The News has received the following: Dear News:

We are so much obliged to you for advertising our Blue Beard show at Mrs. L. J. Dowd's last night. We had a packed house and the show was fine. Edward Bryan was Blue Beard and was so handsome and clever, the audience and all the children fell in love with him and would have gladly allowed him to chop their heads off. Jean Dowd was Blue Beard's wife, and looked mighty sweet and pretty, as did also Susie Hutchison, Mary Johnston and Kathleen Stone, who figured gracefully in several scenes. Jamie Means, Joel McAden, Raymond Pearson, and Baldwin Maxwell were the gallant soldiers who murdered Blue Beard, and little Julia Bryan sang some pretty songs that brought down the house.

Misses Reese and Hart assisted very much by pretty music and recitations, and everyone was delighted with everything about the show. We used bright red flannel for blood—a paper knife with red ink stains for Blue Beard's dagger, and pretended like lemonade was tea. We made $15 for Mr. Baldwin's school, and want you to thank everyone who helped us in any way. BLUE BEARD'S FAMILY.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I am one of the many of your grateful friends who have been cured through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and who can to-day thank you for the fine health I enjoy. When I was thirty-five years old, I suffered severe backache and frequent bearing-down pains; in fact, I had womb trouble. I was very anxious to get well, and reading of the cures your Compound had made, I decided to try it. I took only six bottles, but it built me up and cured me entirely of my troubles. My family and relatives were naturally as gratified as I was. My niece had heart trouble and nervous prostration, and was considered incurable. She took your Vegetable Compound and it cured her in a short time, and she became well and strong, and her home to her great joy and her husband's delight was blessed with a baby. I know of a number of others who have been cured of different kinds of female trouble, and am satisfied that your Compound is the best medicine for sick women."—MRS. ELIZABETH H. THOMPSON, Box 105, Lillydale, N.Y.—$5.00 for bottle if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

FIRED FAREWELL SALUTE.

Negro Excursionists Got Gay Last Night But Escaped.

When the excursion from Yorkville returned last night shortly before midnight, there was the sound of war between two of the cars where a party of sports had collected and cowboy fashion, were giving a parting salute with their pistols, as the train pulled out.

The negroes were careful however to cover well their tracks, and shuffled back into the cars so quickly after the firing that it was impossible to locate the guilty parties.

The noise of the shooting attracted attention all over the yards and there was a feeling of relief when it was discovered that the bombardment was a harmless one and no one was hurt.
