CHURCHMAN'S DOUBLE LIFE.

tained Two Families.

Milwaukee, June 15 .- The Journal today prints a story, on the authority of John Keating, that Peter H. Deason, who died recently in Chicago, lived a double life in that city for twenty years, having at the same time families in Somerville, Mass., a suburb of a son-in-law of Deason.

According to Keating, Deason came West twenty years ago and married Fannie Adeline Wilcox. He was known as the agent of a knitting manufacturing company, and had an office in by Rev. James Healy in 1868.
