Happenings of Interest From Around Steele Creek--The Deadly Toy Cannon and Items of Interest

Christmas, with its time of good cheer and good will to men has come and gone, and we trust every one has had a pleasant time. Notwithstanding the severe cold of the past few days, much visiting and riding about has been done.

On Christmas eve the pretty marriage of Miss Jane Neely to Mr. Charles Sledge, was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends at the home of the bride's parents.

FROM A TRAMP TO CATTLE KING

Starting With Fifty-two Cents in His Pocket, Young Man at 23 is on Nigh Road to Wealth

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 31--A uniformed messenger at 18; six months later a tramp with 25 cents in his pocket; in 1902, 23 years old, a young cattle king, on the high road to wealth.

Such is the remarkable history in a nutshell of "Bert" Moore, who went into the stockyards in South Omaha last week, taking several carloads of fat steers from his Wyoming ranch.

Young Moore asked for his "time" one day, saying he was determined to go to Wyoming and become a cattle king. He homesteaded 160 acres of land in the Big Horn basin.
