Mr. Jenks Hutcheson Injured in Runaway

Mr. J. J. Hutcheson and wife, Mrs. Beulah Wilson Hutcheson, were the participants in a thrilling runaway accident on South Tryon street late yesterday afternoon. Mr. Hutcheson was severely lacerated about his face and head and rendered unconscious for a few minutes. Mrs. Hutcheson escaped serious injury though she sustained several bruises.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutcheson were returning after a drive south of the city. Passing the Atherton Mills the horse, Dr. R. L. Gibbon's big gray, became unmanageable and started to run, gradually increasing its speed until it encountered a Dilworth-bound street car at the corner of Morehead and South Tryon street. Reaching this point the animal was going at a terrific rate, with the bridle bits clinched in its teeth.

"Look out for the street car," someone yelled, and the next instant there was a crash accompanied by screams that terrified the residents in the vicinity.

The mortician, seeing the runaway, stopped his car just as it entered the curve. The horse leaped over the fender but the surry struck the car full force, hurling Mr. Hutcheson out of the vehicle against the car's vestibule. He dropped on the fender unconscious. Mrs. Hutcheson was thrown from the surry in the opposite direction. Both were carried into Mr. F. D. Alexander's residence and physicians summoned.

A few minutes before this accident and the same place Mr. G. F. Reid was thrown from his buggy in a runaway. His horse became frightened at a work car and darted to one side of the street, striking a telephone pole.

Basket Ball at Elizabeth.

A basket ball tournament has been opened at Elizabeth College. Already two games have been played, which were witnessed by large crowds of enthusiastic rooters.

On Wednesday, the freshmen played the juniors, the junior team winning, and on yesterday the junior team was defeated by the sophomores.

Mattie Johnson, a demented negro woman, was arrested this morning and committed to jail awaiting papers of commitment to the state insane asylum.

nine women were one day talking and something was said about the advertising campaign of Gowans' Pneumonia Cure. Eight of the women said they were using the preparation, and the ninth woman said she certainly would buy a bottle right away. They all agreed that it was the best household remedy they ever saw and the eighth woman insisted that they would not be without it.

The praise is universal. Those who know nothing of the virtues of the remedy may doubt—but where once used it is always used, and our best and most effective advertisements are those who voluntarily tell their friends about the cure. If you are in doubt, try a bottle and if you are disappointed the druggists will cheerfully refund your money. This puts it up to you.

THE CRITTENTON HOME.

The lecturer will be Mr. Ralph Bingham, the well-known humorist and musical genius, who was here during the last Chautauqua, and who has a national reputation. Mr. Bingham will be at the Selwyn Assembly Hall on April 27 at 8:30 o'clock.

Misses Welch and Lutz should have a cordial and sympathetic reception when they make their appearance.

Mrs. R. L. Gibbon is expected home tomorrow from Montgomery, Ala., where she has been visiting relatives for several weeks.
