

I VEY'S BARGAINS FOR SATURDAY AND MONDAY

As usual we have some extra bargains for our customers Saturday and Monday.

Embroidery Bargains

A lucky purchase enables us to give a fine opportunity to lovers of Embroidery bargains. It will pay you to buy and lay away if you don't need it now.

Neat fine effects, up to 6 and 8 inches wide, many of the goods worth 15 and 20c. yard, and every yard cheap at 5c. yard.

Light Outings

We expect Saturday morning a very fine bargain in light outings for gowns, wrappers, etc. They are neat effects—pink stripes, neat checks in pinks, light blues, etc.

Dress Goods Bargains

With the outing shipments comes another lot of that fine bargain in 56-inch all-wool plaid back suiting we sold so quick before. It is $1.25 quality, but we bought so as to save you 50c. yard.

Remnants Prints 3 12c yd

This is one case that was delayed. It should have been in our remnant sale last Saturday. They are clean new goods, nice styles, regular price 5c. yard anywhere.

Ribbon Bargains

3 1-2-inch wide satin taffetta ribbon. 15c. yard No. 60, very wide. 19c. yard No. 80, very wide. 20c. yard

FUNERAL OF MR. BLANKENSHIP.

Services Held From the Residence This Afternoon at 5 O'clock. The funeral of Mr. W. A. Blankenship was held from the residence on North Church street this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. E. K. Ward, Gillespie Sadler, William I. Van Ness, Hamilton W. Wilson, James W. Wadsworth, H. A. Webber, Osmond L. Barringer, and B. Swift Davis.

The floral offerings were exceedingly beautiful. The Charlotte Lodge of Elks, of which the deceased was a member, sent a handsome pillow, with "W. A. B." in the center.

The death of Mr. Blankenship which occurred this morning shortly after two o'clock, is one of the saddest that has ever taken place in Charlotte.

Mr. Blankenship was an exceedingly popular young man. During his residence here he made many friends and all are bowed with grief over his sad and untimely end.

Decased is survived by a wife and one child. Mrs. Blankenship is a daughter of Mr. J. L. Davis, of this city, and sympathy, deep sympathy, is expressed for him and daughter.

PUT OFF THE CARS.

An Unruly Negro Ejected From the Street Cars. In the Recorder's court this morning Kelly Pennington was taxed with the costs for disorderly conduct while under the influence of liquor.

Eli Wilson, of one time a waiter at one of the Charlotte hotels, was before the court charged with disorderly conduct while aboard one of the electric cars. The conductor of the car testified that Wilson boarded the car at the square and in a very abrupt manner asked the conductor to take his crutches.

Horace Hubbard was before the court charged with keeping a vicious dog. Several men in a vehicle passed Hubbard's house yesterday afternoon. Tied to the back of the vehicle was a cow.

THE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION. Held An Important Meeting This Morning. The call meeting of the Alumnae Association of the Presbyterian College, was responded to by twelve of the members.

The meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. I. W. Faison. Those present were Mrs. Mary Gilmer Grier and Mrs. J. W. Miller, vice presidents; Miss Elizabeth Grier, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Armistead Burwell, Mrs. J. R. Irwin, Mrs. Josie Durant, Mrs. Rufus Barringer, Mrs. W. C. Alexander, Mrs. S. M. Pegrom and Mrs. S. J. Lowe, of Concord.

The special object of the meeting was to appoint a committee on "Shrubbery and Plants." There is a demand for immediate action in this particular as the grounds are now ready for such ornamentation.

Norfolk Excursion Return. The excursionists to Norfolk, over the Southern, returned this morning, having spent a most delightful two days in the Virginia city. The excursion train was run in two sections and it is estimated that at least 1,200 people took advantage of the low rate.

The one great virtue of Burnett's Vanilla Extract is purity. It is real vanilla extract and nothing but vanilla extract. Always use Burnett's.

BY 2,000 MAJORITY.

Mecklenburg Safe For Big Democratic Majority. Mr. F. M. Shannonhouse, who, in the absence of Chairman J. D. McCall, is at the head of the Democratic Executive Committee of the county, tells the News man today that he has made some figures that indicate which way the wind is going to blow in the November election.

Mr. Shannonhouse is in close touch with the voters and his prediction, for this reason, carries with it weight. The country precincts are warming up and the lines are being drawn.

Tomorrow the opposition will meet and it is said by those who are "near in" that only a legislative and county commissioners ticket will be launched. It was not the intention of the Republicans to make a fight on the legislative ticket until the word was given out from Marshall that Senator Pritchard would be very much aggrieved should Mecklenburg Republicans "lay down" on him.

POINTERS ABOUT PEOPLE. Some You Know and Some You May Wish To Know. Mr. Geo. B. Hiss, Republican nominee for Congress, in this district, has returned to the city.

Mr. W. B. McEwen of Asheville, is at the Buford. Mr. J. K. Peffer of Salem, is here today.

Mrs. J. E. Shannon of Wilmington, is a guest of the Buford. Mr. D. L. Norris of Westminster, S. C., is a guest of the Buford.

Mr. John P. Allison of Concord, spent last night at the Buford. Mr. Fred L. Smyre of Gastonia, was here last night.

Mr. W. A. Self of Hickory, a prominent lawyer of that town, is a guest of the Buford.

Miss Beckie Nichols leaves for Statesville tomorrow morning. Mr. C. D. Holland of Dallas, was a guest of the Central today.

Mr. James Brown and Miss Jessie Brown of Newton, are guests of the Central.

Mr. J. C. Bates of Indian Trail, is here today. Mr. G. F. Hawkins of Lexington, is at the Central.

Mr. R. J. Reynolds of Savannah, was here today. Mr. P. E. Ranson of Halifax, is at the Central.

Mr. J. E. Reiley was here today. He stopped at the Central. Mr. J. A. Martin of Hickory, is at the Central.

Mr. C. W. Jones of Louisville, is at the Central. Mr. C. O. Champion and wife, of Mooresboro, are guests of the Central.

Mrs. C. Valaer who is now at Atlantic City, is expected to return home next week. Mrs. Wade H. Harris has returned from Blowing Rock.

AS IN A LOOKING GLASS.

Flash Lights of the News of Charlotte and This Section. Mecklenburg watermelons continue plentiful.

Murry and Mack at the Latta Park auditorium tomorrow night, will draw a large crowd. Joe Fitzsimmons has disposed of his pony and cart. Col. Leroy Springs, of Lancaster, was the purchaser.

Miss Mamie Davis, of Mooresville, who was operated on for appendicitis at St. Peter's Hospital, is improving rapidly.

Mr. Will Garibaldi who was operated on at St. Peter's Hospital yesterday for appendicitis, was getting on as well as could be expected.

Master Lester Ranson has accepted a position with Woodall & Sheppard. He is assisting his brother in the soft drink department.

The city street force commenced this afternoon digging up the big cobble stones in front of the Buford Hotel. The regular macadam will be placed in their stead.

The receipts of cotton at the city platform today amounted to 121 bales. Prices ranged from 8 cents to 8.30. For the same day last year the receipts amounted to 13 bales and the best price was 8.60.

Hospital Report.

The report for August of the Good Samaritan Hospital is as follows: Number of patients August 1st, 2; number of patients August 31st, 4; number of patients admitted in August, 9; number of patients dismissed in August, 6; deaths, 1; operations, 2; outdoor patients, 3.

MRS. HENRY GRADY HERE.

En Route to New York To Be At Her Husband's Bedside. Mrs. Henry W. Grady, of Atlanta, passed through Charlotte last night en route for New York where she goes to be with her husband, who is now an inmate of a sanatorium in that city.

As News readers are aware Mr. Grady disappeared in Norfolk, Va., a week ago yesterday. Wednesday, he was seen walking aimlessly about Central Park in New York. He could give no account of himself and to all appearances, was suffering from mental aberration.

Mrs. Grady was a Miss Gould, of St. Louis. She is an exceedingly attractive woman and her grief over her husband's sad plight, is intense. She will remain with Mr. Grady until he recovers sufficiently to return South.

"UNORNA."

The Opening Attraction At the Academy of Music. The News stated several days ago that the opening attraction at the Academy of Music the night of the 29th would be "Unorna."

The story is one of absorbing interest, written in that masterly manner which characterizes all of Mr. Crawford's tales; the theme is an absolutely new and distinctly original one, and the characters are truthfully and accurately drawn, the preparation of the story for stage purposes has been made by Espy Williams.
