At the opening session of the association on the 29th of May, Dr. Martin D. Hardin will deliver the prayer. The address of welcome will be delivered by Mr. Thomas C. Guthrie, of the Charlotte bar. Just who will respond on the part of the association has not as yet been determined.

RESORT HOTEL BURNED.

White Stone Springs Hotel Reduced to Ashes Last Night.

Special to The News. Spartanburg, S. C., March 12.—White Stone Springs Hotel, located six miles from Spartanburg, was totally destroyed by fire early last night.

The fire was discovered between 8 and 9 o'clock, the flames originating in the attic over the ball room. The fire spread rapidly and in four hours the building was reduced to a mass of smoldering ruins.

The loss is estimated at $40,000. The building was only partially insured.

At the time of the fire there were several bell boys, maids and cooks in the building, though there were no guests. The help worked faithfully and managed to save a small portion of the furniture.

Mr. Sam Sheftall, the proprietor, was in Columbia at the time of the fire en route to Savannah. He was notified and returned this morning.

The hotel was a handsome brick structure and had accommodations for 350 guests. It was opened July 15, 1902. The springs were developed by Mr. J. T. Harris, who managed the hotel successfully for two seasons when he sold the property to Samuel Sheftall, of Savannah.

Mr. Sheftall says he will rebuild.

WILMINGTON GOSSIP.

"Adjutant" Wiggins and Wife Return From Asheville.—Old City Ordinance Put Into Effect.—A Ministerial Meeting.—Other News Items.

Special to The News. Wilmington, N. C., March 12.—"Adjutant" George M. Wiggins, whose wife was assaulted in Asheville not long since, while they had charge of the Salvation Army post in that city, by a saloon keeper named Featherstone, has resigned his commission with the Salvationists and returned to this city to live. Mr. Wiggins has accepted the position of manager of the Seaman's Home and will enter upon his new duties at once. Before Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins went to Asheville they were in charge of the local Army post and while here and at that time made friends with a great number of our citizens who are glad to see the "Adjutant" return among us.

While dwelling among the old records at the city hall recently, some one ran across an old ordinance which says that all gates in the city of Wilmington shall open inward, and the mayor has instructed the chief of police to see that this ordinance is carried out beginning with April 1st. This will no doubt meet with some opposition as there is hardly a gate in the city that does not open upon the side walk.

Some little time ago it was decided by the Ministerial Association of this city to have a big men's meeting to last ten days in the Academy of Music. The meeting was to have been held immediately after the big revival in the evangelical churches of the city and a Rev. Mr. Jones, of Boston, Mass., had been secured to conduct the services. It is now said that the ministers have about abandoned the idea of the men's meeting as Mr. Jones advises them that he cannot be present. However, it is probable that the Young Men's Christian Association may take this meeting in charge and have it anyway.

The old dwelling house adjoining the old county court house, which has adorned that locality for a number of years is being torn down and a handsome business building will be erected thereon part of which will be occupied by the Southern Electric Company.

The Clyde Line steamer Navahoe, which has been grounded off Cape Fear bar since Saturday night, the 3rd, was pulled Friday afternoon by the cutter Seminole and river tugs.

The Navahoe came up to the city Saturday evening under her own steam, and is now docked at the Clyde Line wharf at the foot of Grace street. The whole cargo of the steamer was either loaded on barges or thrown overboard prior to the time she was pulled off and the steamer will have to be re-loaded before she can proceed on her way to New York. Not much damage appears to have been done to the steamer, although some of her pipes may be clogged with sand and mud.

By Associated Press. Chicago, March 12.—Attorney General Moody, when asked regarding the prospective changes in the Cabinet replied: "I am not yet ready to leave the Cabinet; when I am I will announce it. I do not know anything about any changes in the Cabinet, and have no right to know anything."

By Associated Press. Chicago, March 12.—The "To-bacco Trust," involving the right of witnesses to refrain from testifying before the Federal grand juries in the proceeding under the anti-trust law, were decided by the Supreme Court of the United States against the witnesses.

The cases grew out of the proceedings for writs of habeas corpus instituted in the Circuit Court for the southern district of New York whose decision was affirmed.

The court held, however, that the subpoena in this case was too broad.

TILLMAN REPLIES TO THE MESSAGE OF THE PRESIDENT

Senator Tillman Addressed Senate Concerning Tillman-Gillespie Resolution Instructing Commerce Commission Regarding Railroad Discriminations.

Tillman Says Fate has Allied Him with President and that he Regrets that Amicable Relations Must be Broken. Ridicules President's Message.

By Associated Press. Washington, March 12.—Mr. Tillman addressed the Senate in reply to President Roosevelt's message concerning the Tillman-Gillespie resolution instructing the Interstate Commerce Commission to make an examination of the Railroad discriminations in the matter of hauling coal and oil.

"I depreciate the necessity of criticizing this most extraordinary document," said Tillman. "Fate has enlisted me as an ally of the President in getting an adequate railway rate bill, and I regret very much to have anything come up which would occasion any disruption of the amicable relations that now exist or appear to exist between us."

Continuing, Tillman said: "But there are some things that as a Senator, I cannot put with patiently."

He said the executive contempt, and ridicule of the resolution seemed to charge that he had been ignorant of what he was doing in offering the resolution.

"Now that is going a great way in a very little while. That is a pretty big contract the President has taken on himself to justify such a sweeping charge," he said.

Tillman contended that the Commission has the means and authority to carry on the investigation proposed. He added: "There can be no good reason for the President to scold us in the manner that is almost insulting by charging us with insincerity, pretense and ignorance."

The only reason I can see is that he must have been miserably advised. I am not a lawyer only a farmer but I have better common sense than that."

Tillman went extensively into the subject of appropriating money for the purposes of the resolution, declaring Civil bill. He closed with a protest against the President "lightly and flippantly" insulting the Senate. Said he could pardon many things on account of the great burdens on the President, and because of his impetuosity.

Replying to Tillman, Lodge said: "I have noticed those most ready in criticism are most sensitive when they do not see how the President could treat the resolution other than he did. He said he thought the resolution was of a class passed because of having caught the fancy of a moment."
