> DELINQUENTS ARE 40 PER CENT. Facts Revealed By Examination Of

Tax Collectors Books Today. Although the regular time for the payment of state and county taxes is far past, it was ascertained today by an inspection of the books in the office of Tax Collector Duckworth, that 60 per cent is a liberal estimate of the total taxes paid to date.

There are on the tax books forty names to the page, and many pages show that half or less than half are delinquent, the total number who have paid their taxes for 1905 being about 60 per cent.

In view of this fact, it is likely that that sheriff and tax collectors will have a busy time before them during the remainder of the season before the

The tax collectors are anxious to get their books for last year's taxes straightened out, and the number of delinquents on the books is rather discouraging to the county officials, who have done their best to secure the payment of taxes before this date.
