

A NEW LAW FIRM ESTABLISHED

Messrs. Frank M. Shannonhouse and Hamilton C. Jones Form a Partnership—A Brilliant Career Predicted for These Two Able Young Men.

A partnership in the law has been formed by Messrs. Frank M. Shannonhouse and Hamilton C. Jones, which begins tomorrow.

Mr. Jones, who bears the name of his father, the late Col. H. C. Jones, for years the leader of the Charlotte bar, is a young man of brilliant attainments.

Mr. Shannonhouse has long established himself at the local bar as a lawyer of the highest ability. He is aggressive, forceful and original, as he has shown in whatever he undertook.

Street Railway Company to Spend $30,000 Preliminary to Paving.

It will not be many weeks now before the people of Charlotte will have the satisfaction of seeing the real bituminous paving work in progress.

The work on the cross streets will probably be started first, and then as soon as the preliminary work on the street car tracks is finished.

It is stated by the management of the street railway company that $30,000 will be spent in putting the tracks in perfect condition for this permanent work.

Mr. Latta, of the street railway company, has stated that while it would only take about $7,000 for the company to comply with its part of the contract with the city.

More Fiddling Lovers of Old Time Music Will Have Rare Opportunity Soon.

Charlotte is to have another fiddler's convention in the near future, which, say those who have charge, will surpass anything of its kind ever seen in the city.

It will not be a fiddlers contest, long drawn out and tiresome, but will be an entertainment by the best talent to be found in Mecklenburg, Cabarrus, Rowan, Iredell and Alexander counties.

Some unique fiddlers have been secured for the occasion, among them being a family of children from Barber's Junction, who play the fiddle like old-timers, and who are a whole show in themselves.

Another attraction will be a five-year-old prodigy from Alexander county, but who can knock off Little Breesches and Old Molly Hare, the equal of any fiddler of the bow in the country.

It is understood that the performance will be given under the auspices of the Confederate Choir, the proceeds to go to purchase uniforms and books.

The entertainment will be given on three nights, and will be some time the latter part of April or the first of May.

Lenten Services Rev. F. M. Osborne Speaker at the Y. M. C. A. Tomorrow.

Rev. Francis M. Osborne, rector of the Church of the Holy Comforter, will be the speaker at the business men's noonday Lenten service at the Young Men's Christian Association Wednesday from 12:05 to 12:35 o'clock.

The leader of the meeting will be Rev. Harris Mallinrodt, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church.

A feature of tomorrow's meeting will be the singing of a solo by Mr. Cyril D. Baxtrasser.

All men are invited to these services which begin and end exactly on the hour announced.

Meetings have been held thus far during Lent and will continue until Easter. Holy week will be observed by daily meetings.

The first four days being in the charge of Rev. Harris Mallinrodt and the last two services under the direction of Rev. R. C. Holland, D. D., pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church.
