

CENTRAL N. C. FAIR OPEN TOMORROW INDUSTRIAL NEWS

Thirty Thousand Spent Launching Daily Industrial News. Running Expense To Be $42,000 Per Annum. Many People At Central Carolina Fair.

In Chaos Of Much Business President's Visit Is Not Forgotten. $20,000, Land Deal Consumat- eq Saturday. Holton Ready To Resume Case Today.

Special to The News. Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 9.—The Daily Industrial News made its initial appearance here yesterday morning, and at the same hour during the day at almost every postoffice in the State. No doubt since every postmaster in the State is said to be on his list of active agents.

Thirty thousand dollars is said to be the sum expended in getting ready machinery and operating the department of the paper and it is understood that the estimate of running expenses for a year is $42,000.

The city is full of people, attracted here to the Central Carolina Fair, which opens tomorrow and which promises to be on a big scale, the biggest and best in its history.

While somewhat delayed, the city is beginning to make some kind of arrangements to give the President what attention it can during his short stop here next week.

A fifty-thousand dollar land deal consummated Saturday when the Carolina Real Estate and Investment Company closed their option on one hundred acres of land in the South.

United States District Attorney Holton, whose sudden physical collapse in the midst of the trial of G. W. Samuel, revenue officer, necessitated suspension of the case in the Federal Court here yesterday, will be able to resume the case Monday.

without a day's vacation in spite of warnings to take more rest. All of fever disappeared this morning and his recovery is assured. It is said that he can hold out through the present case, which will take until Thursday at best, the other twenty cases against revenue officers and alleged colluding distillers will be continued.

NEGRO MAN DARED FLAMES. Police Have Difficulty to restrain Unknown Negro From Entering Burning House.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 9.—Officers Pate and Marshall had a lively time Thursday night to prevent an unknown negro from entering a burning house at 64 Summit avenue in the attempt to save a dress suit case from the flames.

The negro told the officers that he had a dress suit case in the house that he was forced to save, and after several unsuccessful attempts to break away from the officers, the negro dashed into the house.

DISASTROUS TRAIN WRECK. Mail Train Left Rails, Killing 27 and Injuring 35.

Rostoff-en-Don, Russia, Oct. 9.—A mail train bound for Vladikavkaz left the rails and was wrecked. Twenty-seven persons were killed and thirty-five injured.

SANITARY CONVENTION MEETS. President of Convention, Secretary Root, Assistant Secretary and Treasurer Deliver Addresses.

Washington, Oct. 9.—The second general International Sanitary Convention opened today. Surgeon General Wyman, president; Secretary of State Root and Assistant Secretary and Treasurer delivered addresses of welcome.

FEVER SITUATION. Condition Still Continues to Improve. No Deaths Today.

New Orleans, Oct. 9.—Now cases since 6 p. m. Sunday are 7; making a total up to date of 3202. Deaths to-day, none; total, 410.

HUGHES DECLINES OFFER. Turns Down Nomination For Mayor of New York.

New York, Oct. 9.—Charles E. Hughes, counsel for the insurance investigating committee, to-day declined the Republican nomination for mayor of New York.

COTTON BULLETIN ISSUED BY BUREAU Shows the Production and Distribution From Sept. 1 '04 to Sept. 1 '05 to Be 14,455,994 Bales.

61 Per Cent Was Exported, Domestic Consumption 30. Washington, Oct. 9.—The Census Bureau has issued a bulletin showing the production and distribution of the cotton of the United States available between September 1, 1904, and September 1, 1905.

VICTORY FOR GOULD INTERESTS. Judge Taylor, of Circuit Court, Denied Application of President of Wabash Railroad.

St. Louis, Oct. 9.—Judge Daniel G. Taylor, of the Circuit Court, denied the application of Joseph Ramsey, Jr., the deposed president of the Wabash Railroad, for injunction to restrain the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain roads or their trustees from voting Wabash stock held by or for those roads in the annual Wabash election to be held in Toledo to-morrow.

PREPARING FOR THE PRESIDENT'S VISIT

Mayor McNinch Asks South Carolina Governor and Staff to be Present. Entertainment at Charlotte is Planned for a Three Hours Stay.

Mayor S. S. McNinch is still preparing for the reception to be given President Roosevelt on his approaching visit to Charlotte, and if the elements are favorable the reception will prove one of the greatest welcomes ever extended a Chief Executive in Charlotte.

According to the official schedule, the President's train will arrive in Charlotte shortly after 7 o'clock and from here he is scheduled to go to Atlanta, there not being another stop between here and that city.

Another interesting rumor is to the effect that Eccles and Bryan, now managers of the Buford, will return to the Buford Hotel Company insists on a five-year lease of the house.

Mr. C. E. Hooper, who it is said will take over the Buford the first of January, was seen this morning by a News reporter. He admitted that plans were on foot concerning the transfer of the lease of the Buford to him.

It is understood that the reason Eccles and Bryan are to retire from the Buford management is because the Buford Hotel Company insists on a five-year lease of the house.

GREENSBORO NOTES. Perilous Pranks of Boys—Doings in Federal Court.

A couple of bad boys in High Point were recently punished in court here for pranking with swish lights on the railroad track at High Point, where hundreds of trains are switched each night.

Everybody is talking about the fair and it seems surprising to note the interest that is being manifested by the people from near-by towns.

Do not Think Strike of Mine Workers of America is Probable. Pittsburgh, Oct. 9.—John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers of America, has arrived.

PRESIDENT MITCHELL SPEAKS. Does Not Think Strike of Mine Workers of America is Probable.

Supreme Court Convenes. First Term of U. S. Court Meets—Adjourn to Call on President.

Washington, Oct. 9.—The Supreme Court of the United States convened to-day for the term of 1905 and 1906. The court transacted no business, adjourning until to-morrow in order to call on the President in a body.

SEVERAL CHANGES REPORTED IN THE CHARLOTTE HOTELS

Rumor Has it that Mr. C. E. Hooper has Secured a Five-Year Lease on the Buford and That Eccles & Bryan Will Return to The Central.

The traveling public will be very much interested in several hotel deals that are now said to be on tapis.

It is generally understood that Eccles & Bryan will retire from Active Business. Denny Cafe Co., to Take the Central Annex.

Another interesting rumor is to the effect that Eccles and Bryan, now managers of the Buford, will return to the Buford Hotel Company insists on a five-year lease of the house.

It is understood that the reason Eccles and Bryan are to retire from the Buford management is because the Buford Hotel Company insists on a five-year lease of the house.

Mr. C. E. Hooper, who it is said will take over the Buford the first of January, was seen this morning by a News reporter.

It is understood that the reason Eccles and Bryan are to retire from the Buford management is because the Buford Hotel Company insists on a five-year lease of the house.

ROCKEFELLER'S TEXT. Psalm, xxii, is Trust Head's Favorite. He Tells Who'shippers.

Cleveland, Oct. 9.—John D. Rockefeller's favorite verses of scripture are those of Psalm xxii. He quoted portions of them at prayer service at the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church.

A SAFE ROBBERED. F. H. White & Co. Lose $46 by a Midnight Thief.

Sometime Saturday night some one entered the safe of T. H. White & Co. East Trade street and took therefrom about $46 in cash.

CONDITION OF GRAIN MARKET. Wheat Continues to Gain Strength. Corn Holds Well All Day.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The wheat market has continued to gain in strength. For December the highest point was 85¢. The close was strong with December up 3/4 @ 85 1/2¢.

ROCKEFELLER'S TEXT. Psalm, xxii, is Trust Head's Favorite. He Tells Who'shippers.

Cleveland, Oct. 9.—John D. Rockefeller's favorite verses of scripture are those of Psalm xxii. He quoted portions of them at prayer service at the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church.

A SAFE ROBBERED. F. H. White & Co. Lose $46 by a Midnight Thief.

Sometime Saturday night some one entered the safe of T. H. White & Co. East Trade street and took therefrom about $46 in cash.

CONDITION OF GRAIN MARKET. Wheat Continues to Gain Strength. Corn Holds Well All Day.

UNUSUAL DAMAGE SUIT IS ENTERED

Suit Brought Southern For $10,000 Because Pender Was Not Moved From Train Before He Died. Body Of Mrs Jossey To Be Exhumed.

A mild sensation has resulted from the developments of the death of Mrs. Pender, which occurred near Salisbury one week ago. It is now believed that the deceased was poisoned and that death resulted therefrom.

It is understood that the reason Eccles and Bryan are to retire from the Buford management is because the Buford Hotel Company insists on a five-year lease of the house.

Mr. C. E. Hooper, who it is said will take over the Buford the first of January, was seen this morning by a News reporter.

It is understood that the reason Eccles and Bryan are to retire from the Buford management is because the Buford Hotel Company insists on a five-year lease of the house.

ROCKEFELLER'S TEXT. Psalm, xxii, is Trust Head's Favorite. He Tells Who'shippers.

Cleveland, Oct. 9.—John D. Rockefeller's favorite verses of scripture are those of Psalm xxii. He quoted portions of them at prayer service at the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church.

A SAFE ROBBERED. F. H. White & Co. Lose $46 by a Midnight Thief.

Sometime Saturday night some one entered the safe of T. H. White & Co. East Trade street and took therefrom about $46 in cash.

CONDITION OF GRAIN MARKET. Wheat Continues to Gain Strength. Corn Holds Well All Day.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The wheat market has continued to gain in strength. For December the highest point was 85¢. The close was strong with December up 3/4 @ 85 1/2¢.

ROCKEFELLER'S TEXT. Psalm, xxii, is Trust Head's Favorite. He Tells Who'shippers.

Cleveland, Oct. 9.—John D. Rockefeller's favorite verses of scripture are those of Psalm xxii. He quoted portions of them at prayer service at the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church.

A SAFE ROBBERED. F. H. White & Co. Lose $46 by a Midnight Thief.

Sometime Saturday night some one entered the safe of T. H. White & Co. East Trade street and took therefrom about $46 in cash.

CONDITION OF GRAIN MARKET. Wheat Continues to Gain Strength. Corn Holds Well All Day.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The wheat market has continued to gain in strength. For December the highest point was 85¢. The close was strong with December up 3/4 @ 85 1/2¢.

ROCKEFELLER'S TEXT. Psalm, xxii, is Trust Head's Favorite. He Tells Who'shippers.

Cleveland, Oct. 9.—John D. Rockefeller's favorite verses of scripture are those of Psalm xxii. He quoted portions of them at prayer service at the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church.

SHELBY ITEMS. News Notes of Interest From That Thriving Town.

Special to The News. Shelby, N. C., Oct. 9.—Dr. J. F. Beam, of Waco, has purchased the D. M. Baker house in Shelby, now occupied by Mr. Henry E. Kendall.

Mr. W. P. King purchased a corner lot from Dr. R. C. Ellis, the consideration being $900. Mr. J. Webb purchased 75 acres of land from S. H. Hamrick in No. 2 township for $2,000.

Mr. W. T. Hartness purchased 100 acres of land in No. 2 township for $2,000. And Messrs. J. Y. Hamrick, F. D. and Fitzhugh Hamrick bought the Emily Lee place in the same township for $2,900.

Mr. Leander Jones, while assisting in unloading cotton from a wagon at the Lilly Mill Thursday, was quite seriously injured by a bale of cotton falling on him, and splintering his hip bone.

Cards are out announcing the marriage on Wednesday, Nov. 1, of Miss Alice May Poston to Mr. Foster Yates Jones, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Graham Poston, on R. F. D. No. 5.

Shelby is to have another rural free delivery route going through the Lilly Mill section and around by Atterson Springs, and Mr. O. L. McFarland has been appointed carrier, with Mr. J. H. Carroll as substitute.

Mr. R. W. Gardner of Beam's Mill, a gallant Confederate soldier, has his parole given him at the surrender at Appomattox Court house on April 10 1865. Mr. Gardner was a member of Co. F, 56th Regiment of N. C. Troops, and the parole was signed by Captain J. F. Neely, the commanding officer of the Confederate forces there.

Miss Helen Hunter, a charming young lady of Charlotte, who has been the fascinating guest of her sister, Mrs. P. H. Hennessy, for several days, left yesterday for Lincolnton to visit her sister, Mrs. Harry Reid.

COTTON REPORT TO BE ISSUED. Secretary Wilson Announces That November Report Will Be Issued.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Secretary Wilson announces that a November cotton report would be issued by the department of agriculture, probably early in the month, but the exact date is not decided.

Rev. T. J. Allison will preach in the Graded School building at Belmont tomorrow at 11 a. m. All who come will be cordially welcomed.

GAYNOR AND GREENE IN JAIL AT LAST

Arrive at Savannah at 6 a. m. Wives Meet Them at Depot. U. S. Marshal, White Met Them at Montreal and Conducted Them to Jail.

By Associated Press. Savannah, Oct. 9.—F. Gaynor and B. D. Greene who fought their extradition to the United States from Canada for so many years arrived here at 6 o'clock this morning. Their wives who had preceded them to Savannah met them at the Depot.

WAR ON KANSAS JOINTS. Attorney For Governor Says Saloons Will Be Closed.

Kansas City, Oct. 9.—J. K. Coddling, attorney for the Kansas State Temperance Union, who is assisting Governor Hoch and Attorney General Coleman against the joints in Kansas City, Kan., and who came to the city to-day said:

ROOSEVELT, JR., LAID OUT. Cambridge Mass., Oct. 9.—The first freshman to be laid out on Soldier's field this year was Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. The accident happened yesterday. Two freshmen elevens were practicing. Young Roosevelt was playing end on one of them.

GIRL UMPIRES BALL GAME. Hudson, S. D., Oct. 9.—Amanda Clement, of this city, is the only girl umpire in the northwest, and it is probably true that she is the only woman who ever held the indicator in professional baseball.

GLENN TALKS WITH PRES. REGARDING HIS TOUR OF N. C.

The Governor Discusses With President Details Of His Approaching Trip Through N. C. Talk Of President's Speech For Raleigh, Etc.

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 9.—Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, discussed with the President the details regarding his approaching trip through North Carolina. They talked over the speech which the President is to deliver at Raleigh, which will be one of the important utterances of the journey through the South, and concluded the definite arrangements for the reception of the President at the various stops he will make in the State.

Governor Glenn will accompany the President during his entire stay in North Carolina.

They conclude definite arrangements for President's Reception Throughout State. The Governor Will Accompany Roosevelt Through State.

By Associated Press. Washington, Oct. 9.—Governor Glenn, of North Carolina, discussed with the President the details regarding his approaching trip through North Carolina. They talked over the speech which the President is to deliver at Raleigh, which will be one of the important utterances of the journey through the South, and concluded the definite arrangements for the reception of the President at the various stops he will make in the State.

Special to The News. Greensboro, Oct. 9. Holton has not recovered sufficiently to prosecute the Samuel case, so it will be held open until Tuesday, awaiting an answer to the application for an assistant counsel from the Attorney General. The District Attorney is present, but the physician forbids him to work.

FOR HIGHWAY ROBBERY. Three Negroes Bound Over Under This Charge.

William Stewart, Walter Miller, a 15-year old boy and another negro, were bound over to the Superior Court this morning, charged with highway robbery. Abernathy and Stewart were required to give a $300 bond each.

THE REPORT UNTRUE. The Killing of Eight Bakers at Moscow Denied.

By Associated Press. St. Petersburg, Oct. 9.—The report that 8 bakers were killed at Moscow yesterday turns out to be incorrect. Main street and the squares of Moscow are occupied by the police as well as by two regiments of grenadiers, a squadron of dragoons and eight squadrons of Cossacks.

WAR ON KANSAS JOINTS. Attorney For Governor Says Saloons Will Be Closed.

Kansas City, Oct. 9.—J. K. Coddling, attorney for the Kansas State Temperance Union, who is assisting Governor Hoch and Attorney General Coleman against the joints in Kansas City, Kan., and who came to the city to-day said:

ROOSEVELT, JR., LAID OUT. Cambridge Mass., Oct. 9.—The first freshman to be laid out on Soldier's field this year was Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. The accident happened yesterday. Two freshmen elevens were practicing. Young Roosevelt was playing end on one of them.

GIRL UMPIRES BALL GAME. Hudson, S. D., Oct. 9.—Amanda Clement, of this city, is the only girl umpire in the northwest, and it is probably true that she is the only woman who ever held the indicator in professional baseball.

This young woman has attracted much attention in Western baseball circles this year. She is just seventeen years old, is an ardent lover of outdoor sport, and is good looking, strong and healthy, and at Yankton, where she is a student, she is the captain of the champion basketball team of Yankton College. At tennis she is admitted to be the champion woman player of South Dakota.