Creatore who appears at the Academy tonight with his Italian band became a craze, the same as he does every where, and broke the attendance record of the Exposition on several occasions. He was the talk of the town and nothing but praise was heard for his grand interpretations and thrilling music. Shortly afterwards another band master whose advertising methods are certainly sensational, appeared in Pittsburg, and for some reason attacked Creatore through the public press, as crude and inartistic. This seems to have aroused the feelings of the Pittsburgers and they are expressing their admiration of Creadaily "Leader" of that city goes into devoted to his music, and also of an unusually interesting personality. The leading musicians of Pittsburg were interviewed for publication, including their Symphony Orchestra, Professor Gittings, a prominent music teacher, and many others, all of whom support Creatore as an unusually fine leader und great artist. It is the universal entiment that the impression made mon his audience was something unprecedented, and the success of his engagement at the Exposition estabished a new record.
