In every respect the most successful Opening we have ever held.

Measured from the point of view of attendance and appreciation, nothing more could be desired.

We are showing the results of the best work of six experienced high-class trimmers with their helpers. This gives diversity of ideas. We are sure that nowhere in the State has there ever been shown such a large number of

Stylish Fashionable Hats

Clark—Graham.

An approaching event of unusual interest to many friends in Charlotte and throughout North Carolina, is the wedding of Miss Alice Graham of Macleale, Lincoln county, and Mr. Montague Clark, of Sandifer. The marriage will be solemnized April 14th, at "Forest Home," the residence of the bride's parents, Maj. and Mrs. Wm. A. Graham, and will be a quiet affair, only the near relatives, and intimate friends of the young couple being present.

Miss Graham is one of the state's fairest and most talented daughters and is very popular here where she has often visited. Her father's home is proverbial for the genuine old-time southern hospitality dispensed there and Charlotte people have often enjoyed delightful house parties given by Miss Graham and her charming sisters.

Mr. Clark is a son of Capt. John Clark, of Mecklenburg county. He is a young man of many sterling qualities and held in high esteem by all who know him. After an extensive wedding journey the young couple will be at home at the groom's pretty country place near Sandifer, this state.

Mrs. Faison Home.

Mrs. I. W. Faison returned home last night from Concord where she attended a meeting yesterday afternoon of the trustees of the Stonewall Jackson Training and Industrial School. The matter of buildings was the principal business before the board. Plans were submitted for the construction of two cottages to accommodate 60 juveniles. Work on these will begin as early as possible with the view of having the school open for initiatory work not later than October.

The Concord Tribune contains the following paragraph in regard to the meeting:

"A pleasing incident of the meeting yesterday was the donation made by the King's Daughters and other ladies and societies of the state, who so graciously and unassumingly presented the board with $1,000. Mrs. I. W. Faison, of Charlotte, also gave to the institution the sum of $300. These contributions were voluntary, and raised the enthusiasm of the board several degrees."

Robinson—Deal.

Charlotte friends have received invitations to the marriage of Miss Celeste Rizzelle Robinson to Mr. Ralph Carroll Deal. The cards read: "Dr. and Mrs. Newton Robinson request the pleasure of your company at the marriage of their daughter, Celeste Rizzelle, to Mr. Ralph Carroll Deal, Wednesday evening, April the eighth, at six o'clock, at their home, Elizabethtown, North Carolina."

Mr. Deal is a native of Greenville, S. C., and is a graduate of Davidson College. He has many friends in Charlotte who will be interested to know of his approaching marriage.

A good thing to know—that Grape-Nuts can be digested by, and quickly give strength to the man or woman who cannot digest other food.

The amount of promptly available nourishment a food contains, is the measure of its value.

Grape-Nuts is practically all food and is transformed into tissue-building, energy-making material in about one hour after being eaten—another god thing to know.

MR. ALLAN ON THE TAR HEEL.

The News hears with much pleasure that Mr. Preston Allan, formerly on its staff, who recently accepted the city editorship of the Elizabeth City Daily Tar Heel, is making a success of his new work. If genius is "a capacity for taking infinite pains," Mr. Allan has genius all right. In addition he is a college man and a bookman. He is making a sprightly local page for the Tar Heel, which is a snappy, up-to-date youngster in the family of the North Carolina press.

Golden Glory Canned String Beans

Empty a two pound can of string beans with all its liquor into a small pot. Add 2 tablespoons GOLDEN GLORY COOKING OIL and 1-2 teaspoon salt. Boil until thoroughly tender. Drain off all juice. Add 1 tablespoon GOLDEN GLORY COOKING OIL. Salt and pepper to taste.

The Southern palate calls for fresh string beans and kindred vegetables cooked until limp with bacon. As canned vegetables are already partially cooked, it is not possible to properly cook them with bacon to get its oil and flavor without cooking the vegetables to pieces.

Cooking them as above with GOLDEN GLORY COOKING OIL imparts just the right flavor, and renders them just as wholesome and palatable as fresh vegetables.
