VOLUME VIII.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 16, 1892

NUMBER 1178

Seigle's June 15
1892.

This is the last week of the present year. The stage of courtship is setting, and an injury unimportant enough to affect our health. Many of the men of whom have been the same number now for years at their desks, are very one of them a welcome sight after such a vacation. In short, whether you are young or old, our young or young, you are greatly improved.

General information concerning the various courses, laws, etc., can be obtained from the General Office, 100 Franklin Street, or from the State Board of Education, 100 Franklin Street.

COURSES.

Just One Thousand Dollars. The funds raised by the various educational societies in the State will be largely up to date. The latest figures are as follows:

FUND RAISED.

We have made a good start. They are not bad numbers today. Take a look at them. You can have them at half price. We mean it just what we say. Fifty thousand dollars. It is true that we have a $1,000 balance. Never fear, however. Again, also a lot of money in the same way. We give you the three figures. The remaining figures are to come. The latest figures are as follows:

But it looks as if it would be in us soon and the sooner your foot is in one of our $2 shoes the more fortunate it will be. Because we know this shoe, we want you to know it, because it wears as no other shoe will wear, we want you to wear it. It is absolutely the cheapest thing in shoe-leather and there isn't any limit to the satisfaction that it gives. No matter what you pay, you get no better when you get the best—it is a luxury in footwear, not a high-priced luxury at that. It is trying to those who try it. Try it.

Death of a Good Woman.
Mrs. Susan E. Williams, whose severe illness has been noted in this newspaper last night at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. John W. Miller, at 1130 o'clock. Nearly all of her surviving children were at her bedside when the spirit of this good woman took its flight, and with them was Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. Grier, who is now 80 years of age. Mrs. Williams was a native of Charlotte, having been born here in October 1816. She was married to Mr. Henry W. Williams, who preceded her to the grave about 10 years ago. To them, 14 children were born, those surviving being Mrs. John W. Miller, Mrs. W. J. Cowles, Mrs. J. M. Morrow, Mrs. Ed McDonald, and Miss Susie Williams of Charlotte, Mrs. Anna J. Walker, of New York, Mrs. S. H. MacLean of Chester, S. C., and Mr. H. C. Williams of Salisbury.

In the death of Mrs. Williams, Charlotte loses one of its most esteemed ladies. All her life had been spent among our people, and there is not one in all Charlotte who is not ready to reverently lay a tribute of love and affection upon her grave. Her life was well-spent, and her surviving children cannot fail to be numbered in the many and sincere expressions of regret heard on all sides over the announcement of her death. She goes to the grave mourned by all who knew her. In the mean time our people bestirring will long be seen in laying off. The funeral services will be conducted from Mr. Miller's residence on Saturday afternoon by Rev. Edward Mack, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which she had long been a devoted member. The body will be interred in Elmwood. Messrs. B. M. Miller, Jr., R. E. Cushing, Frank H. Andrews, David W. Oates, A. T. Brainerd, George F. Wilson, Jas. G. Harris, and Almer Elliott will be the pall-bearers.

Coming to Charlotte.
One of the biggest excursion parties of the season will arrive in Charlotte from Atlanta, on the night of the 22d inst., and remain here during the day of the 23d. Twelve passenger coaches have been engaged for the occasion, and it is reported that the tickets would indicate a greater carrying capacity. The colored band of Atlanta said to leave three of the heaviest batteries in the country, will play a solo concert on the 23d, at the hall-ground. The Charlotte end of this interesting move by the colored Athletes win the hands of C. S. L. Taylor who says he will show up Charlotte's hospitality in its highest sense. Fire works, balloon ascensions, music, dancing and other attractions are promised for the night of the 23d. The popularity of Charlotte for its cleanliness, excellent car service, good people, beautiful park and drives, is becoming so wide spread that so long she can justly claim to be the best known city in the State. This shows what enterprise produces.

A Good Schedule.
Next Sunday, a new schedule will go into effect on the Carolina Central and Seaboard connections that will just suit the Charlotte people who may wish to get down to salt water. By the new schedule, one can leave here at 12:30 p.m., reach Wilmington at 7 p.m., and connect there with the boat which leaves at 7:30 for Carolina beach, or with the train that leaves the same hour for Wrightsville. Dinner in Charlotte and supper on the coast, is indeed a fine programme.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Local Weather Report.
The following is a synopsis of the weather prevailing at 5 a.m. today: A moderate high still overhangs this section, and is more or less responsible for the hot weather which is resulting. Generally clear weather is a result over all of the country to the east of the Mississippi river. Light rains have fallen around the Florida coast, and at a few points around the Gulf coast. A low barometer is centred at Amarillo, Tex., and is producing quite heavy rains around its centre and to the north. Dodge City reports 1.14 inch during the past 24 hours, and St. Paul, 1.46 inches. At a few other scattering points light showers have occurred, but dry weather has predominated. Temperatures have remained nearly stationary.

The Death of a Sailor.

Death of Harry Gallant and Harry Cooper, sailors believed to have been of Saint Domingo, West Indies.

The unusual scene of a sailor's funeral was witnessed in Charlotte this morning when the bodies of Harry Gallant and his son, Harry, were escorted out of the church at Steel Creek church early. Mr. Gallant was the skipper of the Naval Yard boat Monday night, when Harry Cooper, a young man, about the same age as Mr. Gallant, fell into the water and it was decided that both should be buried at the same time. Mr. Gallant's body arrived several o'clock this morning, and was referred to Mr. Cooper's remains. At 10 o'clock this morning the two funeral processions started out. The funeral was headed by the Naval Battalion band. Then came the detachment of the Queen City Guards followed by a detachment of the Hornets Nest Riflemen. The latter was flanked by pall-bearers from the Naval Battalion. Following the bearers was a long line of carriages with relatives and friends. Some of the carriages were loaded with floral offerings. In the carriage immediately following the bearers were Rev. Dr. Jas. B. Cushing, Dr. R. B. Reid and Rev. Edward Mack. The band and the military companies joined ranks at Moorefield Avenue and then the funeral procession turned back to the church. Rev. Mr. Wiggin presided at the service, and a discourse was made by Mr. Mack, a old friend of Mr. Gallant. The body was interred in the surrounding grounds.

Local Ripples.
Prof. C. C. Hook left this morning for Bartram Springs. Not a single bale of cotton was brought to the city today. Miss Clara Conrad, who has been visiting Mrs. George W. Bryan leaves for her home this evening. Infant child of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davy, of Berry Hill township died last night and was buried at Steel Creek church today.

The Egyptian wonder will be on exhibition in the store room next to Gray & Barnhardt's shoe store tomorrow night. Albert Wilson, who has been attending school at the University of Virginia has returned to town to spend vacation.

The game of ball at the park yesterday was witnessed by a slim audience and resulted in a victory for the "Grays" by a score of 14 to 11.

Rev. F. D. Hunt will lecture on prohibition at the court house tonight, and the public is cordially invited to attend. Mr. Hunt is a fine speaker.

The Sunday School of B Street Chapel of the M. E. church will hold their annual picnic at Latta park, on next Wednesday, 23d inst. Arrangements for this pleasure are in the hands of Messrs. Herring, Kirby and Smith, which insures every comfort to friends of the school and others who may make the day's outing with them.

To Go into Business at Winston.

Messrs. John W. McMillan and

John J. Adams, two of Charlotte's best young men, have arranged to go into business in Winston. They will open a wholesale commission house in that place on July 1st. They are among the best business men of Charlotte, and in them Winston will have an acquisition to its business and commercial circles to be proud of. Mr. McMillan has gone to Canada on a brief visit to relatives and friends and on his return will go once to Winston.

Notes from the Naval Battalion.

The gallant Navy Battalion is being put through a rigid discipline

at Steel Creek.

But seems rather exacting. Thus day night, from 10 o'clock to 12

Navy watch supposed to be a recreational period, the men were kept busy.

Recess was allowed to those who were not required to work.

At 12 o'clock

the men were put to work again.

Thus

they were kept busy

all day.
