

BRIEF MENTION.

Little Items That Will Interest All Charlotte.

There will be a picnic and educational rally at Newell's tomorrow. Mr. A. Block, the tailor, has returned from the North, where he went to purchase new fall goods. Misses Benner and Hester, the dressers, leave tomorrow on a ten days trip for the Philadelphia and New York markets. Prof. D. T. Huyck is expected to return to Charlotte this week and resume his duties as organist at Tryon Street Methodist church. Miss Sarah Grimes Howard, of Greensboro, representing the Orphans' Friend and Masonic Journal of Oxford, is in the city in the interest of these papers. The Carolina Heating and Plumbing Co. is moving this week into the Durham building, South Tryon street, where it will have enlarged quarters for its show and work rooms. The Ladies' Auxiliary will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A. Business of importance will be transacted and a full attendance is earnestly desired. Mr. Holderfield was right painfully hurt at the park today. His injuries were the result of the falling of a trolley wheel from a car. Mr. Holderfield was standing near the car when the wheel fell striking him on the head. Mr. Frank Osborne, deputy Superior Court clerk, is quite sick. He has been removed from his room in the court house building and is now at St. Peter's Hospital. Mr. Osborne's friends hope for him a speedy recovery. The Raleigh News and Observer of yesterday says: "Mr. Richard Busbee, son of Mr. Fabius H. Busbee, is now doing as well as the doctor could expect, and is free from fever. His progress for the last three weeks, ever since the first few days, has been slow, but steady."

A Coming Marriage.

The following cards have been issued: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stenerson request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter Helen Gustavia to Harold Platt Barstow, on Wednesday evening, September the tenth, at seven o'clock, Tryon Street Methodist Church, Charlotte, North Carolina.

Goes To Atlanta.

Mr. Ab. V. Harrill has resigned as city ticket agent of the Seaboard Air Line and has accepted the position of assistant city ticket agent of the Southern, in Atlanta, the position recently held by Mr. Ralph Van Landingham. Mr. Harrill will leave for Atlanta as soon as his successor has been appointed. Two or three names have been spoken of in connection with the position but the appointment will be made from Portsmouth and no one here knows what will be done.

Omaha's First Citizen Dead. Omaha, Sept. 1.—A. D. Jones, Omaha's first postmaster, and the first citizen to settle as a resident on the site of this city, died today. He was born in Philadelphia, Jan. 13, 1813, and was one of the unique characters of the West.

VOICE CULTURE.

My fall term of vocal instruction will begin Sept. 1st. For the past three years I have been studying in New York with Madame Marie Gramm and Signor Emilio Besari and have acquired the latest methods of correct placement and rapid development of the voice. For terms and general information address me at my studio, 8 East Morehead Avenue. MRS. MINNIE WRISTON SMITH.
