The News in Brief and Newsy Paragraphs.

—Miss Jingles Harkey, who has been sick at her home, four miles from the city, is able to be out.

—The Friday Afternoon Book Club will meet with Mrs. Joe Solomons tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

—W. M. Farrow, of Newells, has accepted a position in the furnishing department of Tapp-Long Co.

—The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the parlors of the Y. M. C. A.

—There will be a lawn party at Amity church tomorrow (Friday) night. Every one is invited to be present.

—The Young Ladies' Aid Society of Graham Street Presbyterian church will give an ice cream supper at Vance Park tonight. The proceeds will go to the society.

—Bishop A. Coke Smith, and Mrs. Smith, left this morning for Norfolk. Bishop Smith will give the committee here a definite answer as to his making Charlotte his home, by Saturday.

—Mr. Jack N. Harris is to be married today to a lady in Norfolk. Mr. Harris was Mr. Dick Busbee's predecessor in the insurance stamping office here.

—The excursion Saturday to Mooresville, run by the Sunday school of East Avenue Tabernacle, will take a large crowd from Charlotte. A big picnic and other attractions will be prepared for those who go.

—The scenery for the stage of the Academy of Music, arrived yesterday and is being placed in position today. It is really very beautiful and attractive. The drop curtains have also arrived.

—The Young Peoples' Society of Christian Endeavor of Westminster church will hold its quarterly social and business meeting Friday evening at the residence of Mrs. Philip Lance, on the Boulevard. All the young people of the congregation as well as members of the society are invited to be present.

—The educational committee of the Young Men's Christian Association has decided to hold a class in reading and writing this winter for boys and young men who have been deprived of opportunity of gaining even the rudiments of an education. A number of young men have already expressed a desire for such a class. Miss Mary O. Graham will teach the class.

—A. G. Knebel, State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association was in town this morning conferring with the local officers about a conference on work for boys to be held here September 23 and 24. Secretaries of the local Associations in North and South Carolina will attend the conference. Mr. Knebel reports a lively interest in the work in the Carolinas with prospective organizations at a number of points.

An Important Meeting.

The Young Women's Christian Association will hold an important meeting at the rooms of the Association on West Fifth street tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. All interested are requested to be present. The meeting was to have been held today but was postponed for sufficient reasons.

WHEN YOU GO INTO A DRUG STORE

to get a bottle of Painkiller, examine it carefully to see if it is made by Perry Davis, and don't be persuaded to take something "just as good" because it is a few cents cheaper. There is only one Painkiller, "Perry Davis." Large bottles 25 and 50c.

VOICE CULTURE.

My fall term of vocal instruction will begin Sept. 1st. For the past three years I have been studying in New York with Madame Marie Gramm and Signor Emilio Belari and have acquired the latest methods of correct placement and rapid development of the voice. For terms and general information address me at my studio, 8 East Morehead Avenue.
