News from Busy Albermarle

Special to The News.
 Asheville, N. C., March 19.—On yesterday's home of Mrs. C. M. Palmer, one of the most attractive residences in Albermarle, was a scene of unintermitted enjoyment.

The Palmer entertained the "Twenty-Minute Book Club." Besides regular members there were a number of invited friends. Appropriate selections were recited at roll call. The afternoon was spent in "Among the Palms," and some facts about the club.

At the close of these interesting exercises, which were interspersed with musical numbers, the guests were conducted into the dining room and refreshments were served in fine style. In the evening contest in musical terms, prizes were won by Mrs. G. W. Bell and Mrs. H. C. Sprinkle.

"Sweet memories linger still." Church Services.

Services are being conducted in the Presbyterian church this week by Rev. Frank Clark of Salisbury. His sermons are making a profound impression. His language is clear and strong and adds the attention from the beginning to the end of his discourse.

Blind Tiger Caught.
 A blind tiger was discovered and the two successfully caged last night. The barrels of "hooze" were thus separated from their intended channels.

Anti-Saloon Forces Busy.
 The anti-saloon forces are organized and getting on their way paint for a job to the finish. And the Charlotte News publishes some good ammunition and a bone, once in a while, ready to the hand of Samson.

Long Live The News.

Will Be "Royal Highness."
 London, March 19.—A news agency publishes the following dispatch from Rome: "The Corriere Della Sera reports that Miss Elkins, on her marriage to the Duke of Abruzzi, will be styled 'Royal Highness' in her own right, and that the sons of the marriage will have the right of succession to the throne."

Series of Criminal Assaults Committed

Special to The News.
 Greenville, S. C., March 19.—Earle Payne, a half-witted young white man, is in the county jail charged with assault upon the person of a young negro girl, the alleged assault having been committed on the farm of Mr. Robt. Means, near the city, yesterday afternoon.

Closely following this arrest four negro girls, who were en route to work yesterday morning. It is said that the victims in both cases are in pitiable condition physically.

There has been no excitement here over these crimes. The guilty parties have all been arrested and the people are apparently willing for the law to take its course.

ANOTHER BOB SPRINGS.

The Messrs. Bailes Correct a Mistake as to Identity.

Editor The News:
 Pineville, N. C., March 19.—I read a little article on Bob Springs, colored, this week and we would be glad for you to correct that somewhat as this is not the Bob Springs you have reference to, as a desperado or three times a murderer and he has never been in the penitentiary at all. He did kill this negro last week of whom you spoke, no doubt, but he claimed it as accidental. At any rate he wept about it considerably and was tried in the court of your city for murder once, but was acquitted.

We partly raised this boy, Bob Springs, and he was a good hand and a pretty fair negro. I am sure he is not the negro you think he is, and we generally get rid of the desperado kind and we would not have said anything but it is injustice to us as well as the negro, you understand.

Please just make that statement and oblige

Representative Harrison.

By Associated Press.
 Washington, D. C., March 19.—An attack upon President Roosevelt for the manner in which he has conducted the affairs of the Panama Canal zone was made today in the house by Representative Harrison, of New York. Mr. Harrison opened by saying:
 "I charge the President of the United States with exceeding his authority, and I charge the republican majority of the house with negligence and carelessness in their conduct of the government."

"It is a terrible problem," sighed Amy. "What is dear?" wanted to know Mamie. "When a man's too old for a girl to marry and too rich for her not to!"—Cleveland Leader.
