SAVED FROM TERRIBLE DEATH. The family of Mrs. M. L. Bobbitt, of Bargerton, Tenn., saw her dying and were powerless to save her. The most skillful physicians and every remedy used, failed, while consumption was slowly but surely taking her life. In this terrible hour Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption turned despair into joy. The first bottle brought immediate relief and its continued use completely cured her. It's the most certain cure in the world for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed. Bottles 50c. and $1.00. Trial Bottles Free at all Druggists.

Martha Washington Tea.

The Martha Washington Tea tomorrow afternoon from 4 to 8 o'clock at Mrs. I. W. Faison's for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. No invitations have been issued but every one will receive a cordial welcome. Silver offering of 25 cents is ex-

There will be a Martha Washington Tea this evening from 5 to 11 o'clock at Trinity Methodist parsonage. It is a birthday party and everybody is asked to bring as many pennies as they are years old, and as many more pennies as they hope to be years older. The Tea is under the management of Mrs. Fry and Mrs. Lillard, and this insures a good time to all who will attend. There will be several ways of entertainment and each guest will be entertained without being made to feel that effort is being made in his behalf. All the church and others who are interested, are invited to attend.

There was no delivery of mail by carriers today from the local post office, but the carriers' windows were open from noon until 1.30 p. m., and a large amount of mail was called for. The mails were generally late to-

CHRONICALLY CRABBED CREATURES

Like you, my dear young woman, have no place in the world. Mankind and womankind like bright, cheerful company, and people will very quickly avoid you if you greet them always with a groan and a vivid recital of your ailments. Your husband comes home from a hard day at the office. crowd. He's all fagged out. Possibly something has gone wrong city lots for and he's just a little bit cross and irritable. He needs soothing, smoothing out, a warmhearted, happy little woman to make him forget that he's even got a business up street. But what does he get? Wifey looks up and in the most in jured tone of voice informs him that she has "a violent headache, been feeling perfectly wretched all afternoon, never suffered so much in all her life," and pretty soon Hubby slips his hat and takes a sneak.

BACON'S HEADACHE CURE at Brannon's only costs 25 cents and it is guaranteed to keep Hubby at home.
