

MORE PARTICULARS ABOUT MASSACRE OF MISSIONARIES

Bishop Marel Receives Description of Fearful Massacre of American Missionaries at Lienchow, China. Were Infuriated Over Trifle.

Frenzied Mob Burn Hospital, Girls School and Residences of Missionaries. Party Took Refuge in Cave and all But Two Were Massacred.

Hong Kong, Nov. 3.—Bishop Marel, of the Catholic church received a letter confirming the news of the massacre of the American missionaries at Lienchow and giving the following particulars:

Dr. Machle requested the removal of the street theatre near the hospital on account of the noise. This request incensed the Chinese, who, becoming violent, attacked the hospital. The mob then paraded the streets, exhibiting a skeleton used in the instruction of a medical class and alleging it was an example of the foreigners inhumanity to the Chinese people.

Becoming frenzied the crowd burned the hospital, girls' schools, and the residences of the missionaries.

Dr. Macle, Mrs. Machle, their ten year old daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Peale, Dr. Eleanor Chestnut, and Miss Patterson took refuge in a cave. The mob pursued them and killed all except Dr. Macle and Miss Patterson, who escaped to the Yamen. Dr. Machle was badly wounded.

The gunboat Callao and two Chinese gunboats with members of the American Board of Missions are proceeding to the scene of the massacre. A national holiday in celebration of the anniversary of the Emperor's accession to the throne was marked by a raising of the general strike in St. Petersburg while the railroad strike has not yet been declared off, many railroad men are returning to that work and the trains are being gotten through. The populace is calmer.

A deplorable rioting in the province is still in progress, especially in the South. Most horrible stories of massacre and pillage by mobs and attacks upon Jews continue to pour in. News from Odessa is meagre but the London report that 5000 were killed or wounded is undoubtedly greatly exaggerated. The situation at Kiev is also grave. No truth in the rumor that the Empress has fled. The amnesty ukase has been signed.

Emperor Will Protest. Washington, Nov. 3.—Minister Rockhill cables the State Department that the Chinese Emperor has ordered the infliction of exemplary punishment upon the guilty officials and perpetrators of the attack upon the American Presbyterian mission at Lienchow and directing compensation to be made and protection of all missions.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING May Prove Fatay. Occurred at the Union Station. Special to The News. Durham, N. C., Nov. 3.—Today at 11:25 there was an accidental shooting at the Union Station in this place, which may cause the death of W. J. Wilson who was assistant ticket agent.

Reported Dying. Durham, N. C., Nov. 3.—W. J. Wilson is reported to be dying at 12 o'clock. Later facts develop that the pistol belonged to Wilson instead of Christman's.

CORONER'S AUTOPSY. Says Train Did Not Kill Mrs. Todd. Other Cause. By Associated Press. New York, Nov. 3.—Coroner Scholmer, following the autopsy on the body of Mrs. Margaret Todd, the rich woman found dead on the Reading Railroad tracks near Philadelphia a week ago, said the woman could not possibly have been struck by a train. He said she could easily have been killed by some heavy weight falling on her while she was inert, or by the pressure of a knee. Her clothing were not disarranged in the slightest. Had the train struck her, the Coroner said, her clothing would have been disarranged and torn.

Rapid Improvement. New Orleans, Nov. 3.—The fever situation continues rapidly improving, the cases under treatment being reduced to 17.

HACK DRIVERS IN COURT.

Trouble at the Southern's Passenger Station Yesterday.

In the Recorder's court this morning Mark Grier, Harrison Williams and Tom Crawford, all hack drivers, and John Boyd a baggagemaster, were charged with interfering with traffic at the Southern's passenger station.

It was in evidence that a "lady" a colored woman from Fort Mill—came to Charlotte yesterday on the morning train and the hackmen made a rush for her. All were eager to take her money. But one, Mark Grier was the cousin of the "lady." He was the fortunate man.

After the woman had left, a row started, in which a boy named Napoleon was the central figure. John Boyd claimed that Napoleon was his kinsman and as George McAfee had slightly kicked him. Boyd wanted to create a disturbance. He managed to talk exceedingly and cursed a few times. McAfee did not seem to want to mix with Boyd, so there was no real fight. The whole affair was aired in court this morning and Boyd was fined $5 and Mark Grier, Harrison Williams and Tom Crawford were each taxed with the costs which amounted to $2.75.

Sanford Smith and Foster White, both colored, were before the court charged with engaging in an affray several days ago. Each was required to pay a fine of $5 and the costs.

Zeb Kendrick, colored, was before the court charged with being drunk and disorderly. The case was continued.

LOSS IS $150,000. Paducah Coopage Company Destroyed by Fire. By Associated Press. Paduch, Ky., Nov. 3.—The heading and dry kirk of a department of the Paducah Coopage Company was burned today. The loss is $150,000 and but little insurance.

Paducah Coopage Company Destroyed by Fire. Boston Police Officials Bring Witnesses Who Identify Crawford and Howard. They Were Arrested. Case Seems Complete. Crawford Admits Taking Part of Girls Body.

New York, Nov. 3.—The Boston police officials arrived this morning with witnesses who identified Crawford and Howard, arrested last night in connection with the dress suit murder, and the case now seems complete. The prisoners were remanded until Monday. In the meantime warrants for the arrest of Howard and Crawford on the charge of committing an abortion were issued in Boston.

Police Inspector O'Brien said Crawford admits of having purchased the dress suit cases and to having taken portions of the girl's body to the river, but he denies having had any hand in the death of the girl.

Chief Watts said both Howard and Crawford had thrown up their hands.

FUNERAL OF MISS MAXWELL. Took Place From the Home This Afternoon at 4 O'clock. The funeral of little Jean Maxwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Maxwell, who died yesterday afternoon in Salisbury, was held from the home on North Tryon street this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Harris Mallinkrodt conducted the service which was solemn and impressive. A quartette choir from St. Peter's Episcopal church rendered several selections.

After the services at the home, the little body was borne to Elmwood, where the last sad rites were performed.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. W. R. Tallafiero, John M. Scott, D. P. Hutchison, S. J. Torrance, J. P. Caldwell and Dr. T. H. Wright.

Several weeks ago she was stricken with appendicitis. She was taken to Salisbury and was operated on at the Stokes-Whitehead Sanitarium. Her condition, for a time, showed some improvement. Later, complications set in and the child's life has been hanging by a slender thread for several days.

LAST ONE OF GRAND DUKE QUINTETTE IS NOW REMOVED

Alexander Michalovitch, Brother-in-Law and Advisor to Emperor, Relieved of Post. Witte has Trouble in Forming Cabinet. Liberal Support Lacking.

Regulations Before Issued to Newspapers Withdrawn. Appeal to People. Railroad Men To Continue Strike. Demonstrations Promised for Sunday.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 3.—All the regulations heretofore issued to the newspapers by circular for their governance have been withdrawn and the chief of the press administration is prohibited from further issuing such regulations.

Another appeal to the people in the shape of an official note was published this morning. Railroad men have resolved to continue to strike, which entails a continuance of high prices of provisions.

A great demonstration is promised for Sunday when the bodies of the victims of the conflicts of Tuesday are to be interred.

The amnesty manifesto did not appear this morning and the radicals are impatiently demanding the immediate release of all political prisoners.

Count Witte is having trouble in forming a cabinet on account of the lack of liberal support.

Grand Duke Alexander Michalovitch, a brother-in-law of Emperor Nicholas, has been relieved of the post of the head of the department of Mercantile Marine. This department is to be merged with the new Ministry of Commerce.

He is the last of the influential quintette of Grand Dukes who have been the advisors of the Emperor. Grand Duke Alexis and Michael Nicholavitch having been relieved as respectively Grand Admiral and President of the Council of the Empire, and Grand Duke Vladimir having been relieved as Commander-in-Chief of the military district of St. Petersburg.

Grand Duke Sergius was assassinated at Moscow February 17th. 15 Stores Burned. Romny, Russia, Nov. 3.—During the pillage of the Jewish stores, which lasted until yesterday morning, 15 stores were burned and many more sacked. The looting began when the crowd killed a rich merchant for refusing to take off his hat to the red flag. Many were killed.

Ten Students Killed. Moscow, Nov. 3.—The procession of students reuniting with some comrades who had been released from the prison was set upon by a mob of workmen. Ten students were killed.

SULTAN MUST ACCEPT PLAN. Joint Naval Demonstration Probable Unless Sultan Comes to Terms. By Associated Press. Paris, Nov. 3.—Exchanges of communication going on between the powers have reached the stage where a Turkish naval demonstration against the Sultan promptly accepts the plan of the powers for financial reforms in Macedonia.

GRAHAM APPOINTED. Is Commissioner of Interior of Porto Rico. By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 3.—Lawrence H. Graham, of New York, was appointed Commissioner of the Interior of Porto Rico.

PRIDE WAS CAUSE OF HIS SUICIDE. Oliver Webb Died This A. M. From Affects of Laudanum. Had Trouble With Employee And Felt Humiliated at Being Brought in Court.

Special to The News. Rutherfordton, N. C., Nov. 3.—Two months ago Oliver Webb, an overseer in the Florence Mills, six miles from here, struck Samuel Lewis, one of his employees, over the head with a large piece of iron, claiming that Lewis had started for him with an open knife. Both men were tried before a magistrate and bound to court. The humiliation was too great and immediately after the trial Webb went to a drug store, secured two bottles of laudanum, drank one and was drinking the other when friends interfered. Three physicians worked with him until the following morning, when he was revived.

FUNERAL OF REV. J. F. BUTT.

Will Take Place at the Tryon Street Methodist Church Tomorrow Morning.

The funeral of Rev. John F. Butt will take place at Tryon Street Methodist Church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. The services will be conducted by Rev. T. F. Marr, assisted by Rev. Plato T. Durham, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church, Rev. C. M. Short, pastor of the Dilworth Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member and Presiding Elder Thompson, of the Charlotte district. The pallbearers will be the following named gentlemen: Messrs. M. F. Kirby, J. G. Freeland, Walter Brem, W. C. Forbis, James Shuman and J. D. Foard. The interment will be at Elmwood cemetery.

Mr. Arthur L. Butt, who was in Washington when the sudden summons of his father came, arrived this morning. Other members of the family are expected tonight.

COTTAGE BURNED. Fire Was Well Under Way When Firemen Reached the Scene. A small cottage on Caldwell between Eighth and Ninth streets was considerably damaged by fire this morning.

The alarm was not turned in promptly and when the fire companies reached the scene the blaze covered the entire roof. The firemen soon had it under control, saving the main body of the building. There is a rumor that the fire was started by a negro boy, and in view of this an investigation is being made.

The house was occupied by negro tenants, and owned by Mr. Thos. W. Hawkins.

PAPERS SERVED ON SEVEN COUNCILS. Property of the Royal Arcanum Attached in Seven Cities of North Carolina. Action Taken Because of Suits of Capt. Brenizer and Judge Armistead Burwell.

Mr. Chase Brenizer spent yesterday in Salisbury where he went to serve attachment papers on the officers of the Salisbury Council, Royal Arcanum.

This action was taken in connection with the suits that have been brought against the order by Capt. A. G. Brenizer and Judge Armistead Burwell. Capt. Brenizer has brought suit to recover $1,400, which represents the amount of dues he has paid into the order, with interest.

Judge Burwell's suit is for $1,300, which amount represents the money paid in to the order and the interest.

So far, papers of attachment have been issued against seven councils in North Carolina. These are Salisbury, Charlotte, Wilmington, Durham, Raleigh, Asheville and Greensboro.

The local council was served with a notice of attachment several days ago. In fact the papers were issued about the same time the summons in the suits were filed in the office of the clerk of the Superior Court.

These attachment papers include all money on hand and other property that the different councils may own.

WELL KNOWN MILLIONAIRE. Mr. Huyler of Candy Fame Was a Charlotte Visitor This Week. Mr. John S. Huyler, the millionaire candy manufacturer of New York, spent one day this week in Charlotte.

Mr. Huyler came to Charlotte to see Dr. J. R. Howerton concerning an option on a large tract of land at Montreat. He owns about 4,000 acres in and around the town. Mr. Howerton is very anxious to purchase the property for the purpose of making Montreat the Chautauqua of North Carolina.

The News learns that a conditional option is now held by Dr. Howerton and others on the Huyler property. It was in regard to this transaction that Mr. Huyler came to Charlotte.

FIRING CONTINUES AT ODESSA. AWFUL IS FATE OF JEWS

Terrible Massacre of Jews. Hundreds Killed in Riot To-day. Hotels Full of Refugees. Women Fight Over Spoils. Bombs Thrown in Parts of City.

Shooting Resumed To-day. Red Cross Busy Attending Wounded. Hotels Full of Jewish Refugees. Their Action After Manifesto was Cause.

Odessa, Nov. 3.—After a fairly quiet night, the shooting was again commenced this morning. The Red Cross is busy attending to the wounded. Up to the present time no Christian shops or houses have been touched. The principal hotels are full of the better class of Jews seeking refuge from the disorders.

October 31, after the Emperors manifesto granting a constitution to Russia had been published, the Jews made the Russians furious with a rage by making a prominent display of red flags, tramping on the portrait of the Emperor and tearing down the emblem of the crown.

The massacre of the Jews commenced and lasted during the night of November 1. All the Jews found in the streets were severely beaten and many were killed in their shops, which were ruthlessly pillaged. In the poorer Jews quarters on the outskirts of the town, the whole streets were destroyed, soldiers apparently looking on.

Crowds of workmen, rowdies, women and children laden with all kinds of loot, walked openly through the streets quarrelling over the spoils. Bombs were thrown in various parts of the town. The pillaging continued yesterday and there was a heavy firing all over the town. Nobody was safe in the streets, people carrying arms who were caught by the troops were shot at sight.

The shutters of all the houses were ordered closed and the people detected shooting from windows were promptly shot. The soldiers use machine guns to clear away the crowd from the vicinity of the port.

The firing is still going on. Trade is at a complete standstill, provisions still only obtainable at greatly enhanced prices. It is impossible to make a correct estimate of the number of the killed and wounded. Similar serious reports reach Odessa from most of the other towns in Southern Russia.

A Most Horrible Massacre. A despatch from Kishineff says "A most horrible massacre occurred here. Hundreds have been killed. All the hospitals, pharmacies and hotels are full of wounded and mutilated persons."

A telegram from Nicoloff says "The whole town is in the hands of bandits who are devastating Jewish houses and shops and beating Jews to death without the slightest hindrance." The authorities have similar news from other Southern cities.

Disorder Unchecked. London, Nov. 3.—A dispatch from Odessa, says: "Military patrols are unable to check the disorders. Collisions occurred this afternoon between the troops and crowds. Seventeen were killed or wounded." A Staff officer was killed in the street this afternoon by a bullet fired from a window. Three hundred infantrymen joined with the mobs in looting but were arrested.

Prince Louis Gets a Royal Welcome. Washington Excels Herself in Entertainment. Reception and Dance to be Smartest Social Event in Washington for Long Time. Dinner at White House.

By Associated Press. Washington, Nov. 3.—A reception by the President at the White House; dinner at the British Embassy; a reception and dance at the British Embassy were the features of the program for Prince Louis of Battenberg. He was greeted by the British Ambassador and a small delegation of State and Navy officials. Prince Louis arrived from Annapolis at 11 o'clock. He was driven to the British Embassy for luncheon, and at three this afternoon was received formally and welcomed by a friendly letter of greeting from King Edward.

While the Prince was entertained at luncheon by Ambassador Durand, the captains of his ships were entertained at luncheon by the Captains of the American squadron. While the dinner at the Embassy will be a brilliant affair, the reception and dance which will follow will be the smartest function seen in Washington in some time. Several hundred invitations have been issued.

THE GAME TOMORROW.

It Will Be Called at 3:30 O'clock.—A Good Crowd Will Attend.

The big football game that is to be pulled off at Latta Park tomorrow afternoon, will draw a large crowd. The contending elevens will be Davidson College and South Carolina. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock. The Columbia State of this morning has the following that will be read with interest:

"Carolina's football team leaves this afternoon for Charlotte, where the game with Davidson will be played tomorrow afternoon. This game will be watched with more interest than any other on the schedule of the garnet and black for this season. Davidson has always been Carolina's bitterest rival—that is, since the days of the games with Clemson are dead. Such close games have been played with Davidson that the rivalry is thus increased many times.

The team which leaves this afternoon is not the same which appeared in the game with A. & M. during fair week. The back fields is changed altogether. John Wilds and Eugene Oliver having given it twice as much strength as it had before their advent. Heyward will alternate at quarterback with Holmes. Heyward has done good work in this position and drives the team.

Without rest Ben Wyman has been out lately in football clothes and may be used in the line. He is aggressive and strong and knows that game like a veteran.

"Davidson looks strong this year if one may judge by her games with Virginia and North Carolina. Besides holding both these high grade teams to ridiculously small scores, she defeated Auburn by a decisive score in the latter's own stronghold."

Early Morning Fire. The city fire departments were called out this morning at 1 o'clock to extinguish a small blaze in a box car at the Seaboard Air Line depot. The damage was slight.

MR. J. J. WILLIAMS TO RETURN TO CITY. Has Decided Not to Locate in Augusta. His Decision Will Put a Stop to the Candidacy of Several For a Position on the Commission.

Mr. John J. Williams, who recently left Charlotte to accept a position in Augusta, Ga., is to return to the city, having secured a position here.

He will arrive in Charlotte next week and will at once enter upon his new duties.

Since the published statement that Mr. Williams had left Charlotte there has been much speculation as to who would succeed him on the Police, Fire and Health Commission. Mr. Williams holds the position of secretary of the board and is on several of the most important committees of the commission.

Within the past few days several names have been mentioned in connection with the position held by Mr. Williams. One or more well known business men have signified their willingness to submit their candidacy before the board of aldermen, should the resignation of Mr. Williams be forthcoming.

Now that it is a settled fact that Mr. Williams is to return to Charlotte, those who have been interesting themselves as to his successor will have to take another "tack."

Just what position Mr. Williams has secured is not known. In a letter to a friend, received this morning, he states that he is not satisfied with his work in Augusta, and he has decided to return to Charlotte.

BARBAROUS HAZING. Fiendish Method of Hazing—Boy Killed. Mount Vernon, Ohio, Nov. 3.—According to the testimony at the inquest into the death of Stuart Pierson, the Kenyon college student who was killed by an engine at Gambier Saturday night. It was the custom at the college to tie the candidates to the tracks in initiation ceremonies, and Paul Barber, one of today's witnesses testified he lay bound and blindfolded upon the track waiting for his initiators not 200 yards from the spot where Pierson's life was crushed out an hour later.

LOCOMOTIVE EXPLODES. Two Are Killed and Another Fatally Injured. Houston, Texas, Nov. 3.—A locomotive on the Houston and Texas Central Railroad exploded this morning near Ennis, killing two persons and fatally injuring a third.

VERDICT FOR $10,000 RETURNED. S. A. L. TO ENTER APPEAL

Case of Mary Stewart Administration for S. T. Stewart vs. S. A. L. Verdict for $10,000. List of Governor's Appointments During Month of November.

Special to The News. Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 3.—The Citizens' Light and Power Co., of Lenoir, was chartered at $25,000, with capital establish. The plant in that town has H. F. Newland and W. P. Ivey among the incorporators. Another charter was granted to the Beaufort Land and Improvement Co., the incorporators being Fred L. Merritt and C. L. Abernethy. The capital is 125,000 authorized. The Oxford Realty Co. was chartered at a capital of $50,000, the principal incorporator being W. A. Hunt.

At 11 o'clock last night the jury in the case of Mary Stewart, administratrix of S. T. Stewart vs. The Seaboard Air Line, returned a verdict for $10,000 damages for the killing of Engineer S. T. Stewart in a collision near Southern Pines two years ago. This was the second trial, the first having resulted in a non-suit by the trial judge.

The plaintiff appealed and secured a new trial on the ground that the case should have gone to the jury to pass on the ground of contributory negligence on the part of the Seaboard. The contention of the railroad is that Stewart disregarded orders and ran his engine past the meeting place for the train ahead of him. On the other hand the plaintiff contended that even if this was the case there was contributory negligence in that the road was not using the block system and should have had the conductor and flagman with the engineer who was running an engine light from Raleigh to Hamlet. The Seaboard will appeal from this verdict.

The Governor will be in the executive office here now until November 8, when he will go to Asheville to deliver the address for the unveiling of the monument to the Sixtieth North Carolina troops. From Asheville he will go to Chattanooga to attend the Southern convention on immigration and quarantine on the 9th. He will deliver an address before the convention on that date, his subject being "The South—Its Past, Present and Hopes for Future." On November 28 His Excellency will go to Washington, D. C., to attend the meeting of the committee on the change of the date of the inauguration of Presidents from March 4 to some date when milder weather conditions will prevail. Governor Glenn is heartily in favor of a change of the date.

The negro State fair is in progress. The attendance is not as large as last year, and the exhibits are not so extensive. However, they are very creditable. Several negro farmers have creditable exhibits of farm products. Three schools have exhibits—the State Negro School for the Deaf and Dumb, the Crosby Graded School and the Negro Business College here. Its absence of exhibits from the Colored A. & M. at Greensboro and the Shaw University at Raleigh, both of which have given elaborate exhibits in past years, is noticeable. There are very few negroes here from other parts of the State to attend the fair, and gate receipts are necessarily light.

JUMPED FROM THIRD STORY. San Francisco, Nov. 3.—Louis Levy, said to have been a prominent architect of New York city, jumped from the third story window of a house on McAllister street. He died soon after.

A Burning Freight Car. South-bound trains on the Southern Railway were delayed about three hours today on account of the burning of a freight car on the main line, just north of Lynchburg. Mr. R. L. Vernon was a passenger on No. 39, which is due here at 7 o'clock. It did not arrive until about 10 o'clock.
