence. The People's Party Address

The Rainigh correspondent of the Richmond Despatch writing yester day, says: W. H. Lindsay, chairman, and W. C. Wilcox and A. J. Dalby, members of the State Executive Committee of the Third party, or People's party, to this State, have issued their address. It bears date May 23d, and is printed in L. L. Polk's paper, the Third party organ. It says "The people of this State are called upon to send delegates to lmaha, there to meet other delegates to impersonate in a candidate for President a new line of principles and policies, and the question may well be asked why, with two potential parties in the field, this course is thought necessary"

Then a lot of reasons are set out at much length. The address declares that neither of the old parties will un city. Will you kindly tell me if the money monopoly; that the people cancy, appeared before clerk Mor. Another question which provoked oration delivered by Senator David ask for a hindrance of monopolies to v. this morning, and qualified as a long animited and able discussion. B. Hill has been published in your and trusts, and that such natural was before the body by an overture city papers, I wish to get a copy of it and powerful monopolies as exert before the Assembly from the Synod if it is in print. I am not acquainted their baneful influence upon legislatraditions, and policies, and that no unity of purpose and concert of action can be obtained through them; that the old parties will make a strenuous effort in self-justification, and will oppose all effort which will tend to bring their past record to shame-the most powerful friends of these monopolies and oppressions being the leaders in these old parties.

The conclusion of this address is quite dramatic. It is in these words: "Let the people fail in this effort and the confusion, the corruption, and the tyranny of the darkest lays of the Roman republic will follow The Minneapolis Tribune is taking and history will repeat itself. Nay, verily, it is now upon us. Trusting in the God of Justice, let every son and daughter of North Carolina do their duty. Remember that what you fail to achieve by ballets you or your offspring will have to achieve by bullets."
