SIGN CONTRACT FOR 3 NEW BUILDINGS

Contract for New Buildings to be Erected at the County Home was Signed To-day. Two for Negroes, One for Insane. Work to Begin.

The contract was signed today for the erection of three new buildings to be erected on the site of the county home which is located on the Salisbury road. Hunter & Vaughan have been given the contract for the construction work.

The buildings will all be of brick with cement basements and will aggregate an outlay of about $10,000. Two of the buildings will be for the negroes, and will accommodate about 40 persons. Heretofore there has been no room for the colored indigent of the county. The other will be for the accommodation of the insane. There will be twelve cells in the building for the insane, exclusive of physicians and keepers' rooms and bathing apartment. The size is 27 by 62.

The erection of these buildings marks a step forward in the great work which was instituted a number of years ago by the county. Hereafter there will be ample accommodations at the county home for the poor of both races and also for the insane who cannot acquire certificate of admission into other asylums.

The work of construction will begin at once and be pushed as rapidly as is possible.

DAN FRAZIER'S DOWNFALL.

Swore Others Shot Craps and All But He Were Turned Loose—Other Cases.

Dan Frazier, who is a very black, and very lean and lank colored youth, was in the Recorder's Court this morning to tell about a little game of crap-shooting that took place several months ago in the rear of the Gem restaurant.

Dan was in court yesterday as a witness against several negroes who, he charged, had thrown a glass or other missile at him, on the same night that the gaming occurred, and it seems that Dan thought he could go one better and make a clean sweep of the whole crowd by alleging that they were all playing craps. At any rate it was Dan against four negroes who swore that they did not shoot craps, and the court was compelled by all the rules of law to accept the testimony of four rather than one.

Dan, however, boldly admitted that he was in the game, and the court could do nothing but bind him over under a $50 bond to the next term of court, which means that Dan will have to languish in jail for five weeks until court meets.

Dan accepted the inevitable turn of the wheel of fate and calmly witnessed the destruction of the dream he had planned out—seeing the whole crowd go to jail. There was one other witness, Jo Robinson, who said that there was some crap shooting on the night mentioned, Oct. 19th. The negroes who were tried and given their freedom were Geo. Buchanan, Lewis Davis and Eugene McLean.

Yesterday afternoon Chief Irwin and Officer Thomas were driving over the suburbs, about East Second street extension, when they suddenly ran up on what appeared to be a regular row of the whole colored population. The center of the disturbance was two women, standing on their porches, about 75 feet apart, telling each other things that caused a considerable crowd to collect in the street and come peering out of the doors and windows. The two women, Carrie and Lula Withers, were quarreling about a negro child. The officers summoned the two to court this morning where the fuss was investigated. The defendants were fined each half the costs.

REQUISITION PAPERS ASKED FOR.

Richmond Paper's Story of Effort of N. W. Wallace, Jr., To Secure Prisoner.

Sheriff N. W. Wallace has been waiting for several days to hear something definite from his son, N. W. Wallace, Jr., who he expects to be a prisoner. Young Caldwell, who is wanted in Mecklenburg county, having escaped two years ago from the chain-gang.

The Richmond papers have been printing locals about the efforts of Mr. Wallace to secure the prisoner, also saying that the officials of that city were somewhat surprised at the amount of the reward, $10, and that it was thought by the Richmond police that the reward was something like $100.

Sheriff Wallace says that heretofore he has had no trouble in securing prisoners from Virginia without requisition papers, and that he had received a letter from the authorities of that city regarding the present case, in which they stated that the negro was there and that no mention was made of requisition papers being necessary. Sheriff Wallace says that he thinks the authorities should have notified him that such papers would be required but in the absence of any reference to this matter, he was under the necessity of taking it for granted that no requisition papers would be needed.

As to not sending papers with his son to Richmond, he states that he did not have time to prepare them after his son informed him that he was going to Richmond, and that he informed Mr. N. W. Wallace, Jr., that he would deputize him to bring the negro back to the jail here.

The comments of the Richmond papers in their local columns left the impression that Mr. Wallace presented himself at the headquarters of the authorities at Richmond without anything to indicate that he had authority to take the negro, and when he was further learned that the prisoner had demanded that requisition papers be secured, the matter was delayed that much more.

Sheriff Wallace has already communicated with the State authorities at Raleigh for the papers to be forwarded to Richmond and expects the prisoner to be brought home tonight, or tomorrow morning by his son whom he duly deputized to take charge of the negro.

Sheriff Wallace received a telegram from his son yesterday evening inquiring about the papers and the sheriff answered that they had been asked for and should reach Richmond without delay.

"As to the reward" said the sheriff, "they need not accept it if they do not want to."

BACK FROM CAMP

Members of Boys' Department of Y. M. C. A. Had Greatest Time of Their Lives.

With smiling faces, and as happy as a boy usually becomes between the ages of eight and fifteen, the members of the Boys' Camp, who have been spending three weeks on the Catawba river near Sandifer, came home today at noon, and after stopping at the Y. M. C. A. Building, repaired to their homes to tell of the great times they have been enjoying since the fourth of August.

There has not been a single accident to mar the pleasures of the outing during the entire three weeks the boys were camping out. The time has been spent in a revelry of boyish pleasure along the old river and with fishing, bathing, camping, and story telling about the camp-fires at night the boys could not have had a more ideal surrounding for their annual trip.

It was the most joyous throng of youngsters seen together in many a day here as the camp wagons rumbled into town today, filled with the camp outfit, bedding, clothes, and other property of the boys, and they one and all are so enthusiastic over the good time they have had, that they think the Catawba is better even than the mountains.

When it was remembered that two score boys were in the crowd, it is easy to picture the nature of their outing, and the special features provided for their amusement and happiness.

The camp has been in charge of Mr. Knebel, the boys' secretary, and he has had his hands full all the day long, looking after the welfare of his proteges, but both boys and Mr. Knebel and the other older members of the camp have had their full of pleasure and are now ready to get down to work, whether school or business.

The entire crowd brought back with them besides well tanned faces and hands, many souvenirs of the trip which they will not soon forget.
