

LAWYER SMITH MEETS TWINS.

He Asks a Question and Gets a Reply—Can't Tell Them Apart Yet.

Among his youthful acquaintances Mr. W. M. Smith, of the Charlotte bar, numbers two little girls, the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Overcash, whom he sees almost daily and between whom and himself a strong friendship exists.

Some time since Mr. Smith passed the little girls at their home, one of them being out at the gate and the other on the porch.

Mr. Smith, thinking to puzzle his little friend, asked the little girl at the gate, "Are you yourself or your sister?" This rather confusing interrogation was more than the little girl cared to essay to answer, but the little sister on the porch was not so easily embarrassed and spoke up to the lawyer's utter confounding, "She's herself," laying a strong stress on the last word.

The lawyer thought that he could detect in the answer the development of personality that distinguishes every man from his fellow, and the reply he took down mentally, as a striking example of the understanding of the little folks.

"No, I must admit that I haven't learned yet which of the little girls is which," Mr. Smith admitted, "but we are good friends still, and it don't seem to make any difference with the little girls."

D. W. Mays for County Commissioner.

Editor News and Times-Democrat: The voters and property owners of Huntersville township feel that they are entitled to representation on the board of county commissioners. It has been many years since Huntersville has had a representative on the board.

We respectfully suggest to the voters of the county the name of Mr. D. W. Mays for county commissioner. Mr. Mays is eminently fitted in every way to fill the position creditably to himself and the county.

We ask the support of the voters of Mecklenburg county for Mr. Mays, at the coming primaries to be held in August.
