COMMISSION ENJOINED.

A Temporary Injunction By Southern

tion of the Commission.

Special to The News. Commission were leaving their office last evening after 6 o'clock Deputy United States Marshal J. T. Sharp 000 more than last year. served on them a temporary injunction secured by the Southern Railway Company from Judge Thomas R. Purnell of the United States Court here restraining the Commission and any Curious Bet That Shows an Impossible other parties concerned from sueing the Southern for penalties in connection with the Southern's refusal to smokes twenty Wadsworth Bros.' Chiobey the order of the Commission to cos a day," said Mr. Sheppard. "As a not change the schedule of train No. matter of fact, he gives away a good 111 at Raleigh so it would pass on to Greensboro at 11:59 P. M. instead of waiting here until 1:40 A. M. as in the past and also enjoining the Commission against interfering at all with this schedule on the ground that all branches of the Southern are parts of a single system engaged in inter-State commerce. The Commission is directed to appear before Judge Purnell June 21 and show cause why the temporary injunction should not be made permanent.

It is specified that the injunction is not to operate in any way against any regular proceeding pending before the their purpose to file formal answer with the Commission tomorrow to the complaints that have been filed with them agaisst the change of the schedule. The Southern charges further that the great number of petitions ed by many with complete misapprehension of the situation. The Southern declares that the records show that the connection at Raleigh by their train with the northbound Seaboard at 1:20 A. M. is sought through, the Corporation Commission to further the Southern to maintain was actually made only six times during April and May and that it is of far more importance to operate on the new schedule and connect with Southern train No. 39 at Greensboro at 4:12 for Salisbury Asheville and Spartanburg, S. A big delegation went from Raleigh this morning to Lillington for the Democratic convention for this judicial district, the principal purpose of which will be the nomination of a candidate for solicitor. They are pledged to the Raleigh, who has no opposition. The well. district consists of Wake, Johnson and Wayne counties.

The absence of Alderman Grimes from the city necessitates the postponement of the calling of the special meeting of the aldermen to pass on the petition presented by Rev. Sylvester Betts for an election in Raleigh on the question of "dispensary" or "prohibition." The meeting will be held probably the last of the week.
