Only five more days until it begins. Think you can wait?

If ex-Governor Bob Taylor were there now with his fiddle he might succeed in making things a little more cheerful.

Senator Bailey at least makes one understand what he means. There is never much left to read between the lines when he has finished.

We have seen the first copy of the Wilkes Patriot a Republican newspaper published at Wilkesboro. We welcome the paper as one of our contemporaries.

The President has probably decided that there are more de-lightful experiences than those of being jabbed with pitch forks and called "Clay and common clay at that."

When ex-Governor Bob Taylor takes his seat, his mirth mixed with the rabidness of some of the other members of that august body will at least add the spice of variety.

"Unlucky is the peace-maker, for he often gets it in the neck.—W. E. Chandler." Washington Post. To a casual observer it appears that in this instance he got it o. k., but left it in the neck of the other fellow.

"Tillman will have to think up another stunt to come up to Bailey's star play." Asheville Citizen.

Don't worry, neighbor, the "Pitch fork Senator" can beat a three-bagger all right. Watch out for a home run.

One of the best definitions of a public library we have seen was that given by Dr. Alphonso Smith which is as follows: "It conserves the past, preserves the present and anticipates the future."

Look out for the Mecklenburg Declaration edition of The News and Times Democrat! It will be a hummer. A large part of it is up now and we are hard at work on the remainder. It will appear next Monday and the edition will be the best ever issued from this office.

When the Russian populace grow tired of an official they find that a bomb or dagger is all that is necessary. It is alarming, the number of high officials who have been assassinated within the past few weeks, and it only goes to show what a degenerate condition the empire has reached.

An important resolution introduced in the House yesterday was that making it a crime for a man to run an establishment for the purpose of dealing in cotton futures. The resolution provides punishment for this form of gambling equally as severe as that for any other kind, and in this it is right.

A gentleman who has just returned from the western part of the state tells us that the people of that section are greatly enthused over the May Celebration and that they are coming in great numbers. We are glad to hear of the enthusiasm all over the state, and all who come are more than welcome.

Don't fail to read every chapter of "A Rock in the Baltic." We are giving a part of the story each day in The News and the story is growing in popularity. We recommend it to our readers more heartily than any special story we have given in many a day, for it is one of the cleverest written in a long time.

Kansas is evidently in good financial condition, judging from the report of a Kansas editor who says he will hereafter refuse to take woodwork on his subscription unless it is sawed. Down here in North Carolina the editors are generally glad to get it sawed or unsawed.

Everybody has a curiosity to see the person about whom they have heard a lot said. We all have a curiosity to see the face of a great man. Because of this curiosity we are giving each day in The News one or two cuts of men and women of prominence, persons who are attracting public notice, who are in the lime light. We are confident that our readers will enjoy seeing the pictures of the persons of whom they have heard so much.

The Spartanburg Herald remarks, "The whole country has reached the point where it can be seen that there is truth in Mr. Bryan's statement that 'The things I have been fighting for are coming.'" There is no doubt but what the things for which Mr. Bryan has been fighting for are coming and the country is realizing this more and more every day, however, some try to rob Mr. Bryan of the credit due him.

The tongue is indeed an unruly member. Sometimes just one word or phrase proves a man's undoing. A travelling man told us yesterday that one thing that contributed to the defeat of Senator Carmack more than anything else was his statement in a speech that "only sealwags and travelling men would vote for Bob Taylor. If it be true that Senator Carmack made such a statement as this it is probable that it was the cause of a part of the big majority given Governor Bob Taylor, notwithstanding his extensive popularity.

OLD STONE WELL MOVED.

Slid Down Hill Without Even Making The Water Muddy.

From the Chillicothe News-Advertiser. The residents of Bainbridge are much excited over a remarkable landslide which has taken place on the south side of that village during the last few days, for sections of the hill continues to slide away at intervals. The slide is on what is known as Higgins' Hill, where a stone quarry has been operated for many years.

The hill was over forty feet high and a great deal of valuable rock has been removed from it during the last few years, but the greater part of the broken stone and earth has been dumped on the hillside. The recent wet weather caused this to loosen a portion of the hill commencing to slide on Thursday night and has been going down ever since.

A mud roadway, which was used by teams to bring down the stone was entirely obliterated, but the remarkable part of the slide is that an old stone well, which was on the top of the hill, slid down the embankment for a distance of twenty-two feet and was not destroyed.

The well, which is sixteen feet deep, has always had from twelve to fifteen feet of water in it, and there is an old windlass on the top. As has been stated, the well slid down the side of the hill, windlass, stone and water, and it did not even cause trepidation of the water. The windlass, which is nearly worn out, appears as good today as it was before the well moved.

Followed Her Mistress.

The story of a dog's affection for its little mistress from whom it would not be separated even by death, was brought to Boston recently by the steamer Columbia, which arrived from Glasgow. The Columbia had a hard experience with the wintry gales which swept the Atlantic during her entire voyage and the tossing and pitching to which the steamer was subjected contributed largely to the pathetic tragedy.

Among the passengers on the steamer was Andrew McDonald, who was bringing his four-year-old daughter, Mary, to America for the benefit of the sea voyage might be to her health. The little girl's two collie dogs, Daisy and Ben, accompanied them, and until she was taken ill Mary spent all her waking hours with her pets.

When the storm became more severe the child became violently seasick and last Wednesday night she died. The dogs missed their little mistress and whined constantly until they were taken to the cabin where preparations were being made to bury the child's body at sea. When the body was taken on deck the dogs were permitted to follow, and during the reading of the funeral services the collies tagged at the leashes which held them.

As the child's body was lifted to the rail and slid overboard Daisy broke from the man who held her and leaped into the sea just as the body of her little mistress disappeared beneath the waves. The dog was drowned.—From Boston Record.

Ignorance of the Bible. "What is the meaning of the word From the Detroit Free Press. Easter" said John Drew at Club.

No one could answer the question, and Mr. Drew, with a frown, went on: "Nobody reads the Bible now. The public's ignorance of the Bible and of Biblical things is amazing. A Biblical allusion is nowadays as unintelligible as a Greek allusion.

"Not long ago at dinner, I got into a Biblical argument. When the argument was over a young lady said: 'I enjoyed that discussion splendidly. But, you know, I always thought that Sodom and Gomorrah were man and wife?' "Another young lady commented: "Oh, well, I suppose they ought to have been if they were not."

His Idea of an Anonymous Letter. From the American Spectator.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENNEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for Constipation.
