

BLOCKADERS OF SMITHTOWN GO TO U. S. PRISON

Special to The News.

Greensboro, N. C., April 28.—Yesterday morning six prisoners who were convicted at the recent term of the United States court here and sentenced by Judge Boyd to the United States prison at Atlanta, Ga., were taken from the Guilford county jail to that place to begin serving their sentences.

Those taken to Atlanta, with their sentence, were as follows: W. K. Freeman, of Montgomery county, one year and one day; Roy Lucas, also of Montgomery, one year and one day; Joe Bateman, Smithtown, fifteen months; John Hill, eighteen months; Oscar Sisk, three years, and Jim Smith, four years, all of Smithtown, Stokes county.

At Salisbury they picked up three other prisoners, who were convicted and sentenced to the Atlanta prison at last week's term of the Federal court in Statesville.

Representative men of the Christian church of four counties met with the congregations of Christians for a three days' session, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and Alabama are all represented. Mayor L. J. Brandt delivered an address of welcome in behalf of the city, and Mr. C. A. Hines made an excellent address of welcome in behalf of the congregation of the Christian church.

Mrs. C. D. Melver and President J. I. Poust, of the State Normal and Industrial College, returned yesterday from Memphis, Tenn., where last week they attended the Conference For Education in the South. Mrs. Melver made a most excellent address on education. Other North Carolinians who attended the conference were President E. L. Moffitt, of Elon College; State Superintendent J. Y. Joyner, and Assistant State Superintendent C. E. Melvick, and W. L. Potat, of Wake Forest College.

Sunday prohibition speeches were made to large crowds by Mr. Edgar Broadhurst at Zim's Chapel; Ex-Judge J. T. Shaw and Mr. W. A. Cook at Sandy Ridge; and Mr. T. C. Hoyle, at Mount Pleasant. Judge Jeter C. Pritchard also made an excellent address here on Saturday afternoon on prohibition.

NEGROES TO DIE ON GALLOWES.

Brother Murders Will Pay Penalty for Brutal Crime Friday.

Ned and Brack Toland, the two negroes who were convicted at the special term of court in Lexington on Tuesday of last week, will be hanged next Friday. They are in the penitentiary, where they will remain until Friday morning of next week, then to be taken to Lexington by Sheriff Corley and special deputies. The sentence of the court is that they be hanged at Lexington between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., giving the sheriff sufficient latitude so as to permit him to take such precaution as he deems wise in moving the prisoners from the penitentiary to Lexington.

The mother of the Toland boys and the wife of Ned Toland came to Columbia from Prosperity this week and pleaded with Gov. Ansel to spare the lives of the boys. They also called at the penitentiary and saw Ned and Brack. The mother was very much wrought up over the thought of both of her boys being hanged on the same day and made a very pitiful plea that they be spared the gallows. Gov. Ansel told the women that the boys had been convicted of a dastardly murder and were given an orderly trial. He held out no encouragement that he will interfere with the sentence of the court.

There had been some speculation as to whether the prisoners would be given military escort from Columbia to Lexington on the date set for the hanging. This has not been asked for by Sheriff Corley and he does not expect any trouble in executing the sentence of the court. Feeling, very naturally, was high against the boys shortly after the commission of the crime, and there was even some fear that they would not be allowed trial, but since they have been sentenced and both are to be legally hanged the people of that section of Lexington county where the crime was committed appear to be satisfied.

Ned insists that he killed Mrs. Ellison single-handed and that his younger brother is not to blame in the least. Brack holds to the story he told on the witness stand, but says he is trying to "get right"—Columbia State.

CAR SINKS WITH BRIDGE

Passengers in a Panic Until Safety-Catches Intervene.

Pottsville, Pa., April 28.—While a trolley car containing 150 passengers was crossing Harrison street bridge at St. Clair the bridge collapsed. The passengers screamed with terror as they felt the car sink with the bridge; but the safety catches prevented the bridge from falling more than two feet, and all were rescued in safety.

"No, my daughter," said the careful mother firmly, "you are too young to go out with gentlemen." "But it isn't a gentleman," expostulated the daughter, "it's—his only Jack."—Philadelphia Record.

THE JUMPING OFF PLACE.

"I was up on that nondescript, and I had almost reached the jumping off place when I was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery; and I want to say right now, it saved my life. Improvement began with the first bottle, and after taking one dozen bottles I was a well-to-do man again," says George Moore, of Grimesland, N. C. As a remedy for coughs and colds and healer of weak, sore lungs and for preventing pneumonia New Discovery is supreme. 50c and $1.00 at Woodall & Sheppard's, druggists. Trial bottle free.

MISSISSIPPI CLUB WOMEN

West Point, Miss., April 28.—Many of the most brilliant women of Mississippi were assembled in West Point today for the meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. Several score of delegates arrived on the trains last evening and this morning, and all indications point to a large attendance.

The meeting is to continue three days. It will not be all work, for interspersed with the more serious addresses and reports there will be recreation in the form of receptions, luncheons and other social features arranged by the Century Club, the host of the occasion. Headquarters were opened for the delegates this morning at the Hotel. The welcome meeting takes place in the First Baptist Church and the subsequent business sessions are to be held in Masonic Hall.
