at exorbitant charges for shoes. There may be some excuse for asking lower than the market rates, there can't be any excuse for demanding higher. Every penny that is not legitimately asked is a penny's worth of imposition. Our shoes are as good as shoes can be; the best can be no better. They are honestly made and honestly sold, and being honestly made, is of course honestly sold. It isn't the fashion to take a step without a shoe, it is the fashion to take the step of buying shoes because they are cheap, stylish and comfortable.
