

THE WEATHER

Forecast for Charlotte and vicinity: Fair and colder to-night and Sunday.

State Forecasts.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 6.—For North Carolina and South Carolina: Fair, colder to-night, Sunday fair. Moderate west winds becoming variable.

Weather Conditions.

The storm central over Lake Michigan Friday morning has moved slowly eastward over the lower Lake region. It has caused rain over the Mississippi valley and eastward and high winds in many localities. It has caused warmer weather over the Atlantic coast states, but has been followed over the Central Valleys and the Lake region by lower temperatures. Another center of low pressure appears over Western Nebraska, and a third is moving in over the north Pacific coast. Rain has fallen over the Pacific states. Generally fair weather has prevailed over the plateau and Rocky Mountain and Slope regions, under the influence of an area of high pressure central this morning over Wyoming. Indications are for fair, colder weather in the vicinity of Charlotte to-night and Sunday.

RECEPTION BY PHALANX LODGE

Most Enjoyable Affair Given Last Night in Masonic Hall.

The reception given last night in the Masonic Hall by Phalanx Lodge No. 31, A. F. and A. M. was one of those informal affairs that always prove so entertaining and enjoyable. Delicious refreshments were served, and a program of music delightfully rendered by Miss Catharine Walter, Miss Rose Chappeler, and Miss Cynthia Sessions, of Elizabeth college. Mr. H. J. Zehm, Mr. R. L. Kesler and little Miss Alice Fielding. In the receiving line were Mr. W. S. Liddell and Rev. Harris Malinckrodt, Mrs. J. S. Franklin assisted by several other ladies.

Thrilling War Picture.

"Thrilling Days in Old Virginia," is the best war picture ever shown in Charlotte. A good idea of the real battle is gained from seeing this picture. The scenes are as real as could be by the horses fall over dead as if they were actually shot. The final picture shows Gen. Lee surrendering.

A. & M. College Smoker.

The A. & M. College men of Charlotte and surrounding towns will hold a smoker tonight in the engineering hall of the Piedmont building. The meeting is not confined to graduates and all who have ever attended the college are invited. It is estimated that about 50 men will be present.

A Stirring War Picture.

The Confederate Scout which is being shown at the Edisona moving picture show today is said to be, by all who have seen it, the finest war picture ever shown in Charlotte. Besides an intensely interesting subject, the photographic qualities are unusually fine. It goes off tonight.

Veteran's Choir at Belmont.

The Confederate Veteran's choir has accepted an invitation to sing at the morning service in the Belmont Presbyterian church on North Pogram street tomorrow. The entire song service will be conducted by the Veterans and those who attend may expect to have their hearts warmed by the sweet strains of the "Old-time" hymns.

Westminster Presbyterian Church. Rev. F. D. Jones, pastor. Communion service at 11 a. m. and preaching at 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 3:30 p. m. Public cordially invited.

Mr. O. J. Hies is preparing to build a handsome brick dwelling on Elizabeth avenue, near the corner of Fox street. The house will contain nine rooms, all modern conveniences and will cost approximately $6,000.

Miss Essie Stokes entertained this afternoon at 3:30 to 6 in honor of Misses Lila and Cora Stancill.

Mr. W. M. Long, chairman of the board of county commissioners, has been confined to his room for several days, suffering with the grip.

Miss Mary King, of Concord, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Essie Stokes on North College street.

Mr. W. E. Dye, traveling representative of the Buc. Range Stove Company, spent yesterday here with his family.
