OUR NEW GINGHAM,
OUR BARGAIN MUSLIN LIN
DRYWEAR.

Today we opened to the public one thousand five hundred yards of the very choicest Gingham that this country has produced at $2.50. The styles are strikingly beautiful. Blues that are perfectly beautiful. Checks, stripes, big plaids made of little ones and all sorts of jocely designs. The very cream of the season's manufacture. We predict a quick sale of these lovely goods as they are scarce and much in demand. Today we also open a handsome line of yard wide Parasols. They are particularly handsome. Many dress styles in the Bon Yarn can be had them and the colors will be just as clear and beautiful as before. Price 15 cents.

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR. This sale is attracting much attention. Handsome made and lovely lace and embroidery and tatted. Cotton Chemises, Drawers, Corset Covers and skirts. All well made of best material, and full sizes. You can not buy the goods and have them made up for you little money as we ask for those ready made perfect fitting garments. On the table middle main aisle.

New Veilings, Blazers $1.50, shirt Waists $1. Shirts that were $1.50 now $1. New line Laces, Parasols at half price $1. Playing a $3 parasol. Lovely lines of Hosiery and Gloves.

Good Work of the Western Union. The Western Union Telegraph Company last week surpassed itself in generosity and enterprise, in furnishing bulletins from Minneapolis. From the hour the convention met until its final work had been accomplished, the Western Union flashed the news to all its main offices, thence to its sub-offices. The service was prompt, accurate and exceedingly satisfactory, and the public, all over that portion of the country within reach of the Western Union wire, was kept thoroughly posted with the progress of events.

The same admirable service will be given during the Chicago Convention.

Local Ripples.

The board of Aldermen item soon this afternoon.

Mr. H. A. Brown, a prominent business man of Concord, is in the city.

Robert Cooper, son of ex-sheriff Thomas Cooper, is very sick at the house of his father in this city.

Mr. E. L. Cain has returned from Lynchburg where he has been prospecting for a business opening as under-taker.

Mr. S. J. Pemberton, one of the leading lawyers of Stanly county, and one of the best Democrats in the State, is at the Central to day.

Stanly county is to have a new court house at Albemarle, and an advertisement for bids is made out to day. Navy Contractors will be interested in it.

Rev. W. W. Orr, the evangelist of the Associate Reformed church and his singer, Mr. R. D. Hunter, will leave next week for Southern Alabama, where they will conduct meetings.

Rev. Columbus W. Maxwell, of Lexington, N. C., will conduct a series of meetings this week at the Victor Mill Presbyterian Chapel. Preaching every night. Song service beginning at 8 o'clock. All invited. Come and bring your neighbor.

At the morning service at the Presbyterian church Concord, yesterday, there were 16 accessions as a result of Rev. George A. Sparrow's meetings. At night he preached an excellent sermon from the text found in Luke 6:43. If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded though one rose from the dead.

For the accommodation of ladies and children there will be music at the boat house on the lake, at the park to-morrow afternoon from 4 to 9 p.m. To make the event more enjoyable for the little ones the boats will be free to all. Ample protection will be provided by Capt. Strickland, the superintendent and his assistants.

Departure of the Battalion.

Thirty-seven members of the Charlotte Naval Battalion got off yesterday afternoon, through the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company for Norfolk, where they will have a week's training on the United States Steamer, Newark. They were due at Norfolk at 11:30 o'clock this morning, a stay of two hours en route in Richmond being on the programme. Five or six members of the battalion, who remained at home yesterday, will leave this evening to join the company at Norfolk. Some of the members have never before seen salt water, and a heavy big time is in store for them.

It looks as if it would be in our $2 shoes the more fortunate it will be. Because we know this shoe we want you to know it, because it wears as no other shoe will wear, we want you to wear it. It's absolutely the cheapest thing in shoe-leather and there isn't any limit to the satisfaction that it gives. No matter what you pay, you get no better when you get the best—it is a luxury in footwear, a high-priced luxury at that. It is to those who try it. Try it.

Postmen:
Capt. F. P. Zimmerman and Master Tom Pogram leave this afternoon for the mountains. Up about Murphy they will join a party and go into camp for a few weeks' fishing.

Miss Francis Frankenthal, of Baltimore, arrived in the city on the vestibule train yesterday morning. She is visiting her sister, Mrs. B. Landescher.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokes, of Union, N. C., are visiting friends in Charlotte, the guests of their son, Mr. Robt F. Stokes, on North College street. Mr. Stokes is editor of the Union Times, one of the best papers that comes to The News office from South Carolina.

Capt. A. G. Breitner, cashier of the Commercial National Bank, will leave to a few days with his family, for Blowing Rock to spend the summer.

Mr. T. B. Justice, editor of the Rutherford Banner, is at the Buford Hotel.

The Museum.

Nat Gray's dime museum embracing a collision aggregation of un-fathomable wonders, will be opened in the Davidson building, on East Trade street, this week. In addition to the curios, there will be daily performances of magic, such as cutting off a man's head in full view of the audience, turning a stick into a snake, a lump of iron into a bouquet of roses, etc. Charlotte couldn't get along without Nat.

Killed a Mad Dog in the Road.

Mr. R. L. Cochrane, who lives on the Lawyer road, miles from the city, engaged in a battle early this morning with a mad dog. He succeeded in killing the dog, and was himself injured. The battle took place in the public road in front of Mr. Cochrane's house. Mr. Cochrane says that there could be doubt of the fact that the dog had a genuine case of rabies.

No Third Party in Republican Richmond.

A commercial tourist of Charlotte, who was in Rockingham, Saturday, says that the Third party failed to materialize there. There were several suspicious characters of Richmond county in the town that day, but no attempt was made to organize a meeting. Richmond is a Republican county, and it is significant that in counties of that character the Third party is dead as a doornail. Do the Democrats of Democratic counties catch the point?

Death of Mrs. McConnell.

Mrs. Martha McConnell, whose serious illness was noted in Saturday's News, died at the home of her son, Mr. John H. McConnell, on East Trade street, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. McConnell was 80 years of age. Her body was interred at Elmwood cemetery this afternoon, the funeral services having been prearranged at 3 o'clock from the residence, by Rev. C. E. Todd, pastor of the Associate Reformed church. The pall bearers were officers of the Associate Reformed and the Presbyterian churches.

He Kept Money in His House.

Mr. S. F. Houston, who has just returned from a business trip through Lancaster, brings news of an assault on the home of an old man named Wm. J. Blackmon, by robbers. They broke into his house, forced him to open his safe and after robbing it of $1,000, they shot the old man in the neck and fled. The neighborhood was aroused and the robbers were pursued, but eventually escaped. Mr. Blackmon is supposed to be fatally shot. He has the reputation of keeping money in a safe at his lonely country home, and had been robbed twice before, one time of $5,000. He is 70 years old.

THE BELL IN THE BELL.

Mr. Conroy preached last night at the German at the First Baptist.

At the Tryon street Methodist church, last night, the pastor, Rev. W. H. Conroy, preached to the German given in the new city. Telling "How long shall ye推迟两者的两派?" If the Lord be slow to follow him, but Baal then follows him," was his text. A description was given of the drought in the land, the meeting of Elijah and Elisha. The trial by fire of Elijah. The priests of Baal defeated and slain. Elijah's prayer answered. The master you serve to pay.

1st, Apply it to sin. In general, we compare with serving Baal, which has the greatest claim to your service to be done. But, as the master you serve to pay.

2nd, Apply to governments. We are glad that our country acknowledges God to some extent, but hope, and pray that it may go much farther. That they will acknowledge Him in all their ways. That the time may come, when the public buildings, the Nation, State, cities and city, shall be set apart by prayer and thanksgiving at intervals, in place of balls and gaudiness. If officials believe in God, they should acknowledge Him in their acts.

3rd, Apply to society. If it believes in God, these things should be said and done, that honor and serve Him. We will expect to see the ball or German, that of any instance, we give, to do that. The dancing of the negroes before Herod. Not in the character of the mother of the negro, — a simple, her husband and was living in an un-faithful and wicked way with Herod. She of course approved of and encouraged her daughter in the dancing. Let Christians, then, take a note of disposed to smother or permit their daughters to dance. It did not cause them to dance, to lose her head. The refined and elegant damsels took a wild, bold, bold in charge, and presented it to her mother. So, Jesus says, "I pulled the tongue out and thrusts a bock through it. We may well believe it when we study her character. The preacher who attacks sin in high places, may expect the denunciation and hatred of those who practice the sins he condemns. It seems to me, that the results of those unhappy dances, would cause every maiden in our land to hesitate before she engages in its giddy whirl. But I address myself more especially to members of the church, who practice dancing, after having sacredly pledged to "renounce the world, the flesh and the devil." "To be subject to the discipline of the church." It is not alone the preacher of this hour, that says it is wrong, but the various churches of the land in their rules and declarations, when in their declarative bodies assembled, have declared that it is not right or proper for Christians to indulge in it. The member of the church who engages in it violates the promise and obligation taken at the altar. There is not a man or women, boy or girl, in this congregation, of city, or land, that I would not kneel by, pray for and advise if they desired it. Next to my own children I love those over whom God has given me pastoral oversight. But I have this to say, if they love ball-room more than God or the church, it would be best for them, then they would not be self-deceived, and the church for them not to try to carry the world in one hand and the church in the other. The banner of Christ has had to trail in dust and shame, often by those who go to God in vain. May God grant to us all grace and strength to do our duty to God and man. We are aware that some will say, "We are not bound to obey the commandments of God." I would answer that the world was not made in a day, and of course we are not bound to obey the commandments of God.

We are to perform the duty of teaching, preaching, along all over the land. One house of the church is a house of God. Behind it, we pray for the well-being and happiness of you and the brother who served God.

Wadsworth & Sons.

Wadsworth & Sons, who are most famous for fine and practical tailoring, have made a special Wadsworth & Sons Oxford. The coat and trousers are made of a fine, light-colored, soft, strong, and durable fabric, and the coat has a belt.

Wadsworth & Sons.

Wadsworth & Sons, who are still in Philadelphia, sends The News a copy of the Cal, which contains a reference to the estate of the late Edmund Ryding. The Cal says:

The settlement of the estate of Edmund Ryding was filed with Register Monday this morning. It shows the estate to be worth $10,000.

Wadsworth & Sons.

When you hear about the big piles of wheat out in the Dakota farms, you will think of Wadsworth & Sons' model farm in the middle of the city, and see a wheat field that would be a surprise in Dakota. The wheat is the earliest, darkest and finest ever grown in this section. There are so few of it, and it will sell for double to the acre.

Wadsworth & Sons.

The body of the late Col. L. L. Polk, was buried in Raleigh yesterday afternoon. The funeral services were conducted at 1 o'clock from the First Baptist church, of which he was a member. A great crowd attended, many of those present being a number of prominent citizens of North Carolina and other States and a great many farmers from the country adjacent to Raleigh.

The Federal Court.

The summer term of the United States Federal court for this district will convene in Charlotte to-morrow. Judge Dick, who is to preside, arrived at the Central to-day. Judge Bond is expected to be here and assist Judge Dick later in the week. It is not expected that this term will be very much, as the funds for the court expenses are low. Stanly county is already here in usual force. There are about ten cases on the docket from that county.

The Third Party Clear Out of Sight in Mecklenburg.

There were rumors going about of a secret meeting of Third party men in this city, last Saturday, but if any such meeting was held, The News has not been able to locate it. The fact is that the Third party in Mecklenburg put on its night cap and retired very quietly some weeks ago. Reduced to cotton batting, there would not be enough of it to pad a saddle blanket for a sore-backed mule. The only sort of meeting it could hold would be in the nature of a secret one, for it would be too small to attract attention unless one were looking for it through a binocular. As long as there is a blackberry crop in this section there can be no hope for the Third party.

As one of the results of Mr. Wharton's meetings, there were eight imitations at the Tryon street Baptist church, last night. About 20 others are to follow shortly.
