Local Ripples.

Quite a party of Charlotte people is being made up for Creswell Springs.

Rev Dr W. S. Bowman, of Charlotte, is to deliver the address at the commencement of Gaston College, on June 16th.

The board of school commissioners, will meet next Tuesday night for the purpose of electing teachers for the graded school term.

The Charlotte Naval Battalion will leave Sunday night for Norfolk, on the Richmond & Danville train through Greensboro and Richmond.

Nothing like a little tip in The News. Those rock piles in Independence square, mentioned in yesterday afternoon's paper, were removed early this morning.

To day is the 31st anniversary of the battle of Bethel, an event well remembered by Mecklenburg soldiers. The Hornets' Nest Riflemen and the Charlotte Grays took part in that battle.

A new firm, of which Mr. E. I.
Keeler will be at the head, will open out business in Charlotte shortly.
The firm has rented the newly improved stand of Mr. James Harry near the court house.

Mr. Green G. Steele has retired from the Mecklenburg Alliance department of the Salisbury Watchman. That department is bereft to be in charge of Mr. J. P. Sosmon, more familiarly known as Richard Razor.

Mr. R. E. Blakey is at work getting out the first number of Dr. E. C.
Register's "Medical Journal." It will be a typographical beauty. The Blakey printing house will also print a semi-monthly paper for the Associate Reformed Church.

Mrs. Heriot Clarkson gave a tea last evening complimentary to Miss Edsall Shaw, of Rockingham. The participants were: Miss Birdie Burwell, Miss Fan Burwell, Miss Mattie Lee and Messrs. Harry Watts, Will Little, Julian Little and Dr. R. L.
Gibson.

A most interesting meeting is now in progress in the First Presbyterian church of Concord, services being held both morning and evening. Rev. George Sparrow is assisting the pastor, Dr. Payne, and his sermons are pungent and solemn expositions of scripture. His discourse this morning was founded on the words: "Is it well with the 7?" and personal and family religion were most impressively impressed upon his hearers. Services will continue throughout this week. Communion on next Sunday.

Items from Matthews.

Matthews station has been very much interested in the visit there this week of Mr. John P. Allison and Mr. W. M. Smith, the "liners" for Concord's new railroad. They selected a route from Concord to Matthews, and the people of that town will very likely vote the subscription asked.

A movement has been started in Matthews to change the name of the township to Matthews. The township of which Matthews is the capital is known as Mourning Star, but the township of every progressive town ought to bear its town's name, and the movement will probably be successful.

We are striking a blow. at exorbitant charges for shoes. There may be some excuse for asking lower than the market rates; there can't be any excuse for demanding higher. Every penny that is not legitimately asked is a pelfy's worth of imposition. Our shoes are as good as shoes can be; the best can be no better. They are honestly made and honestly sold, and, being honestly made, is of course honestly sold.
It isn't the fashion to take a step without a toe; it is the fashion to take the step of buying shoes because they are cheap, stylish and comfortable.

Stock Hats and Umbrellas, Trunks, Handbags always on hand.

SHE WAS TRICKED.
A Colored Woman of Charlotte Suffers from a Queer Malady—The Dogs Stopped and Barked Around her House.

A colored woman named Caroline Hilton has been giving the Charlotte doctors a good deal of amusement and the colored population a good deal of excitement. Caroline is the wife of a respected colored man in Ward 4, and last week she was suddenly attacked with a very strange disease. The first doctor who arrived at her bedside found her sitting up, glaring around like a maniac and barking like a hound dog that had tread a coon. He attributed her conduct to hysteria, and injecting morphine into her arm, he left her for the day. On his next visit, he found her barking again. Other doctors called and after they had done all they could think of, they told Caroline that she had been "tricked" and they could not cure her. This coincided exactly with the diagnosis already made by Caroline's relatives and friends. In the meantime the colored people got wind of the strange case and flocked to Caroline's house in droves. She barked so loudly and so perfectly imitated a dog, as to fool the genuine animal himself. A day or two ago, a pointer dog was trotting along by Caroline's house, when he caught the sound of barking within.
He pricked up his ears and listened for a moment, and then he began barking. Pretty soon other dogs came up and the barking and howling that ensued could have been heard for blocks. The louder the dogs barked, the louder Caroline barked, until she finally fell back exhausted. Two negroes finally ran the dogs away. Just how the thing would have terminated there is no telling, had not an old aunt come upon the scene.
She told Caroline's husband of a root doctor in Cabarrus who could kill the "trick" and he went over to consult the oracle. He returned with some conjur medicine which he gave Caroline, using a lot of mysterious signs she had been instructed to do, and the result is that Caroline has now ceased to bark. She will be able to leave her bed in few days.

Personal Paragraphs.

Dr. and Mrs. Ed Roach left this morning for Blowing Rock. They are accompanied by Dr. Roach's sister, Miss Isabelle Roach, of Atlanta.
Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McDowell are at Cleveland Springs.

Mr. Chas. W. Tiffet has returned from Cleveland Springs, where he has been with sick child. The child is very much improved. Mr. Tiffet says there is already quite a crowd at Cleveland.

Mr. D. Reid Williams of Davidson, is in the city today.

Miss Alice Holland and Miss Ella Winston returned home this morning from Davidson commencement.

Miss Jessie Spencer will arrive home from school at Richmond on the 18th.

Mr. Paul Wilkes left on the vestibule train last night for New York, whence he sails to-morrow for Europe.

Cadet Marshal E. Alexander has arrived home from the Davis school at Winston.

A Museum.

For several weeks past, Mr. Nat Gray has been endeavoring to establish a museum in Charlotte and he has at last succeeded. As his main attraction he has "the Egyptian Wonders," a famous museum which has never been exhibited but in two places—Paris and London. He will have his museum open next week.
The Egyptian Wonders will be flanked by others of merit, and the museum promises to be a good thing.

gone?

The Associated Press telegraphed from Minneapolis yesterday morning with the news that the new managers claim that a convention is effected that will defeat Blaine.

While the Harrison men were anxious to nominate him, the Blaine men were equally anxious to nominate

McKinley. The Harrison men were
