A GOOD DEAL OF SHOING is going on just now, and we happen to be in it. Our $2 shoe keeps all its old friends. For every penny expended in its purchase, a trifle more than a penny's worth of wear is certain to be obtained. Nothing that was ever bought, sold or exchanged, ever did a handsomer thing by the purchaser than this shoe does. Never was a larger value given for a smaller price. It is a perfect phenomenon of durability. It's just the thing for those who believe in having comfortable shoes exactly what economical people are looking for.

Hats and Umbrellas, Trunks, and bags always on hand.

The rapid and healthy growth of the University during the past year is one of the best signs of continued progress. The institution is taking rank with the best in the country. Young men who desire to fit themselves for useful careers in life, should write to President Winston at Chapel Hill, for full information. See ad.

MOON SCHEDULE GUARANTEED.

Business to be Again Sifted at Hodger's Old Stand.

The board of county commissioners met in extra session this morning to hear applications from parties who desired to sell liquors in Charlotte. His applications were on file. At the morning session, Mr. J. H. Hoover was granted license to do a wholesale business at the old stand of Mr. O. F. Hodger, at the sign of the big E, on East Trade street. All voted for his application except Commissioner Kirkpatrick. By a similar vote, Mr. J. A. Simpson was granted license to retail whiskey at No. 30 North Tryon street.

Mr. Jas. D. Palmer made application for license to sell whiskey at No. 9 South College street. His application was turned down, all the commissioners voting against him.

At the afternoon session the application of Mr. J. C. Howie, to sell liquors at the corner of Church and Trade streets was turned down, on account of the near location of the stand to the First Presbyterian church. Mr. Howie at once proceeded to amend his application to the stand nearly opposite the court house, and it was understood that license would be granted him there.

Colored Names.

At a regular communication of Paul Drayton Masonic Lodge, No. 7, held last night the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. E. King, W. M.; Walter Hill, S. W.; Jethro Sumner, J. W.; W. W. Smith, Secretary; W. M. Pethel, Treasurer; James McKnight, S. D.; Rufus Hyatt, J. D.; Claborn Bratton, Tyler.

A Deserved Promotion.

Mr. E. P. McKissick, who is by no means a stranger to Charlotte people, has recently been given charge of the Battery Park Hotel by Mr. Frank Cox, its owner. Mr. McKissick first went to the Battery Park as assistant manager. His executive ability and wide acquaintance soon made him one of the best known hotel men in the South and his recent promotion is a deserved one.

Getting to Atlanta.

It looks like the trouble the Seaboard Air Line people have experienced in getting into Atlanta with the G. C. & N. road, will soon be ended. The Georgia road barred out the G. C. & N., but that road has decided to build a belt line road which will run from North Decatur on the Georgia, Carolina and Northern to Howells on the Western and Atlantic. The line will be eight miles long and will give the Seaboard connection with the Western and Atlantic, which has agreed to let the Seaboard into the city and the depot.

Application has been made for a charter. Half of the right of way has been secured. Grading will be started as soon as the charter is granted. The country is hilly and will cost $17,000 a mile to build the roadway. When completed the line will be about three miles longer than the line would be if it could be built direct into the union depot on the Georgia road's right of way.

The Constitution says that the Seaboard's officials estimate that they lose $1,200 a day by not being able to run into the depot. The projected route will not lengthen the time of passenger trains more than ten minutes above what it would be coming straight in. For freight business, the belt line will be valuable as transfers of through business can then be made in twenty minutes; now it takes a day in the busy season to get a transfer of through freight made.

WILL IT BE CLEVELAND?

There was a Note, the Wigwag looked. Resolutions of sympathy, the names were endorsed, but no action taken.

The Western Union Free Ignition this morning from Chicago, Ohio. The papers nearly all agree, and the impression prevails among the delegates here that Cleveland will be nominated without opposition. It is thought that Gray of Indiana will be selected as vice president. The convention will probably conclude its labors to-morrow.

Wilson, of West Virginia, is permanent chairman. Abbott of New Jersey, will present Cleveland's name. Cochran, of Fellows will present Hill's name. Breckenridge of Kentucky, will probably present Christie; if not, he will second Cleveland. The platform is practically agreed on now. The Syracuse or anti snap delegates will not contest. The feeling is assured of Cleveland's nomination. It is claimed they consent to this at the solicitation, Whitney, Don Dickenson, Ex-Secretary Bayard, and Mr. Villas will issue a formal reply that they consent in the interest of harmony etc.

The delegates are slowly assembling. A heavy rain storm has just started the wigwag leaks and the occupants of the galleries are forced to use umbrellas. The prominent men are being cheered as they enter the hall.

It is said that the opponents of Cleveland are trying to effect a combination on the part of Brees, but so far it has been unsuccessful.

Owen, of Kentucky was made temporary chairman and he was well received. On taking the chair, he said that unity and harmony are the only things necessary for success. The rules governing the last convention were adopted.

At 1:30 p. m., the roll of States, for the selection of members of the various committees was called. Ronkie Cochran, was selected for New York on the credentials committee.

A resolution extending sympathy to Hon. James B. Blaine was unanimously carried and great cheering all over the hall.

At 5:15 the convention adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow.

Senator Ransom is always right. According to a special to the Washington Star, a conference of the Hill and Cleveland leaders with Senator Sherman was held in the parlors of the Palmer House. It began with Governor Ransom of North Carolina, Wm. C. Whitney, Grover Cleveland's manager, and Lieut. Gov. Sheehan, one of Hill's right-hand men, and Henry Watterson. It had only been in progress a short time when Mr. Whitney came out and made a bee line for the headquarters of Tammany men. Apparently his mission was successful, for "Boss" Croker and Chairman Murphy made their appearance and were at once shown into the room of if they were expected.

Meantime the hour of the meeting of the national committee approached and Henry Watterson and Senator Ransom came out and passed into the adjoining room to sustain the action of the joint subcommittee in reaffirming the selection of Owens of Kentucky as temporary chairman.

Mr. Ransom said he could form no idea how soon the conference, whose present he had left, would agree upon a plan of joint action or whether they could come to any arrangement at all.

"One thing is certain," he added, "Cleveland cannot carry New York, and we have to agree upon somebody who can carry New York."

Mr. Cleveland's supporters have claimed everything from the start. It is to be regretted therefore, that they did not go ahead and put him through on that first ballot, thus saving the country a day of useless suspense.
