ADVISE PRESIDENT TO INTERFERE IN NEW YORK POLITICS

Chairman of State Republican Committee Says he will Advise President to Denounce Action of Independence League in Printing Campaign Document.

Publication Referred to Prints Speeches of Hearst and Roosevelt in Parallel Columns or Proper Use of Wealth. Chairman Thinks this Wrong.

By Associated Press. New York, Oct. 30.—Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the State Republican committee, says he will advise President Roosevelt to repudiate the campaign document issued by the Independence League in support of W. R. Hearst's candidacy for governor.

Woodruff objects to the publication in parallel columns of extracts from the speeches of the President and Hearst as the proper use of wealth. Woodruff said concerning the publication:

"It is certainly hoped that President Roosevelt, who has to a degree all along maintained the position that he could not interfere in local politics, will take up this matter and denounce the author of the illusion. It was expected all along that some such effort as this would be made by Hearst to influence the voters."

The publication referred to by Woodruff, quotes the President's speech at Oyster Bay, September 8, 1906, which is reported as saying that a multimillionaire is not a harm, but a good to the community if he appreciates that he is only trustee for that wealth and uses it for causes of goodness.

From the speech by the President at Washington, on July 6th, last, he is quoted as saying that very rich men may sometimes play a useful part in life, but rarely are useful, as the lives which are expended in different fields from those of money-getting. To heap riches on riches, the President is quoted as saying, is merely an evil.

Against this Hearst is quoted in a parallel column as saying there should be, as far as possible, an equal distribution of wealth; that he believed in organizations that tend to distribute wealth; that its distribution is as important as its creation and that "a law-defying millionaire in jail will do more than any other single thing to regulate trust inequality."

Noted Case of Negro Coachman of Augustus Hartje Goes to Jury.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 30.—The case of Clifford Hooe, the former negro coachman of Augustus Hartje, charged with perjury, was given to the jury today at the conclusion of the arguments of the attorneys and the charge of Judge Robert S. Frazer, Attorney J. Scott Ferguson, who made addresses for Hooe, said the case was the most remarkable ever tried in Allegheny county.

All he asked from the court and jury was what the President of the United States gives every man, be he white or black, "a square deal."

He referred to the fact that Hooe's deposition had not been used in the divorce case and after reading the defendant's allegations of his treatment by the detectives, appealed to the jurors to keep in mind the tenets of the "third degree," telling them they might some day be victims of an army of private detectives.

Verdict of Guilty.

NEGRO "WHITE CAPS" CAUSE TROUBLE
After Playing of "The Clansman" Report of Formation of Ku Klux Klan Started in Fun, Whereupon Negroes Organize into Band of White-Caps.

By Associated Press. Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 30.—A Brookhaven, Miss., dispatch says: "As a result of the production of 'The Clansman' in this city last week threats were circulated by the whites that a Ku Klux Klan was being organized to drive the negroes from the community."

The blacks have formed themselves into a band of white-caps and already started a series of depredations on the whites.

News reached here from Bear Creek in Lincoln county that "Bud" Godbold, a young white farmer, was fired upon by a negro white-cap, while riding through a lonely stretch of woods.

This horse was killed, but Godbold escaped. According to Godbold's story, a white man riding 100 yards behind him was simultaneously attacked by the blacks.

The officers have gone to the scene of the ambush.

The story circulated that the white people would form a Ku Klux Klan was done as a joke it is asserted, but the blacks took the jokers at their word. The excitement here is intense.

No, Thanks, Young Man, I Can Carry Them All Myself! And Judging From The Past Record Of Your Party, I Would Be Afraid To Trust Them With You!

Mr. James H. Carson Died

This Morning at Six O'clock

The Funeral Services Will Be Held From the Residence Tomorrow Morning at 11 O'clock.

The death of Mr. James H. Carson, one of the oldest residents of Mecklenburg county, occurred this morning at six o'clock at the residence, No. 502 South Tryon street.

The death of Mr. Carson was not unexpected as he had been in declining health for several weeks and last Sunday afternoon suffered a stroke of paralysis from the effects of which his strength continued to weaken and all hope of his recovery was despaired of.

The funeral will take place from the residence to-morrow morning at eleven o'clock, the services to be conducted by Rev. Dr. J. R. Howerton, pastor of the Presbyterian church of which church the deceased had been a member since the year 1853.

The life of Mr. Carson is well known to many of the older residents of Mecklenburg county though it is better told in his own biography written by his chief in the year 1875, a few years after he had retired from active business.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carson who immigrated to this country from Ireland in the year 1818. He was born on the 28th day of April, 1830, in Asho county, now Alleghany, in the mountains of North Carolina, being one of the youngest of eleven children, nine boys and two girls. These were Margaret, John, Robert, William and Thomas, (twins), Smith, James Harvey, Edwin, Andrew and Erwin Carson. His father was poor though his mother was a prominent Baptist in his community. He had family worship and religious instruction was observed in his household daily.

When seven years of age James H. Carson was sent to school, receiving his first instruction in a school which was in the charge of his brother, John. The following year when he was eight years old he decided to leave his old home in the mountains and with his brother, Robert, same to Mecklenburg to live with his uncle William Carson, who was a large land holder and who owned a plantation in Mecklenburg.

Many months passed before he became thoroughly accustomed to the negro faces and other surroundings, different from which he had been raised. However, soon after his arrival in Mecklenburg, October 15, 1838 he was placed in school and two years later came to Charlotte to live in his uncle's town home. His uncle was a merchant and conducted a successful store in this city in addition to the management of his plantation located in Steele Creek township, (Dixie). While in the city he boarded with the family of J. H. At the expiration of that year he returned to the plantation and resumed his studies in the country school and at the close of that year his uncle sent him back to Charlotte to learn the art of merchandising, placing him in the store then conducted by his partner, Mr. William Henderson, which firm dissolved a year later.

In the year 1847 he prepared himself for college taking a two years' course in a preparatory school, entering Davidson in the year 1849. The following year he entered the University of North Carolina and remained there only one year which ended his college career.

During this same year he crossed the Atlantic that his health might be benefited and remained in the Orient several months after which he returned to America and with the money his uncle William left him, he having died about the year 1850, Mr. Carson went into the mercantile business, a partnership having been formed with Messrs. John L. Watson and M. H. Peoples, under the firm name of Carson, Watson and Peoples.

Mr. Carson connected himself with the Presbyterian church in 1852 and two years later, on the 25th of May, married Miss Mary Ann Williams. Soon afterwards he conducted a mercantile establishment under the firm name of Carson & Springs, which afterwards was known as Carson & Grier. A few years later Mr. Carson was interested in the firm of Springs &

Burwell and in 1879 retired from active business.

Mr. Carson was a successful business man, achieving splendid results in every line he tackled and had accumulated a considerable fortune. His mind was active in all business affairs and he was constantly on the alert when the advancement of his interests were concerned.

Four children survive, these being Messrs. J. E. Carson, C. M. Carson, J. S. Carson and R. C. Carson, all of this city.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM INJURY.

While out Driving Two Men Meet Serious Difficulty—Speech by Ex-Governor Aycock.

Winston, Oct. 30.—Ex-Governor C. B. Aycock delivered a splendid address at the courthouse last night to a large crowd. The ex-governor discussed national and State issues in his usual convincing manner and his remarks aroused much enthusiasm. Tonight the county candidates will be at the courthouse. The last speech of the campaign in Winston-Salem will be delivered in the courthouse next Monday evening, at which time Governor Glenn is scheduled to make an address. The addresses of Governor Glenn in this county are awaited with much interest by the leaders of both parties. The result of the election depends very much on the kind of speeches the governor delivers in Winston-Salem next Monday evening, therefore unusual interest attaches to the speech.

In the mayor's court yesterday afternoon three negroes were convicted of running "blind tigers" and heavily fined. Though Winston is what is generally termed a wet town, nevertheless the officers are continually unearthing blind tigers in the negro settlements, especially on Sundays.

Prohibition in this town with the large negro population that is here would necessitate a large addition to the present police force.

Rev. J. C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, was here yesterday returning to Durham from Elkin. Dr. Kilgo delivered the sermon at the dedication of the new Methodist church at Elkin last Sunday morning. The building which cost $12,000 was filled to overflowing to hear Dr. Kilgo.

While out driving yesterday afternoon Messrs. A. A. Myers and W. P. Hill had a very narrow escape from serious injury. Mr. Myers' horse has been on the race track and has lots of speed and in addition to that the animal is very hard to hold after once getting started. While on Fifth street yesterday afternoon an automobile containing Mr. Chal Teague, ran past Mr. Myers' horse which was going at a very lively gallop and it is said the driver gave the mare a free rein to let the chaffeur see that the auto was not the only fast thing in town. While some twenty yards ahead of the horse, Mr. Teague's hat blew off and he started to turn his machine around to recover his headgear. He ran his machine directly across the road and the horse, buggy and Messrs. Myers and Hill went over the machine. Messrs. J. Myers, Hill and Teague all went to the ground although none of them were seriously hurt. The seats were torn from the auto, though there was not a scratch on the mare, which stopped a few yards from the wrecked machine. The buggy was not damaged a particle. It was necessary for a wagon to haul the auto to the shops.

NUMBER OF THE DEAD FROM BIG DISASTER IS NOT OVER SIXTY

All Recovered Bodies are Identified. Seven Persons Reported Missing Still. Thought to be Wedged Beneath Coach. Wrecking Crew Work all Night.

By Associated Press. Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 30.—With all of the recovered bodies identified and seven persons reported missing the authorities and the railway officials are certain that the number killed in the drawbridge disaster on the West Jersey Seashore Electric Railroad will not exceed sixty.

Fifty-two bodies have been claimed, two of these placed among the missing known to be dead and five are still unaccounted for.

These seven victims are believed to be wedged beneath the second passenger coach which is held fast in the muddy bottom of the thoroughfare.

During last night the wrecking crew aided by several divers endeavored to dislodge this car but their efforts produced little good.

Among those reported missing was Wm. H. Stewart of Wicomico, N. J., whose wife and son are included in the list of the dead.

Stewart was located last night in the city hospital. He is suffering from the shock and bruises. He tells a remarkable story of his experience. With his wife and their adopted son, Stewart, occupied seats in the second coach. When the train plunged into the stream he saw his wife and son hurled to the floor of the car. Stewart, who had been sitting near the window, was thrown into the water. When he came to the surface he floated through an open window back into the coach and his hand came in contact with a bell rope. Hanging on this rope Stewart dragged himself to the door of the car and was soon on the roof.

The car had not been completely engulfed and from his perilous position he was rescued and hurried to the hospital in a semi-conscious condition.

Not until last night did he learn that his wife and son had been killed.

WOULD PLACE BAN ON MATRIMONY

Effort being Made in Chicago to Exclude Confirmed Drunkards, Idiots, Etc. from Marriage. Would Colonize Them. To Watch Ill-Mated Pairs.

By Associated Press. Chicago, Ill., Oct. 30.—The wedding bells will ring only for those happy young persons who succeed in passing the State inspection test if the ideas of the American Stock Breeders' Association are carried out.

The association has turned for the moment from the consideration of cattle, sheep and hogs to the culture of humans, and it will be the ultimate business of the committee of Eugenics, just appointed to keep an eye for ill-mated pairs.

A marriage censorship may result if the inspection idea proves practical. The immediate object of the committee as explained yesterday by Prof. Charles R. Henderson, of the University of Chicago, is to spread information in regard to the ill-effects of the marriage of defective persons, including "imbeciles, insane persons, confirmed drunkards and moral degenerates are to be restrained in colonies and kept from marrying."
