Sorority Girls Leave for Home

The Banquet Was a Lovely Affair—Those Present—Washington The Next Place of Meeting—Officers Elected.

Hifty—Hifty—Helter skelter Who are we? But Kappa Delta!

The yell sounded and resounded through the corridors of the "Waldorf of the South." It was the last of the sixth annual convention of the Kappa Delta sorority and will be given next year in the Capital of the Nation, Washington, D. C.

The session yesterday afternoon was the busiest of the entire convention, lasting from 2:30 until 6:30 o'clock. Many matters were disposed of, though the most important business was the election of officers, which resulted as follows: Miss Bessie Warren Leach, of Tusculossa, Ala., president, succeeding Miss Anna Paxton; Miss Mary Sumter Thomas, of Columbia, S. C., secretary; Miss Jeannette Coltrane, of Concord, treasurer; Miss Elsie M. Brown, of South Dakota, chaplain; Miss Marguerite Springs, of Charlotte, associate secretary; and Miss Anna Paxton, of Bristol, Tenn., Va., editor in chief of the sorority magazine, The Angelos.

The banquet at the Selwyn hotel last night was a lovely affair. Miss Ellen Gibson, of Concord, presided as toastmistress. The responses by representatives of each of the chapters were bright and numerous. Those present and the chapters they represented were as follows:

Chaperones: Mrs. B. D. Springs, Mrs. P. M. Brown, Mrs. Jamison, the sorority chaperone; Mrs. C. F. Jones and Mrs. Thompson. Members present: Misses Anna Paxton, "Alpha," Sumter Thomas, "Phi Delta and Delta," John Coltrane, "Theta," Marguerite Springs, "Phi Delta and Sigma," Blanche Springs, "Phi Delta and Sigma," Emmie Dewey, "Phi Delta and Sigma," Marie Koener, "Phi Delta," Ernestine Patterson, "Phi Omega Phi," Yanita Cribbs, "Phi Delta," Stella Palmer, "Yeta," Marguerite Hamilton, "Theta," Cora

The flower of the Sorority, the white rose, prevailed throughout the banquet hall. The menu follows: Grape Fruit with Maraschino Cherries. Chicken Bouillon Delmonico. Toasted Butter Wafers. Celery. Salted Almonds. Olives. Canape Lorenzo. Garni Admiral. Filet Mignon Bouquette. Parisienne Potatoes. Creme de Menthe Punch. Roast Jumbo Squabs Stuffed. Sweet Potato Croquettes. Asparagus Hollandaise. Waldorf Salad. Bisque Tortoni. Assorted Fancy Cakes. Edam Cheese. Toasted Bent Water Crackers. Demi Tasse.

During the three days' meeting of the sorority in Charlotte the members have been very busy, both in attendance on social functions arranged by the entertainment committee and in the transaction of business coming before the sorority. Numerous business sessions were held at the Selwyn and from reports the ends reached were entirely successful. Much credit is due to the members of the local chapter for the magnificent manner in which the young ladies were entertained. Every spare moment was taken up and all in all the convention was the best ever held.

Beautiful souvenir sorority pins were given each guest at the banquet last night. The tables presented a rare picture of beauty, the sorority colors, green and white, being followed out in the entire arrangement.

Numerous toasts were delivered by representatives of the various chapters. Among the many were the following: "Welcome," "Welcome," by Miss Marguerite Springs: "It is my pleasant duty to bid you, my sisters, 'Welcome.' Not only do I bid you welcome in my own name but in fair Charlotte's name. Its trees and flowers have on their gayest dresses, and aid me in this welcome. Welcome then to our city, our home and hearts. The greatest of poets has said, 'Small cheer and great welcome makes a merry feast.' We have added 'good cheer' to our great welcome. Welcome then to it and to that which our toast-
