

THE WEATHER

Forecast for Charlotte and Vicinity. Rain tonight. Saturday partly cloudy.

State Forecasts. Washington, D. C., March 20.—For North Carolina: Rain tonight, colder in mountain districts, Saturday partly cloudy. Brisk northeast winds on the coast.

For South Carolina: Rain and colder tonight. Saturday fair in the interior, clearing and colder on the coast. Fresh northeast to north winds.

Weather Conditions.

A barometric depression of slight depth, which was central Thursday morning over western Texas, seems to have moved rapidly eastward along the Gulf coast, and is central this morning over Georgia. It has caused rain over the Gulf states and portions of the middle and south Atlantic states.

WANTS THE CAR LINE.

Villa Heights Will do Grading if 4C's Will Extend It.

We are very sorry to note that Mr. J. A. Smith's condition is unimproved. Mr. W. L. Dixon began school at the graded school Wednesday night with quite a large crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hales returned from Greensboro yesterday. A series of meetings will begin Sunday afternoon at the A. R. P. church at Villa Heights.

Quite a lengthy petition will be presented to President Latta, of the 4C's Company, to extend the car line up to Villa Heights. Private Parties have offered to do the grading free of cost to the company.

Mr. Sanky Lomas, of Harrell street, is indisposed with mumps.

The Checker Players' Association, which is quite strong in Belmont, are offering inducements to new members, such as soap wrappers and Arbutle's coffee wrappers.

Preparations for gardening are in full blast in and around Belmont. As soon as the moon is right many will sow seed.

Mr. Sylvester White, of the Louise village, is very sick.

Owing to the fine weather and it being fishing season and angle worms plentiful, the Loafers' Lodge has suffered for want of a quorum.

Mr. James Lowrance, of Macon, Ga., is at the bedside of his sister, Miss Sade, who is in extremis.

Don't forget the Anti-Saloon League meeting at the W. O. W. hall next Monday night. A large crowd will be there and good speaking will be heard.

PREACHING IN AUGUSTA.

Rev. R. V. Miller Holding Joint Presbyterian Meeting.

Rev. R. V. Miller, of Hendersonville, the well known Bible teacher, who has often spoken in this city, has just concluded reading in a conference in the Baptist church at Johnston, Ga. At the concluding service $600 were given to missions.

This week Mr. Miller is speaking at a joint meeting in Augusta, Ga. of the First Presbyterian church, Dr. Plunkett, pastor, and the Greene Street Presbyterian church, Rev. Geo. E. Gullie, pastor. The meetings are being held twice daily at the former church.

Educational Department.

The educational department of the Woman's Club had a very interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the Selwyn Hotel. The principal feature was a debate on the query: "Resolved, That that the study of Latin should be elective in the graded schools."

The Nutwood School Honor Roll. The Honor Roll for the sixth month of the Nutwood School is as follows: Reid Abernethy, 94 1-5; Esther Caldwell, 94 1-2; Margaret Stillwell, 92 3-5; Nannie Abernethy, 93 1-2; Lillie Abernethy, 92 3-4; William Neal, 92 1-2; Beulah King, 92 5-7; Joe Donaldson, 92; Myrtle King, 91; Esther Abernethy, 90 1-2; Lennel Furr, 90; Grace Abernethy, 90; Jennie Orr, 90.

The Sunny South. Mr. James E. Carson says when he left New York Wednesday it was snowing and sleeting. Here the thermometer was up in the seventies.

A HIGHER HEALTH LEVEL. "I have reached a higher health level since I am using Dr. King's New Life Pills," writes Jacob Springer, of West Franklin, Maine. "They keep my stomach, liver and bowels working just right." If these pills disappoint you on trial, money will be refunded at Woodall & Sheppard's drug store. 25c.

THE PEOPLE AROUSED

Mr. Morrison Finds Prohibition Enthusiasm in Raleigh.

Mr. Cameron Morrison has just returned from Raleigh from arguing a case before the supreme court. Asked concerning the prohibition outlook, he said:

"The talk in political circles indicates that the people are getting aroused over the importance of carrying the state for prohibition. There were many lawyers from different sections in the capital city and the news was favorable to a large vote for prohibition."

"The prohibition headquarters in Raleigh seemed to be alive and the outlook for a great victory very bright."

Muggins—"I hear your wife has had a great deal of illness lately; what seems to be the trouble?" Buggins—"As nearly as I can figure it the doctor needs the money."

Bank Talks

BY THE American Trust Co.

The most efficient and valuable machinery is that which gets a maximum of production with a minimum of human labor. In other words, modern invention is constantly seeking to devise machinery and appliances that are automatic.

We think we have a Savings Plan that is practically automatic.

It is this: We invite salaried people to deposit ALL of their income with us and check out only what they need. The amount left over is automatically saved.

In the case of automatic machinery some one has to start it going. You can start our Savings Plan going by depositing One Dollar.

Begin now. We pay 4 per cent. New Interest Quarter begins April 1st.
