13 WEST TRADE ST.

A wedding that is of supreme interest to Charlotte people and North Carolinians generally will be that of Miss Lily Catherine Rhyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rhyne, of Mount Holly and Mr. Miles Pegrum Hoffman, of Philadelphia, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Hoffman, of Gastonia, which event takes place this evening at 6:30 o'clock at the beautiful home of the bride's parents, at Mount Holly.

The marriage of this popular young couple will be one of the most brilliant and elaborate wedding that has ushered in the Lenten season in years. The ceremony will occur at 6:30 o'clock, the Rev. W. J. Boger, pastor of the Mount Holly Lutheran church performing the beautiful double ring ceremony in which both the bride and groom will exchange rings. The wedding will be followed by a reception which will be tendered by Mrs. Rhyne and attended by hundreds of friends, the majority of whom are from Charlotte who will leave here on a special train at 5 o'clock, returning at 9 o'clock. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman will leave Mount Holly on the special with the guests en route to Florida where they will spend a week or two. They will make their home at Philadelphia, the home of the groom.

The Rhyne home has been elaborately decorated for the event, and significant of the name "Mount Holly," the decorations consist mainly of holly which profusely adorn the parlor, reception hall and music room. In the latter room, where the ceremony will take place, the walls are covered with white tulle over which holly is fixed. An improvised altar, in a large bay window in this room, is exquisitely arranged with palms and white covered pedestals, topped with holly directly in front of which the couple will exchange the vows. The dining room is done in red.

The groom, with his best man, Mr. Lew White, of Philadelphia, will lead the bridal procession, entering to the accompaniment of music rendered by Mrs. Boger. The rest of the bridal party will enter in the following order: The groomsmen, Mr. John M. Craig with Mr. B. J. Hoffman, Mr. E. Webb, with Col. James Duffy, Mr. Jacob Binder, Jr., with Mr. Fred Rumm and Mr. Ashby Blythe with Mr. Henry Rhyne; Miss Helen Rhyne, maid of honor; the bride's maid, Miss Georgia Lowe; the ring bearer, little Miss Augusta Cannon and last the bride, on the arm of her father.

The bride will wear a handsome hand embroidered gown of radia silk made princess with veil and she will carry Lillies of the Valley. Her only ornament will be a holly wreath of diamonds. The maid of honor and bridesmaid will wear batiste made princess and trimmed in Valenciennes lace. They will carry bride's roses.

A pretty feature of the wedding will be the presentation of souvenirs to the attendants by the bride and groom. The bride will give a pearl ring to the maid of honor and the groom will give gold cuff buttons to the groomsmen.

The wedding presents are not only numerous but exceedingly handsome, among which is a large chest of silver containing 14 dozen pieces given by the groom's employer's; a chest of silver each given by Mr. and Mrs. Rhyne and Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman; a grand piano by the groom, and suit of furniture by the Dr. and Mrs. Hoffman. In compliment to the bridal party and attendants an informal dance will be given at the city hall tonight under the management of Mr. Richardson. The chaperones will be: Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cutter, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Steele, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Hutchison, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George W. Graham, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Julian H. Taliaferro, Mr. and Mrs. Carey W. Butt, Mr. and Mrs. Brooke Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lambeth, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Alston, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Withers, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Osmond L. Barringer, Miss Lucy Oates and Mr. W. R. Taliaferro.

The Eclectic Book Club will meet with Mrs. B. D. Heath tomorrow evening at 4 o'clock.

There will be a "Hot Supper" at the home of Mr. C. Brown, in Sharon township, Friday night. The supper is to be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss Jessie Wavra, of Columbia, who has been visiting in the city, returned to her home this morning.

Mrs. Clough Steele entertains the Thursday Afternoon Club today at her home on East Morehead street. The club members and invited guests are the following named ladies: Mesdames Frank Smith, D. K. Pope, Lockwood Jones, George Howell, Harry Shaw, Charles Alexander, J. C. Montgomery, Carey Butt, L. B. Johnston, E. V. Finlayson, H. A. Murrill, H. S. Bryan, A. S. Cheek, Gillespie Sadler, C. F. Dwell, Arnold Shaw, Eugene Reilly, Harris Mallinckrodt, Joseph Ross and Misses Mary Brockebrough, Julia Robertson, Lucy Oates and Minnie Beck.

Miss Flossie Settle has returned to the city after visiting at Greensboro and left today for Columbia to visit Miss Laura Hammond.

Mrs. D. H. McCullough who is visiting Mrs. Edwin Williamson Overman at Salisbury is expected home tomorrow.

Miss Ethel Semlin returned today to Linwood Seminary after spending several days in the city with her parents.

The Atlanta Journal says: A pretty dinner party was that which was given Friday evening at the Majestic hotel by Mrs. Hess in honor of her sister, Mrs. Weston, of Charlotte, N. C. The table was artistically decorated with azalias and pink roses. The guests included Mrs. Weston, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Meadow, Mr. and Mrs. Van Harlingen, Col. W. L. Scruggs, Mrs. G. B. Gress, Miss Elizabeth Northrop, Miss Maude Scruggs, Miss Ruby Scruggs, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hewlet, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson.

The marriage of Miss Frances Rosa Jerry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jerry, and Mr. Charles Peterson, of this city, which announcement was made in yesterday's News, will take place at the Catholic Church tonight at 8 o'clock. The marriage will be a very quiet affair, witnessed by the families of the bride and groom and a few intimate friends. Father Joseph will officiate.

ROBBERS' PLANS FAILED.

Two Attempts Made to Enter Store Houses at Mint Hill Last Night. There was a robbery planned at Mint Hill last night but the would-be thieves failed in their purpose. The store houses of Mr. W. B. Estridge and Mr. D. A. Henderson were visited by the midnight thieves but neither was entered.

At Mr. Estridge's store, the parties bored holes in the front door and tried to knock out a panel. Failing in this, they tried to prize the door open. Leaving the Estridge store, the thieves went to Mr. D. A. Henderson's place. There they tried to prize open the door but again failed. On the front porch to each of the stores were found several tools that the robbers had secured from a nearby blacksmith shop.

Mr. Estridge, who informed the News of the attempt to rob the stores, says that the thieves must have visited Mint Hill about the midnight hour.

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Postmaster Patterson of Concord Held in $1,000 Bond.

The Charlotte friends of Mr. George Patterson, of Concord, will read with mingled surprise and regret, the following which appears in the Industrial News of Greensboro under a Salisbury date line: "Postmaster Patterson, of Concord, was arrested by Deputy Marshall J. T. Millikan, of Greensboro, upon a bill of indictment found at the present term of the Federal court at Asheville. He is charged with abstracting letters from the mail. "One of his clerks, it is alleged, acted in collusion with him and the clerk's arrest will follow. "Patterson gave bond for one thousand dollars."

Free Demonstration.

A free demonstration of the famous Ferndell Coffee will be held at the store of the Miller-Van Ness Co. every day this week that all may learn of the good qualities of this delicious product that has become so popular in Charlotte. All are invited to call between the hours of 2 and 6 p. m. and sample a cup.

Two Small Cases.

In the Recorder's Court this morning John Moore was charged with an assault on his wife, Lis Moore. He was taxed with the costs. Walter Huntley and Albright Barber were charged with disorderly conduct. The charge was not sustained.

DOCTOR SAYS

Finds Grape-Nuts Food Invaluable in His Practice.

A physician first healed himself with food. Then he healed others, and tells his story in a straight forward, business-like way: "For a long time," he writes, "I was unable to assimilate comfortably any ordinary prepared breakfast foods. Nearly everything disagreed with me, bringing on heavy headaches a bad taste in the mouth, and a dullness of mind that was not only unpleasant but interfered with active mental work. Since beginning the use of Grape-Nuts Food some months ago, however, these troubles have vanished and breakfast is relished and enjoyed as it ought to be. "I find, too, that a small quantity of Grape-Nuts and cream eaten just before starting out to visit patients at night, prevents the feeling of depression that used to result from this extra exertion and loss of sleep. "My wife suffered for several months from recurring attacks of indigestion with fermentation—she would be very miserable for days at a time and almost any kind of food added to the trouble. She found by experiment that by using Grape-Nuts relief would be obtained in a very short time, even when ordinary remedies for indigestion had failed to help her. "Mrs. James S. . . . a patient of mine, suffered with sympathetic heart trouble and a stomach so deranged that it rejected all food. Her strength was rapidly failing from lack of nourishment. I recommended the use of Grape-Nuts with cream every three or four hours. The food proved at once acceptable to her stomach and her recovery to perfect health speedily followed. "I have found Grape-Nuts an excellent food for patients convalescing from exhausting fevers, as typhoid and pneumonia, and always recommend its use by such. It is admirably suited to these cases, not only because it is easily digested, but because of the great amount of nourishment it contains. Its use rapidly restores vitality and strength." N. Van Ness by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. There's a reason.

Announcement!

I want to say to my old "friends and fellow citizens" that I have on exhibition at Room No. 7, Buford Hotel, the largest and best assorted line of advertising calendars, fans, novelties and leather goods ever known. Osborn's, Murphy's and Bigelow's styles as finely finished as their's at 40 per cent less than their prices. Would be pleased to make dates to meet customers at my room.

A STATE BRANCH OF ASSOCIATION

Mr. N. T. Blackwell will be Here Thursday to Organize a North Carolina Branch of the National Ginners Association. Meeting in Court House.

Thursday, the first of March, there will be organized in the county court house a North Carolina branch of the National Ginners Association.

Mr. N. T. Blackwell, secretary and organizer of the National Ginners Association, will be here and take charge of the organization.

The Liddell Company has received the following letter from Mr. Blackwell:

"I will be in Charlotte on the first of March, to organize a North Carolina branch of the National Ginners Association. If you will kindly secure a meeting place for us we will be much obliged to you. Also please have it announced a few days ahead of time in your local papers."

The meeting will be held in the county court house Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Blackwell, who will be present on this occasion is publisher of Cotton and Cotton Oil News, which is published at Dallas, Texas.

It is presumed that a large number of the farmers of Mecklenburg will be present at the meeting Thursday.

Mint Hill's "Big Night."

Mint Hill Camp, Woodmen of the World, will have a "big night" tomorrow evening, in the camp hall at Mint Hill. Messrs E. R. Preston, W. R. Matthews and Rev. J. M. Davis, of Charlotte, will go out and make talks. About ten new members are to be initiated and after the exercises an oyster supper will be served.

Mr. J. W. Sheppard has returned from Cedarville, N. J., where he went to attend the funeral services of his mother.
