LINE UPON LINE.

That is the Way the Lintotype Machines Set These.

—Mr. Jay W. Ranson has a position with J. B. Ivey & Co.

—Farmers were scarce in Charlotte today. There is too much to be done on the farm for them to come to town.

—It is Mr. M. F. Kirby, Jr., who is secretary and treasurer of the Tapp Company in Columbia, S. C.

—Mr. David H. Burtner, with E. M. Andrews, has gone to Greensboro to assist in the management of the Andrews furniture branch there.

—The owners of the Central Hotel property are still figuring on that $100,000 improvement that was mentioned in The News some months ago.

—Bishop A. Coke Smith has returned from Williamston, where on Sunday last he dedicated the new Methodist church in that town.

—The Red Horse Club is making ready for a trip to Catawba river. This is an annual occasion and affords a lot of fun to 25 or 30 Charlotte folks.

—Judge Shaw who is now holding Superior Court in this city will also preside at the next term of Mecklenburg court that meets the second Monday in April.

—Mrs. R. P. Richardson, of Reidsville, grandmother of Miss Mary Boyd who has been visiting Mrs. John M. Scott, continues very ill, at her home, one mile from Reidsville. Her condition today was extremely critical.

—The Charlotte friends of Capt. Charles Price, of Salisbury, will learn with sincere regret that he is still quite sick. He left yesterday for Capt. Price, Maryland, where he will take a course of treatment.

—Mr. H. D. Duckworth says that every plow in Paw Creek was running all the time yesterday. The farmers are behind with their work and they are now trying to make up for lost time.

—Mr. J. P. Caldwell of the Observer, has accepted an invitation to deliver the annual address before the South Carolina Press Association. The association will meet at White Stone Lithia Springs in July.

—Two Franklin Ward meetings were held last night—one in the First Ward, corner 12th and Davidson streets and the other in Third Ward at Mr. Robert Turner's store. Both were well attended and enthusiasm seemed to be at a high pitch.

—Mr. J. N. McCausland is preparing to have his residence rolled to one side of his lot on North Poplar in order that he may make room for a handsome residence that he contemplates building in the near future. Mr. John D. Ross will do the moving. While the moving is in progress, Mr. McCausland and family will take a trip North.

—With this warm weather the fish are beginning to run strong in the Catawba river and the smaller streams. Chas. Keesler was in this morning from Sample's Mills with a big catch of catfish from the Catawba river. And they sold by the bunch like the proverbial hot cakes. Fresh water catfish are a delicacy with some people. The salt water catfish are unfit for food.

WHITE STONE LITHIA HOTEL.

Mr. C. E. Hooper of the Central May Take Charge This Summer.

It is probable that Mr. C. E. Hooper, proprietor of the Central Hotel of this city, will conduct the White Stone Lithia Springs Hotel in Spartanburg county, this summer. Mr. Hooper has just returned from Spartanburg where he had a talk with Mr. Harris, the owner of the property. On his return home, Mr. Hooper made a proposition to Mr. Harris. He does not know whether the proposition will be accepted or not.

Should Mr. Hooper take this hotel, he will continue in charge of the Central as now. Under his wise and capable management, the Central has prospered as never before. The hotel is filled almost every day and the traveling public say the Central is better in every respect than for many years.

The White Stone Lithia Springs are located about ten miles from Spartanburg. The owner of the property, Mr. Harris, is now having an electric line built from a small station below Spartanburg. This line will connect the springs with the Southern road and passengers will find no trouble in reaching this popular resort. Heretofore it has been necessary to make a trip through the county in order to reach the springs. This is oftentimes disagreeable, especially in bad weather.

The Spartanburg Journal in speaking of Mr. Hooper's plans says: "A prominent hotel man from Charlotte, N. C., was in the city yesterday afternoon returning from White Stone Springs where he had been in inspect the new hotel at that place. The gentleman was C. E. Hooper, proprietor of the Central Hotel at Charlotte. It is said that Mr. Hooper will very likely lease the hotel for the coming season."

DEATH OF MISS SUMMERVILLE.

Aged Lady of the Paw Creek Section Died This Morning.

Miss Margaret C. Summerville, an aged lady of the Paw Creek section, died this morning at 7:15 o'clock after an illness of only a few hours. Miss Summerville had been in declining health for some time but her condition last night was as favorable as had been for some time. During the early morning hours she was taken suddenly ill and expired at the hour named.

Deceased was an aunt of Mr. A. C. Summerville and Mrs. John W. Todd, of this city. She had been a member of Paw Creek church for many years and was a most pious and devout Christian woman. Her death is sincerely mourned.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at the home of Mr. William McCord in Paw Creek. The interment will be at Paw Creek church.

Miss Summerville was about 72 years old and was well known in Charlotte.

MOTHER GOOSE ENTERTAINMENT

Will Take Place At the Academy Tomorrow Night.

Tomorrow evening the children, one hundred and more of them, will claim the undivided attention of everybody in town. Their Mother Goose performance at the Academy of Music promises to be a grand success. As a rule the estimate of a dramatic performance is established by newspaper reporters or at least by the audience, but in this instance it is the performers themselves who are to be relied upon for judgment of the merits of the entertainment. One of the stars said yesterday that the first act would undoubtedly be the best. "You are in that, I suppose," said her friend. "Oh, yes, of course," replied the little tot. She further remarked that there would be five acts and that the prices 50c. and 25c. were too cheap. The third act she declared would bring down the house and we may be sure that it will. The main point after all is how much will the Day Nurseries be benefitted by the patronage received. Let us run the figures up high and think of the comfort and happiness that may be bestowed upon poor children.

A Measuring Party. The Epworth League of Brevard Street M. E. Church will give a Measuring Party tonight at the church. Admission is three cents for every foot high you are and one cent for every additional inch. All are cordially invited to join us in our songs, recitations and eating, so be well and bring your best friend. Hours from 8 o'clock till bed time.

Rehearsal At St. Peter's. The teachers and scholars of St. Peter's Episcopal Sunday school are earnestly requested to be present tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at the church at 4 o'clock for the purpose of rehearsing the Easter music.

B. A. SOUTHERLAND, Superintendent.
