

BRIEFS.

Mr. H. R. Wilburn, of Daytona, Fla., is visiting friends in the city. Rev. A. J. McKelway, D. D. is supplying this month the pulpit of Rev. John W. Stagg, Birmingham, Ala. Mr. Nelsoe Barnes will leave for Bluefield, W. Va., Wednesday, where he will work for the N. & W. Ry. Mr. John McKinney of Providence township is said to be quite sick with typhoid fever. He has been ill for some time. Postmaster Smith will install 150 new lock boxes at the postoffice to meet the demands which have been filed recently. Rev. S. A. Stewart of Monroe filled the pulpit yesterday at the Tryon Street Methodist church in the absence of the pastor. Mr. C. A. Smith, of the Oliver Typewriter Company has returned to his duties after spending a few days at Asheville on his vacation. A game of ball will be played at the park this afternoon for the benefit of the Good Samaritan Hospital. The Fats and Leans, colored, will be the opposing teams. Protracted services are being held at Matthews' Methodist church, the pastor, the Rev. H. Hoyle, being assisted by the Revs. G. C. Harley, of this city, and N. S. Ogburn of Monroe. Mr. Brice Williams of Morning Star township, who has been working this summer in central Georgia, has returned to his home. Mr. Williams will return to Erskine College in the fall. Bell and Fonville, local representatives of the Sage and Company, brokers, which were recently declared insolvent have moved their office from this city to Fort Mill, S. C., where they will conduct business in the future. Mr. Ed. G. Mullen has purchased some stock in the Atkinson Drug company and will, after October 1, be connected with that firm. Mr. Mullen has been with the Mayer Drug Company for a number of years. A letter received today from Prof. H. P. Harding who has been spending the summer at Cleveland Springs states that he will arrive in the city next Thursday, and will be ready for the opening of the city schools on the following Tuesday.

NEW SERIES Mutual Building and Loan just started. If there's a better place for investment or borrowing money for building it is unknown in these "Diggins." The trouble with you is you don't start the ball, and, consequently, you're still a renter, and still behind in the race for a competency. Take a drink (city water) and nerve yourself for saving. It's not low much you make, but how much you save that counts in the race. Your theory is how much you can spend, and you're a back number. Come to-morrow. E. L. KEESLER, Secretary. 25 S. TRYON ST.
