TODAY'S MARKETS

COITON

Hayward Vick & Clark's Daily Cotton Letter. (Furnished by the Cotton Exchange and Board of Trade.) New Orleans, Feb. 27.—Yesterday's cotton market was for most unambitious affairs. Neither New York nor Liverpool evidenced any particular desire to take the initiative and New Orleans had more to do with the exchange of anything else. On the whole, the news and gossip was of an encouraging character. There was a large minus correction in the Liverpool stock. Assurances were forthcoming that there would be no coal miners' strike. Comment on the promise of an increase in the wages of the English cotton mill operatives indicated a trade belief that short time would be inaugurated only in the event raw cotton supplies dwindled too fast. With prosperity ahead for the laborers of England and America the troubles of the bull speculator doubtless will play out earlier than with strikes and trade disturbances bobbing up during the end of the season months. Thus the situation would seem to have gained rather than lost hopefulness. But the weakness of futures, even in the absence of bearish aggressiveness, is not calculated to restill confidence in the ranks of the booster. The advent of some really potential price-making factor of the encouraging class is the thing now needed.

New York Sun's Cotton Summary. New York, Feb. 27.—The March notices dominated everything, or rather March notices and liquidation on the one hand, and covering on the other caused an irregular market. It is believed, however, that this bugbear has been pretty well eliminated, and the effect it is thought, will be to impart greater steadiness, if only temporarily, to the market. That has been the case in New Orleans and it is believed will be the case here, especially as the short interests have undoubtedly been considerably increased not only here, but in the South. New Orleans operators are believed to be heavily short. On the decline here there was heavy buying of March, by spot houses and there was also a good deal of scattered covering, as well as not a little outside buying for people who believe that a turn for the better is near at hand. March notices for some 40,000 bales were issued, principally by Messrs. Inman, Judson, Shearson, Weld, and Fernie. Liverpool and the continent were buying. New England and European spinners were reported to have bought the actual cotton here. But in the end the market was governed mainly by the notices.

STOCKS

New York Sun's Summary Stocks. (Furnished by Gilbert & Clay of New Orleans, La.) New York, Feb. 27.—The greater optimism in professional speculative sentiment that was evident in Wall Street during the latter part of last week was again strong in control of the movement of security prices and although the upward movement was conducted somewhat irregularly, exceptions to the general tendency being shown by several prominent stocks, and although the market was less animated than it recently has been, considerable net gains were commonly shown in the active stocks, at the close of the day. Abroad the course of values in the financial markets was directly the reverse of that witnessed here, for which the chief reasons seemed to be the continued forced liquidation of Kafir mining stocks on the London stock exchange, and renewed anxiety over the Moroccan situation. It was said by close observers of the day's business that the market was to an unusual degree of professional character, and that the largest buyers of stocks were the western speculative party who were openly, at least, the largest sellers a week ago. However, this may be, it was plainly the buying of stocks rather than the selling that was effective upon quoted values.

Cooking School. The free lectures on cooking at the city hall hall are being well attended each day and evening. Yesterday 151 ladies were present and today, despite the blustering winds, the attendance was very large. Miss Burr is a most interesting speaker and her practical demonstration of ways to prepare dozens of dainty things for the table will not fail to elevate the standard of living in Charlotte. Free souvenirs are given to all who attend.

DENIED WRIT OF ERROR. Norfolk Feb. 26.—Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals denied writ of error in the case of captain E. W. Jones, of the Virginia National Guard, convicted of the murder of Maude Cameron Robinson, formerly of Selma, N. C., and given 18 years in the penitentiary.

New York Journal of Commerce Summary Dry Goods. (Furnished by Gilbert & Clay, of New Orleans, La.) New York, Feb. 27.—Buying at first hands continued very moderately. Jobbers and converters are endeavoring to secure concessions and in a few instances have proved successful. As a rule, however, the first hands situation is marked by general firmness, for which there is undoubtedly a great deal of warrant. It is perhaps not recalled that a considerable amount of machinery, both in New England and the South, is still idle through the lack of operatives, and this idleness must undoubtedly have its effect sooner or later upon the market.

PUBLIC AROUSED. The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters, of 54 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: 'For several months I had given up to die. I had fever and ague; my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep and my stomach was so weak from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Softer after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured.' Guaranteed at 60c.

Good Boy, Georgie!

"Oh, George, dear," she whispered, when he slipped the engagement ring on her tapering finger, "how sweet of you to remember just the sort of I preferred! None of the others were ever so thoughtful." George was staggered for a moment. Then he came back with, "Not at all, dear; you overrate me. This is the one I've always used."

THE QUEEN OF ENGLAND'S NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION.

A special cable dispatch published by The New York Herald gave an interesting account of this reception. The following is an interesting extract: "Perhaps the greatest sensation was the performance of a new monstrosity Victor Talking Machine, which reproduced the wonderful singing of M. Caruso, Plancon and other great artists. It was funny to see the people coming upstairs as they entered the room, expecting to see some great singer, to find it was only a Victor Talking Machine. But what a talking machine! People stood around in rings to listen, and what is more strange, they involuntarily burst into applause at the end of every song. There was no vibration; the whole thing sounded as though a singer was actually in the room." You entertain "royally" when you own a Victor. STONE & BARRINGER CO. Office Outfitters.
