April 1, Lenoir College at Davidson. Supreme Court Reverses Decision of Lower Court on the Ground of a Technicality. S. F. Clyatt Charged With Enslaving Two Negroes.

IS DECIDED

Opinion of Justice Has Important Bearing on the Whole Country and Tallies With the Ruling of Judge Emory Speer on the Subject.

By Associated Press.

Washington, March 13 .- In the peonage case of Samuel M. Clyatt the Supreme Court of the United States today reversed the decision of the circuit court of appeals for the fifth circuit in favor of Clyatt, who was charged with "returning" to involuntary servitude two negroes named Gordon and Ridley. The opinion was handed down by Justice Brewer, and while it upheld the constitutionality of the law for punishment of peonage, it held that as the record failed to show that the negroes had never before been in custody, the charge of "returning" them could not be sustained. Clyatt, who resided in Georgia, was charged with taking men in custody while they were employed in Florida. The proceedings therefore originated in the latter State. Sections 1990 and 5526, revised statutes, were involved. The court sustained their constitutioncumulating that Paris was the Mecca of the validity of this legislation, or of its applicability to the case of any person holding another in a state of peonage, and this whether they be municipal ordinances or State laws sanctioning such holding. It operates directly on every citizen of the republic, wherever his residence may be." Calling attention to the charge in the indictment the Justice said: "It was essential to show that Gordon and Ridley had been in a condition of peonage, to which, by an act of the defendant, they were returned. We arenot at liberty to transform this indosment into one charging that the defendant had them in a state of peonage or that he arrested them with a view of placing them in such state. The testimony disclosed that the defendant with another party went to Florida and caused the arrest of Gordon and Ridley on warrants issued by a magistrate of Georgia for larceny, but there can be little doubt that these criminal proceedings were only an excuse for serving custody on Gordon and Ridley and taking them back this is true there is not a scintilla of President Roosevelt to Attend testimony to show that Gordon and the Annual Teachers' Assembly Ridley were ever therefore in a condition of peonage. We are constrained ,therefore, to order a reversal of
