

Hon. Enos A. Mills to Speak Here Soon On National Forestry-- Club Women Active In Work

Much interest is being manifested in the announcement of the address of Mr. Enos A. Mills on the subject of national forestry, to be delivered on the night of April 2nd.

Mr. Mills is a subject in which every man, woman and child should be interested, and to this end Mr. Corwith has solicited the help of the Women's Club of Charlotte, and has sent the following letter to the chairman of the civic department:

Dear Madam:—The Greater Charlotte Club has invited Hon. Enos A. Mills to come to Charlotte April 2nd, and speak on national forestry in the assembly hall of the Selwyn hotel.

Mr. Mills is a speaker of exceptional force and magnetism, he both entertains and instructs, and is invariably delighted. The women have been active in co-operating in this great work, and they have made their influence felt to a marked degree.

This is a subject of vital importance to the present as well as a future generation. A broad knowledge of any subject is necessary if intelligent action is to be expected, and we are endeavoring to create an interest in the coming of Mr. Mills, and hope to secure for him a large and enthusiastic audience.

Very particularly we will help the ladies, and will greatly appreciate it if you will take the matter up with the members of your club, and urge them to go out and hear Mr. Mills speak on Thursday, April 2nd. There will be no admission charged.

Very truly yours, W. T. CORWITH, Sec. & Treas. Greater Charlotte Club.

Ms. Bryant has also received a letter from Mrs. John K. Otley, chairman of the woman's board of visitors of the Atlanta public schools, concerning Mr. Mills' recent visit to Atlanta. She says:

Things that will make for health and happiness, but the good woman in the rocking chair is too much of a "lady" to work in the garden, and the children are too trifling and the man is too tired.

And the family is miserably nourished on a too practical diet, a fact proclaimed by bad complexion, lean bodies, and a lack of energy explaining in some measure the devotion to the rocking chair.

Surely it "now remains for us to return to the cultivation of the garden." The political economist turned his attention some time ago to the garden needs of the people.

Prof. J. Allen Holt, a candidate for congress from Guilford, fired the first boom in political circles last night in Durham. His speech at the court house was attended by a large crowd, and his talk dealt with all political phases.

He is the only candidate for congress that is not a lawyer. He has a good number of supporters in Durham.

however, only on one side of the road. How beautiful that half mile would be now, if the trees had been planted on both sides.

What an attractive place Mecklenburg county would be, if all the highways were lined with trees, and how many dollars would be added to the value of the adjoining land.

At the annual meeting of the Vermont Federation of Women's Clubs, held in Windsor, October 2nd and 3rd, from the 26 federated clubs in the state, in one town a tree warden has been appointed. The Woman's Club has appointed a committee, from its members, to take note of the roads leading to the neighboring towns and report to the tree warden any needs that may come to their notice.

The club women are also studying the laws of Vermont in regard to the care of the forests and protection of its shade trees, and are encouraging the school children to become familiar with the names and characteristics of the trees in their own towns.

One club of 15 members has furnished material for a forestry column in its weekly local paper. In this connection it may not be amiss to say that recently in conversation with a News reporter, Mrs. Bryant called attention to the fact that on all the 165 miles of macadam roads leading out of Charlotte, there is not a mile of wooded highway.

There are, of course, short stretches of road that have been cut through woodlands—but this is original forest growth. A splendid example has been set, however, by one of Mecklenburg's most prominent farmers, who, some years ago, planted a row of water oaks and Carolina poplars in front of his home, that is now a delight to every passer-by. These are things because they are common, existing because they are common, but judged unworthy of consideration.

Judge Says Solicitor Did Not Act Wrong Special to The News. Durham, N. C., March 20.—Accusations alleging that Solicitor A. L. Brooks, and officials of the court in this district and prominent candidates for congress, has charged excessive fees were brought against him by J. Martin Unstead, attorney for the board of education, and created quite a stir in court at Durham yesterday.

Solicitor Brooks called attention to the charges against him to Judge Webb, saying that it was a reflection on his character, and that he was sible and willing to pay back any alleged excessive fees.

Attorney Unstead still contends that Mr. Brooks' fees are beyond the limit of the law. Judge Webb took the matter in hand immediately, and stated that Solicitor Brooks had done no more than all solicitors, speaking directly of sci fa cases, and he said that he thought they were entitled to charge an additional fee, and admitted that he did when he was a solicitor.

From Wilmington Dispatch. President Hayne Davis, of the North Carolina Peace Society, is back from most interesting and profitable trip made in behalf of the organization at which he stands at the head.

He accomplished much on his trip and during the time was kept busy advancing its object rapidly and substantially. He talks glowingly and intelligently of the progress made.

Ex-Gov. Aycock has accepted the presidency of the Congress, the honorary vice presidents being the two Tar Heel Senators, and Admiral Dewey.

Chief Justice Clark will address the Congress on the International Judiciary and Hon. E. J. Justice, Speaker of the House of Representatives, on "State Right and the Nation."

Mayor James Fredell Johnson, of Raleigh, Mayor Paul C. Graham, of Durham, Mayor Leo. J. Bratt, of Greensboro, have presented the matter to their respective boards and they have all approved the program of the society and provided for delegates to represent their cities.

The Raleigh Chamber of Commerce has done likewise, and its President, Col. Charles E. Johnson, also the Mayor of Greensboro, Durham and Raleigh have accepted positions on the committee of the Congress. So have Hon. E. J. Justice, Speaker of the House, Gen. Julian S. Carr, Dr. Geo. T. Winston, President of the A. and M. College, Prof. W. H. Williams and Dr. Thomas Hume, of the University. Dr. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, and Prof. J. H. Daniel, editor of the News and Observer, Rev. H. M. Blair, editor of the Christian Advocate, and other prominent people.

The Johnston Pettigrew Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, the Guilford Battle Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution have endorsed the society's program and provided for representation in the Congress.

President Hugh Chatham, of the N. Carolina Railroad, and Hon. A. H. Eller, its secretary, and Mrs. Lindsay Patterson, vice president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution are arranging a public meeting at Winston-Salem for the 24th, so as to ensure proper participation of the twin city.

Leading citizens of Raleigh and Greensboro have begun to interest themselves in the selection of their cities as the place of the meeting.

The sympathetic attitude manifested everywhere has insured the success and usefulness of the Congress, and the Executive Committee will soon be called together to fix the date and place of the meeting.

The movement is already spreading to other States. President Davis, of the North Carolina Congress, in an address before the Penn. Peace Society at its 41st anniversary, proposed a Penn. Peace Congress similar to the North Carolina Congress. In consequence a delegation of distinguished Pennsylvanians has visited Washington to confer with Pennsylvania Congressmen and they have decided to organize a Pennsylvania Peace Congress along the lines suggested by President Davis both for the North Carolina and Pennsylvania Congresses.

Tells How to Cure Catarrh

Gives The Simple Home Prescription Which Sufferers Should Make up And Try Anyway.

The coming months will be a harvest for the doctors and patent medicine manufacturers unless great care is taken to keep the feet dry, also dress warmly.

This advice should be heeded by all who are subject to rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, and especially catarrh. While the latter is considered by most sufferers an incurable disease, there are few men or women who will fail to experience great relief from the following simple prescription, and if taken in time it will prevent an attack of catarrh during the entire season.

Here is the prescription which any one can mix: Fluid Extract Dandelion one ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

The Compound Kargon in this prescription acts directly upon the eliminative tissues of the kidneys to make them filter and strain from the blood the poisons that produce all forms of catarrhal affections. Relief is often felt even after the first few doses and it is seldom that the sufferer ever experiences a return attack within the year.

This prescription makes a splendid remedy for all forms of blood disorders and such symptoms as lame back, bladder weaknesses and rheumatism pains are entirely dispelled.

As this valuable, though simple, recipe comes from a thoroughly reliable source, it should be heeded by every afflicted reader.

City of Mexico, March 21.—The one hundred and second anniversary of the birth of Benito Juarez, known to history as the savior of Mexican independence, was honored throughout the Republic today by the customary feasts and celebrations. Juarez, who rose from humble Indian origin to the office of President, guided the destinies of Mexico during the most crucial period of her history.

MUST BELIEVE IT. When Well-Known Charlotte People Tell It So Plainly.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Charlotte the proof is positive. You must believe it. Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

William H. Kidd, 316 Mint street, Charlotte, N. C., says: "I am recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in the hopes that other sufferers from kidney trouble may see my statement and be benefited thereby. While a young man, I received an injury which greatly affected my kidneys and in a few years, I suffered intensely from kidney trouble. I had much pain in my back and was bothered by the irregular action of the kidney secretions. Recently I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procuring a box at R. H. Jordan & Co's drug store, I began their use according to directions. The results were very satisfactory, my kidneys were strengthened, the pains in my back disappeared and the kidney secretions were restored to normal condition."
