Fashionable Leather Fixings-The Latest Bags-Belts-Shoes-Gloves and Travelling Toggery.

If a woman wants to look fashion able at the least possible expenditure-and that by the way is the a tie that two Italians would aim of many of the best placed women here at present-she will give special attention to the smaller, but by no means minor accessories that lend to even the simplest and best unpretentious costume an air of Meggs were married in Greensboro smartness which is altogether lacking in the most costly imported cos tume if these finishings are neglected. Leather Fixings.

Leather fixings of all sorts play a . Powers. The young couple have most important part in the outfit of many friends who wish them well in up-to-date people, and each season brings new models that accord with the prevailing colors and general lines endorsed by Madam La Mode. Shopping bags are decidedly large and very flat in most of the best read this article in the current new models seen at representative shops on Fifth Avenue, also in the hands of the fashionable throng. The one exception is balloonlike lit- Stranleigh story starts in this tle bag, just large enough to hold a tiny purse, mouchoir, and one of the diminutive leather covered opera glasses that fold into a small case about like the one that holds grand- SATURDAY EVENING POST ma's spectacles. Matching Accessories. To have gloves, shoes, belt and bag or purse, made up in matching material is considered the acme of smartness and the New York girl spends a great deal of thought and all the money she can possibly spare in such sets. She has them eitner made to order, or, purchasing one of the most important articles, shops' about until she succeeds in completing the whole set. Perhaps, if she is artful, she lets her family and intimate friends know that she is bent Mis. Shoe Wrinkles.

Colored shoes are to be more in demand than ever and to describe the array of these that one sees at smart shops and on well dressed women would require more space than I can give in my column. Very dressy effects are most in demand and leathers with a glossy finish are especially popular. The woman who likes the appearance of patent leather but finds it unpractical for general wear as well as uncomfortable on the foot is delighted with the new Chrome tanned glazed kid which has a finish almost as glossy as patent leather but is porous, and very comfortable, while it is also unusually durable being made from goat skin, the tanner. The nicest stores are showing pretty models in high and low shoes made to meet the fashionable demand for the new leather, which originating in Paris has found

High Arches and Medium Toes. High arches and a medium toe with a rather rounded point are characteristics of the best new models in woman's footwear this season. A very attractive tie, with large single eyelets through which ribbon is run, matching either the shoe or its trimmings, is one of the fetching types shown at a leading shop here. Fancy combinations of contrasting leather, cloth, and canvass, for uppers with odd vamps are in great demand and at Palm Beach and other winter resorts where summer styles are first exploited. Shoes and matching accessories of light colored kids, white and colored canvas and flowered cotton fabrics are now being worn by the people who lead the fashion in this country. The Cretonne Fad. Cretonne used for trimmings and accessories was revived last year after a long season of desuetude, and promises to be much more generally taken up the coming summer.
