

MARKET TALK.

Some Interesting Gossip About Cotton and Stocks. By Wire to Howell & Dodsworth. New York, May 12.—C. W. Lee & Co. say: If it were not for the position of cotton itself we would be inclined to regard today's sensational advance as the probable culmination of an upward movement. After a period of rather sensational advances, the market usually ends with just such a scene as took place on the floor this morning. That is when August bumped from 20 points or more and then slid off about 15. But with New Orleans in a state of demoralization and spot cotton there at 11 cents a pound and July at about 12 cents a pound, with Liverpool about as demoralized as New Orleans and the trade unable to satisfy themselves as to what the next change of the wheel will bring forth, it is utterly impossible to see the events in cotton circles. The feature today was the rather heavy selling of Philadelphia interests particularly in August. That is to be satisfied with that interest sold reams of August from 10.20 to 10.05. It will be remembered that this house took some 30,000 bales of May cotton delivered on contracts early in the month. The selling today is doubtless in the nature of a hedge against the spot takings. Of course the market was a wild one from start to finish with the running in of shorts as was to be expected under the circumstances. It is simply fool-hardy to short cotton at the present time though there is a prevailing impression that Mr. Sully is gradually getting out of his May cotton. We trust he is, and that we will not be compelled to go through a squeeze of more extended duration as a corner at this time would disturb all markets to an even greater extent than the disturbances at present. We continue to believe in the advisability of letting the summer months alone and buying October on every opportunity afforded by a recession in price.

STOCKS.

New York, May 12.—A good tone characterized the trading in today's market. Bullish sentiment was increased by the good government crop report which showed that the stories of damage had been exaggerated. While traders watched the tendency of Foreign Exchange not so much apprehension was manifested in regard to gold exports. There was evidence of Standard Oil buying in the market in addition to the purchases by Gould representatives showing that the two interests are working together. There was considerable irregularity in certain departments. Pennsylvania was weak and Metropolitan did not show any recuperative powers. Gold export engagements reduced the gain of the banks from the Sub-Treasury since last Friday to $177,000. St. Paul is being tipped for a rise and if it should occur the going market would be further strengthened. A firmer tendency was noted in time money, although rates on call remained easy. The decline in New Haven stock is attributed more to investment selling than anything else. We believe American Smelting is ready for a rise, and there are tips out to buy Rubber Goods. Missouri Pacific should be bought on re-actions, likewise Wash preferred. As this is a professional market largely ruled by floor operations, traders will find it advisable to take reasonable returns. At this writing the outlook favors improvement during the week. The market closed dull and weak. Sales, stocks, 252,900 shares.

Expelled Priests Go To Mexico. New York, May 12.—The Spanish steamer, Maria Cuervo, in today's Spanish ports, was a number of priests expelled from France under the association law. They are going to Mexico to act as instructors in a school.

Bilbison—"I understand that South American general has resolved to sell his life dearly." Bilbison—"Yes; he wants ten dollars for the library edition."—"Judge." Mayme—"I had seventeen offers of marriage this wintek." Edyth—"Ar'n't you afraid the fellow will get discouraged and quit proposing?"—"Chicago Daily News." "I suppose," said he, "it would be useless for me to ask you to be my wife."—"It would," she replied, "if that's your style of going about it."—"Chicago Record-Herald." "Mr. Tiffin is awfully attentive to that rich maiden aunt of his. Haven't you noticed it?"—"Yes; he believes people can be killed by kindness."—"Town and Country." "First Boy—"My father's going to have a horseless carriage." Second Ditto—"Huh! That's nothing. We have a coalless furnace at our house all winter."—"Boston Transcript."

NO SUBSTITUTE WANTED.

No! I did not ask for a bottle any cheaper, or twice as large, or one made by yourselves. I did ask for and will not have any substitute for Perry Davis' Painkiller. I have used it, my father used it and I would not be surprised if my grandparents did so, too; there is no imitation that can equal it. That I am sure of—for stomach ache.
